THE BEE.

PRINTED DAILY, BY P. DELARD.

St. Peter Street, between Bourbon & Rampart

THURSDAY, NOV. 27, 1828.

STATE LEGISLATURE,

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Sitting of Tuesday, Nov. 25, 1828.

Three Members just arrived were sworn in and took their seats.

The Speaker named Messrs. Turner, Wingaman, Johnston, Lawrence and Landreaux, to form on the part of the House a committee to be called the Judiciary Committee, the formation of which was adopted yesterday.

A favorable report was given concerning the bill to dispense Charles Devall with the time prescribed by law for obtaining the age of majority.

The petition in favor of Nancy Bankston, was read for the second time.

Mr. Berthe presented the two bills announced yesterday : the second reading to-morrow.

Three messages were brought from the Senate, the first informed the House of the Senate's concurrence in the resolution for appointing a Judiciary Committee, and that they had named Messrs Moreau, Randall and Declouet, on the part of the Senate.

The second message requested the concurrence of the House in a resolution for appointing a committee to examine the state of the Public Prison and to make a report concerning the improvements that may be thought advisible. The Senate had named on their part Messrs. Lacoste and Karr : the House concurred in this resolution and named Messrs. Durald, Metoyer and Dyer, on said committee.

The third message requested the concurrence of the House in a resolution, one authorising the representative of the State of Louisiana to demand of the General Government certain monies due by said Government to this State ; the other to authorise the Governor to instruct our representatives to make the demand in question.

A Member from St. Landry, announced his intention shortly to introduce a bill authorising the erection of a volunteer battallion in the Parish which he represents.

On account of some difference in the opinions of the Members of the Committee of Elections concerning the right of said committee to cite and hear witnesses who reside at a distance, Mr Turner presented a resolution to give said committee the right to cite and hear all witnesses in the cases before them. This resolution was opposed by Mr. Johnston, and after some debate was laid over for discussion till to-morrow.

SENATE.

Mr. Thomas, Senator from Baton-Rouge, agreeably to notice, presented yesterday a bill entitled "an act to abolish the Criminal Court in the City of New Orleans, and for other purposes." That bill was read for the 1st time ; and, on motion of Mr. Moreau Lislet, was referred to a special committee composed of Messrs. Thomas, Moreau Lislet and Hiriart

[From the Gazette de France, dated Sept. 24.]

PARIS, September 20.

The Austrian Observer of the 11th, contains news from Constantinople, dated 25th Aug. As it is, for the most part, only a repetition of what we gave yesterday, we merely extract the following details:—

The Grand Vizer who set out on the 20th for Adrianople, takes with him about 8,000 or 9,000 men, but his forces will be increased by all the contingents which will join him on the road to Schumla, whether he has orders to proceed after his arrival at Adrianople. The Sultan is resolved to put himself at the head of his army, if necessary. Every thing has been prepared for this purpose both in and out of the Seraglio, but the moment of his departure will depend upon events.

Though the preparations for defence are carring on by several thousand workmen out of the capital, the same activity is exerted to terminate the important and costly erections of two barracks at Scutari and Tschengelkoi, of a palace for the Sultan at Beglerbei, and of a marine barrack on the island of Halki. A new indication, says the Observer, of the spirit that prevails at Constantinople since the military reforms in 1826, is the adoption by the Ottoman government of the principles which have long since been received among Christian nations for the treatment of prisoners of war. On the representation of the Austrian Internuncio in favor of the Russian prisoners confined in the Bagnio, they were sent, on the 10th, on board several vessels to the island of Halki, where they were placed in a Greek Couvent. The Reis Effendi afterwards acquainted M. d'Ottenfels that it was the express will of the Sultan that the prisoners should be treated with mildness, that better food should be given them, and permission to take exercise in the open air ; and that they should left at liberty to perform the duties of their religion. Argirepoulo, formerly Dragoman of the Porte, and Hephanaki Vogorides, late Caimakan of Maldavia, have been recalled from their banishment at Broussa. The first had at present no employment, but the second at his own request, will follow the Grand Vizier to the army.

