PRINTER FOR THE STATE, GENERAL COUNCIL, AND FOR THE FIRST MUNICIPALITY

NEW ORLEANS:
WEDNESDAY MORNING, MAY 23, 1838.

FOR GOVERNOR,
A. B. ROMAN.

Extract from the Journal of the Senate of the 6th Feb 1835.

Resolved, That the Senate of the State of Louisiana do approve of the general course of the administration of the late executive, A B Roman; and [illegible] to his retirement from office the general remembrance of the members of this house.

Resolved, That the President of the Senate be [illegible] to send a copy of this resolution to Mr Roman.

Extract from the Journal of the House, of the 3d Feb 1835.

Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Louisiana, that the administration of the government of the State by the late governor, A B Roman, has been marked by wisdom, firmness, and [illegible] and unwearied zeal for the public service [illegible] the laws, he has exhibited [illegible] the numerous and important appointments it has fallen to his lot to make, he has manifested impartiality, and a single regard to the true interests of the state; and that he retires with the [illegible] approbation of this House for his official conduct, and with their personal esteem and regard.

Resolved, That the Speaker of this House transmit to the late Governor Roman a copy of these resolutions.

Representative, 1st District, to Congress,
JOHN SLIDELL.

FOR THE SENATE OF LOUISIANA,
ALBERT HOA.

The American [illegible] parties to prove that abolitionists are to be encountered among the democratic party. To this effect he adduces a large amount of testimony, part true, part apocryphal, by which he thinks to overthrow the deductions of Mr Slidell and the facts brought forward in their support. Our contemporary has proved his experience in political tactics, by his indignantly espousing the cause of his party, and attempting with so much ingenuity to shift the burden of opprobrium from the shoulders of the whigs to those of the democrats. When the charge was first made, the opposition were so stunned [illegible] overwhelmed by its force and plausibility—so extensive was the catalogue of facts in proof of its soundness, [illegible] the reasoning by which [illegible] it was [illegible] borne down beneath its weight, and were [illegible] attempt at direct refutation [illegible] denunciation and indefinite denial. They sought vainly to shelter themselves [illegible] the accusation, by affecting [illegible] the accuser as a slanderer, but wisely suffered the [illegible] to remain untouched and uncontroverted. [illegible] was in the [illegible] largely [illegible] to furnish something like an offset to the [illegible] latter months of a silence which may be [illegible] acknowledgment, they come to assail us with our own weapons, and boldly assert the charge, asserting that abolition meets with its strongest advocates in the ranks of the administration.

What now are the boasted "facts" brought forward to prop up this absurd dogma? First, that the Vice President [illegible] Lieut Governor and secretary of state of Vermont were elected by the Anti-Slavery society. [illegible] the New [illegible] states, where the feeling of hostility [illegible] Of the [illegible] This fact does not [illegible] the states of Vermont and Massachusetts [illegible] whig majorities. The legislatures of these states are composed of a great majority of whigs [illegible] and all [illegible] of the democrats [illegible] supporters of the measures. [illegible] party are abolitionists, is limited to the [illegible] of a single state.

What will the crafty whigs say to the resolutions of the New York legislature, admiring and approving the course pursued in congress by Mr Slade and his [illegible] declaring the right of congress to abolish slavery in the District of Columbia—resolutions which passed the house of assembly by a majority of every whig vote save two, the few democrats in that body voting to a man against them—resolutions which were [illegible] from the house to the senate, were [illegible] on the table, not being even discussed [illegible] and sturdy democrats. What will they say to the triumphant attacks in the Emancipator, which expressed those facts, when, while proudly boasting of the progress of abolition, appealed to the whigs for countenance and support, called upon all abolitionists to review the conduct of the whig house of representatives in New York, as incontestable demonstration of the influence of their doctrines, and invoked them to make common cause against Mr Van Buren, "the arch enemy of emancipation," and his devoted followers. This we apprehend smacks somewhat strongly of the intimate union existing between the whigs and the abolitionists. A more convincing case in point could not well be imagined.

