SANDS' SARSAPARILLA.

For the Removal and Permanent Cure of all Diseases Arising from an Impure State of the Blood, or Habit of the System.

This preparation is a combination hitherto unknown in the history of Medicine, differing entirely in its character and operation from the various preparations of Sarsaparilla, which have been offered to the public. It acts specifically upon the whole system, thereby bringing it under its direct and immediate influence. Although possessed of powerful healing effects, yet it is entirely harmless, so that it cannot injure the most delicate constitution. When in perfect health, no effect is produced on the system except an increase of appetite; but when disease is seated in the frame, and carrying fast its victim along the path of life, then its mysterious influence is felt and seen; it enkindles new life and vigor, and brings health and strength to the suffering and diseased.

"TRUTH IS STRANGER THAN FICTION."—LET THE FACTS SPEAK FOR THEMSELVES.—The following certificate is only another link in the great chain of testimony to its merits. Let the afflicted read and be convinced. What it has done once, it will do again.

CHARLESTOWN, Mass., Sept. 23d, 1845.

This may certify that my son, aged seventeen, has been for ten years afflicted with the scrofulous humor. At the age of seven years he had the measles, which probably caused this humor to make its appearance in a most singular way, covering his body from his head to his feet with small tumors. I consulted a doctor of medicine, and he examined him three days in succession, and not understanding his case, advised me to consult Dr. Rogers, of New York, I then being a resident of that city. After a long and critical examination, having more than thirty other medical gentlemen with him at the time, he pronounced it Scrofula or King's Evil. The child was then prescribed for, and commenced taking medical drugs from that time. He grew worse until June of 1837, and then his bones became affected in consequence of the mercury that had been given him. A piece of bone came away from his under jaw, in the first place, as large as an English walnut, a piece from his forehead as large as a sixpence, and a piece from near the crown of his head. It then went to the back and side, and discharged in three places. From thence to one of his limbs, separating, in consequence of the ulceration, the muscle and cord from the bones of the ankle joint on the back part. He had at one time fifteen running sores or issues from the glands of the throat and those places I have mentioned. In 1840, I lived in Portsmouth, N. H., and he was attacked with a Rheumatic Fever, which settled in one of his hips, which swelled as large as three of the other. Being under medical treatment, they gave him laudanum until he lost his reason. Then I became alarmed and sent for a Thompsonian. His medicine helped his hip and restored his reason. The third time he was attacked with this fever in 1842, when hearing Dr. Sands' Sarsaparilla, and being perfectly satisfied that all other medicines had failed of effecting a cure, I sent and procured six bottles, and by the time he had taken it all I considered him well. Those places healed—he became bright and lively—color came to his face and lips—from that time till the Fall of 1844, his complaints never troubled him. At that time he became deaf, which continued until last March, when his right eye became affected; from that to the left eye, covering the sight of the eye so that he was in a great measure deprived of sight.

Knowing that Sands' Sarsaparilla was the only medicine that had ever done him any good, I applied to Mr. Fowle, Apothecary, at Boston, for more. He has taken fifteen dollars' worth, which has removed the humor from his eyes and hearing, and he now appears to be cured, and radically so. I verily believe all this latter trouble might have been avoided if I had continued thoroughly the use of the Sarsaparilla when he was under its influence the first time.

These are the simple statements of the facts of the case, and I feel it my duty to make those facts known to the public, for the benefit of those who may be afflicted in like manner: feeling a full conviction the cure has been effected solely from the effect of this invaluable medicine.

HANNAH W. BECK, 298 Main st.

Suffolk, ss. Boston, October 13, 1845.—Then personally appeared the above named Hannah W. Beck, and made solemn oath that the above certificate, by her subscribed, and statements therein contained, are true.

Before me, JAMES RICE, Justice of the Peace.

The following letter, received from Captain Garrow, a gentleman well known and of the highest respectability, residing in Mobile, shows conclusively the value and efficacy of Sands' Sarsaparilla, in cases of chronic rheumatism:—

MOBILE, Alabama, July 3d, 1844.

Messrs. SANDS—Gents:—I was afflicted for more than ten years with rheumatism, and it is with pleasure I avail myself of this opportunity to express to you the salutary effect your Sarsaparilla had on me. In January, 1842, I purchased of your agents, Messrs. Mosely & Tucker, five bottles, which I took agreeably to the printed directions, which entirely removed the complaint, and I have now every reason to believe my health is permanently recovered. Yours, very respectfully,

S. H. GARROW.
