(CIRCULAR.) Philadelphia, Feb. 1, 1832.
SIR—A spurious medicine, under the name of Potter's Vegetable Catholicon, has recently been manufactured in this city, and distributed abroad. The labels on the bottles are exact imitations of mine, with the exception of the middle initials of my name being engraved W. Potter, instead of W. W. Potter.—My object in addressing this circular to you, is to prevent imposition on you, and injury arising to the patients who may use the medicine.
I continue manufacturing the article, the demand for which is increasing daily, as its virtues are becoming more extensively known.
Any orders you may please to give me will be executed with promptness and despatch. I am yours, respectfully, W. W. POTTER.

FOR SALE, that fine property in the suburb St. Mary, known heretofore under the name of RILLEAUX COTTON PRESS, fronting on Tchopitoulas, Poydrass and Magazine streets. There are on the premises, capacious warehouses substantially built of bricks; and should the purchaser prefer a new distribution of said property, a vast quantity of good lumber from the present buildings could be employed in new buildings. The yards, entrances, and passages, are all paved with round stone.
The situation of this property, in the centre of the most flourishing part of the city, deserves the attention of persons making a study of localities. Placed by the steamboat landing at the point of rendezvous of all the States, whose interest it is to be our tributaries, it affords in that respect advantages of position rendered scarce by the increase of business, and the immense inland connections of this city. The proximity of the river, the improved state of the pavement to Poydras st. affording to it in all seasons an activity denied to others by insurmountable difficulties in our municipal improvements, render this property a most eligible situation for the receiving or expedition of the vast quantity of produce coming to this city—and if entering the same branch of business does not benefit all concerned, a new destination of the premises would contribute to the improvement of this part of the city, already adorned by the splendid buildings of the Canal and Banking Company, in its immediate vicinity.
This property will be sold according to a plan made by L. Bringier, which will be exposed at the Exchange on Monday the 2d of April, if not sold previously at private sale.
For further information respecting terms and delivery, apply on the premises or at Hewlett & Raspiller's auction office, St. Louis st. march 15