Constantinople, August 26.

Among the most recent measures of defence is, that all the troops which were in the forts of the Dardanelles have been summoned to the capital ; so that that side is now open to any attack. This would excite little notice, as the King of England's speech, on proroguing parliament, affirmed that Russia had engaged not to make any hostile attempt on that side ; but the Musulmans are now disposed to consider it as a certain indication that the Divan has already opened the way to secret engagement with England, and ventures to withdraw its troops from that coast, in full confidence that assistance will be afforded it in case of need.

It is said that the Russian prisoners taken at Esti-Stamboul were all massacred in a fit of rage. Their number is stated at five or six hundred men.

Spain.—It is stated in a letter from Saragossa, that the town of Cuzcurrita, in the Rioja, near St. Dominique de la Calzada, has been visited by an earthquake, which threw down the church, and several houses, and, it is said, upwards of 100 persons perished in the ruins.

Intelligence from Barcelona comes down to the 27th of August. It appears from those accounts, that the Count Espagne had returned from his tour in Upper Catalonia, where several arrests had taken place by his orders. Amongst others, that of the Governor of Puigcerda's Secretary. The arrest of M. Christophe Sales, a French merchant at Barcelona, which occurred on the 26th, after some resistance, had produced a considerable sensation.

Extract of a private letter of the 25th ult. from Madrid:—

"A serious quarrel has just arisen between the Bishop of Pampeluna and the Municipality of St. Sebastian. A short time since some Missionaries were sent to preach at St. Sebastian, and began their labors without the authorization of the Municipal Body. The Reverend Gentry were ordered to depart, and at the same time it was hinted to them, that if they did not obey they would be driven away by force. They left the town, therefore, but went to a convent about a quarter of a league from the town, and informed the faithful that they would immediately begin preaching.—On the day fixed the Municipality sent a company of the civil militia to the convent, who surrounded the church, and would not suffer any one to enter. The missionaries therefore departed, and the consequence has been an exchange of angry letters between the Bishop and the Municipal Body. The question has been referred to the King, and each party is employing its utmost efforts to gain a victory over the other.

[From the Charleston Mercury,]

It appears from a letter in the Cincinnati Chronicle, that the noted Isaac B. Desha, the murderer of the unfortunate Baker, is now under arrest in the Mexican Province of Texas, upon a similar charge. The writer of the letter is declared to be a gentleman of undoubted veracity:—

Extract of a letter from Thomas M. Drake, Esq. formerly of Washington, Ky. and now a resident in Texas.

San Felipe de Austin, July 24. 1828

"Isaac B Desha who was so long confined in Kentucky for the murder of Baker, is now in confinement in this place, on a charge of the same kind : the circumstances are these. Last April Desha arrived here on board the schooner Rights of Man from New-Orleans, in company with a man by the name of Thomas or Jhon Early, of Brown county, Ohio, who visited this country for the purpose of removing his family here. Desha passed by the name of John Parker; they arrived in this town early in May, and remained only a few days here, and left this for San Antonia. When they left here, Desha was without funds and Early had a smart sum with him. Desha arrived in San Antonia without Early, and spent money freely. On his return to this place I had him arrested, and have sent out men to-day to examine for the body of said Early. The evidence that I have been able to collect as yet, is very strong against him, and I am very much afraid that he has murdered his companion. Yesterday he confessed to me that he was Isaac B. Desha; but not until he had been identified by a gentleman in this country. I was satisfied in my own mind that he was Desha, from his family resemblance, and his breathing through a silver tube."

[From the Alabama Journal.]

The following is an extract of a letter from an undoubted source, dated San Felipe de Austin, in the Province of Texas, Aug. 13, 1828. "Isaac B. Desha is no more. He died in confinement in this village (San Felipe) on a charge for murdering his fellow-traveller on the La Bacha river, between this place and San Antonio. He died the day before his trial was to have been had. The evidence of his guilt was circumstantial entirely, but of the strongest kind. The name of the Gentleman who was murdered was——Early."