Your Federalist has a most convenient memory—[illegible] can retain and forget just as much as he pleases. It seems that the policy of the whig members of congress [illegible] presentation of Mr Patton's famous resolutions, [illegible] totally swept from the remembrance of [illegible] opponents. They appear to be entirely unconscious, that when the vote was taken on [illegible] it was admitted to be decisive of the future security of the south from the persevering efforts of the abolitionists, SIXTY FOUR members recorded their negative against it, and that of those sixty four [illegible] were whigs, and [illegible] democrats. This fact [illegible] of Mr Slidell's charges, than all the elaborate sophistry which the opposition can command. Whatever may have been the private sentiments of nine tenths of the democratic members of [illegible] subject of slavery, as soon as the question was thus made to bear directly upon the [illegible] with nine exceptions, their own views and sacrificed their individual opinions from the common altar of their country's welfare. [illegible] whigs, comprising nearly the whole opposition [illegible] at the time [illegible] the [illegible] of the nation, and refused to [illegible] of resolutions which had been offered for the purpose of conciliating the [illegible] southern members, and [illegible] dissentions that [illegible] dissolve our national league. [illegible] never was a period in which the [illegible] patriotism [illegible] history of the [illegible]

Where [illegible] contemporary obtain his information respecting Governor Hill's abolition principles? He [illegible] such opinions of the chief magistrate of New Hampshire. It is well [illegible] the abolitionists of that state, upon the occasion of the gubernatorial contest between Hill and Wilson, wrote to both these gentlemen, requesting an avowal of their sentiments upon these subjects, and [illegible] that they would bestow their suffrages accordingly. They were so little satisfied with Governor Hill's reply, that they voted en masse for his [illegible] thereby diminishing the majority for the former, though not ensuring his defeat. This is the true version of the story, in proof of which we refer to the columns of the New Hampshire journals of the period, and to those of the Washington Globe.

That Senator Morris of Ohio is disposed to favor abolition, we freely admit. He stands however [illegible] "solitary and alone," a notable illustration of the [illegible] and persuasive influence of the [illegible] one of the soundest minds and warmest hearts. But let us ask, are there no whig senators who are obnoxious to similar imputations? Is Daniel Webster perfectly untainted? Is Henry Clay himself entirely free from stain? Now we may [illegible] the extracts we have perused from time to time from the speeches of these celebrated statesmen. Their [illegible] at an epoch when the jealous [illegible] of [illegible] so many vulnerable points in the character and conduct of political opponents, must be looked upon as suspicious—it surely is highly improper, upon questions of so absorbing a nature, and it is most singular in individuals who are conventionally held up to the people as candidates for the highest office within their gift.

Virginia Election.—Three or four more counties yet remain to be heard from. At present, according to the Richmond Compiler, there is in the House a whig majority of ten, and an Administration majority [illegible] of two. If such continues the case, the [illegible] to Congress from Virginia cannot be [illegible] Jones, one of the delegates elect from the [illegible] of Buckingham, is dead. The Richmond [illegible] says, "we think he was a Whig."

THE GREAT ARTIC PROBLEM SOLVED.—The N York Sun says, "The North western Passage, so long sought by English navigators, has been found. We do not mean that a practicable passage to the N[illegible] of this continent has been discovered, but that a part of the employees of the Hudson's Bay Company, under Messrs P W Dease and Thomas Simpson, have traced the northern shore of N America, from Franklin's "Return Reef," on the Eastern, to Beechy's Cape Barrow, on the Western side of the continent.—Now we shall soon have a map, and the Atlas will no longer grow into unknown lands and seas at the north of America. The grand problem is solved, and the question of the connection of the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans settled. Farther than for speculative or geographical purposes, the discovery is not useful, but all praise for its accomplishment is due to the Hudson's Bay Company, and their hardy mariners."