A fine sight.—Yesterday at 1 o'clock P. M. within the distance of ten miles of the Highlands, were to be seen seventy-four vessels of various descriptions, all standing outward with a good breeze. Amongst them were the packet ships of the 1st for London, Liverpool, Hamburg, Havre, New-Orleans, Mobile, Charleston, &c. They all went off safely. The Corinthian for London was clear of the Bar at 11 o'clock.—N. Y. Jour. of Commerce.

Rum, Fire, and Suicide.—On Tuesday last, the valuable barn of David Stockbridge, jr. Esq. of Whately, together with its contents; his corn house and contents, and two or three large sheds were consumed by fire.—The barn was superior to any in the county—it was built two or three years since, and cost $1000. The whole loss of Mr. Stockbridge, is said to be not less than $3,000. And it is supposed that Daniel Ellis did the deed. A year or two since the selectment of Whately, entered a complaint against Ellis as being a spendthrift, Mr. Stockbridge was appointed his guardian. Ellis, it is said, swore revenge against Mr S. When the fire was first discovered, Ellis was seen about thirty rods from the barn and running from it. He was immediately arrested, and on Wednesday was committed to the jail in this town.

Yesterday morning Ellis was found by the Jailer suspended by a handkerchief to one of the grates in his room, cold and lifeless. Reader, do you ask for the cause of all this? The answer is ready: RUM! was the procuring cause. RUM, produced these horrid acts.—Greenfield Gaz.

NOTICE.

At an assembly held on last Tuesday, at the house of Mr. Norton, it was resolved that a committee composed of eight persons, be named for the purpose of taking into consideration the object of said meeting, and to report thereon at the second meeting to be held on THURSDAY next at the same place and hour. The committee will likewise prepare a petition to be presented to the city Council to request the annulling of the whole or part of the Ordinance of the 18th of September.

The demands necessary to be made are these :

The two suburbs having twelve acres of front ; let six of them be abandoned to the use of those suburbs and to the making of bricks.

Let six other acres be left for the purpose of yards, as it is practised in Marigny's suburbs, let those yards be sixty feet wide and from the levee to the river, there would be 18 yards which being rented as those of Marigny's suburbs for $300 per annum will give.... $ [illegible]

Let the two squares of the market be divided in 12 lots of 50 feet front by 120 depth, and let these be put at auction, at the price of 100 to 150, in reducing them to 100.... [illegible]

Let the brick-makers be reasonable ; let them only pay for the transport of the bricks, which from the Bayou St. Jean to Lachaise plantation would be more than $2 50 cents the thousand—for the suburb Lacourse $1 do. the difference ; 1 50 per thousand ; which of two millions which is the quantity of bricks made by the brick-makers of the suburbs Lacourse and of Annonciation in raising the earth of the batture to which they have no right but the common wealth, as they get the materials from the batture we shall get from the sand brick makers.....

Let the rights of Levee for boats, &c. be paid ..... [illegible]

Revenue [illegible]

The costs of administration of the syndic and also those of the levee by proximation, being reduced ..... [illegible]

Real produce for both suburbs 8,000
Let the deduction for the first year 4,000

An equal sum to that annually 4,000

Nov. 24. SIMON LAIGNEL.

Nota.—The subscriber invites the inhabitants to form a committee, as the general interest of the four suburbs requires it. Since the year 1821 those suburbs have always been under the dominion of the Aldermen, who had always looked for their interest ; it is necessary that the inhabitants should make some regulations and call the annihilation of the ordinance of 18th September last, as being injurious to the inhabitants.

Mr. Laignel also informs the inhabitants of the suburbs that he will receive from them whatever they may afford, from one to two dollars. He is now indebted to the print rs $14, besides the advertisements and notices published in the papers—which amounts to $8. The whole amounting to 22 dollars.