Democratic Review.—The May number of this able periodical is not inferior in variety and interest to any of its predecessors. The disquisition on the "True Principles of Commercial Banking," is "one of the soundest, simplest and most lucid expositions we have yet seen of the correct theories upon which the financial system should be based, in order to carry out its usefulness, without subjecting it to those tremendous revulsions which shake credit and confidence, and bring ruin upon thousands. The great financial axiom that the proper business of a Bank is not to lend capital, but to lend credit, is commented upon and illustrated with remarkable clearness and cogency. To the student in this, perhaps the most complicated portion of political economy, we can warmly recommend all the articles upon currency, which have appeared in this valuable periodical. They are written in terse and convincing language, and are free from those tedious details and elaborate calculations which fatigue the attention and destroy the taste of the reader for such pursuits.

The Autobiography of Ferret Snapp Newcraft, is a most pungent and admirably sustained satire upon the abuses of the credit system. It abounds in piquant humor, and contains many amusing hits at the great Financier himself. The review of Prescott's Ferdinand and Isabella, is felicitously and faithfully written—the importance and value of that excellent work which merits to be considered as one among the scanty but increasing collection of American classics, is demonstrated in terms of just and glowing commendation.—The pen of Hawthorne has enriched the pages of this number with one of those beautiful, quiet yet imaginative stories in which the genius of the author of "Twice Told Tales" delights, while the lover of old historic records will find amusement and instruction in the narrative of the discovery of America by the Northmen.

Congress, May 14.

The Treasury Note Bill was taken up in the House, and the debate was resumed for some hours. Mr Robertson of Virginia, moved for the committee to rise, pledging as far as his vote would go to have the question on the bill taken on Thursday. This was carried by a vote of 91 to 86. Previous to this, Mr Boon, of Ia. asked for a suspension of the rules to submit a resolution for making no discrimination in the money receivable for public dues. This was lost, two thirds of the votes in the affirmative not being obtained.

In the Senate, the bill to extend the charters of the banks in district of Columbia was discussed until adjournment. In the course of the morning Mr Williams of Me. spoke at some length in defence of a bill proposing a survey of the disputed territory in the north west boundary. Webster moved to lay the request on the table, and to have the resolutions of the Legislature of Massachusetts printed. This motion was adopted, Mr Webster signifying his intention to address the Senate on the subject in a few days.

May 15

The debate on the Treasury bill still continued. Long and dull speeches were made on both sides. During the morning hour, Mr Garland of La called up the resolution offered some time since by Sherrod Williams instructing the Committee of Ways and Means to report a bill to prohibit the Executive from continuing in force, or to issue any order making any discrimination in the kind of money received for the public dues. Mr Boon moved to suspend the rules which motion being lost, he declared his intention of submitting the same motion every morning till considered.

In the Senate most of the sitting was consumed on the bill concerning the banks of the District of Columbia. The question was on Mr Buchanan's proposition that the said banks should keep an amount of specie equal to one fourth their circulation. Messrs Niles and Benton spoke at length in favor of the strict provisions of the bill. Mr Buchanan being absent through indisposition, Mr Benton proposed to postpone its further consideration till the morrow, which was agreed to.

Before the special order was taken, Mr Davis offered another memorial against the fulfilment of the New Echota treaty with the Cherokees. Mr Lumpkin [illegible] denounced the memorialists as interfering in matters they did not understand. Soon after the subject was laid aside.

During the morning Mr Allen offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee on the District of Columbia procure and report to the Senate, statements of the condition of the several banks in the District that have applied for an extension of their charters, in regard to the following particulars:

1st—The names of the officers and directors and the banks—the amount of stock owned—and debts [illegible]

2d. The stockholders of the banks respectively—the stock owned—debtors, &c.

3d—The suits instituted since the suspension of specie payments.

Two Children Killed by Furious Driving.

Yesterday morning a beer cart, in the Third Municipality, racing furiously along, overturned and killed two little colored children, one 15 months and the other 10 years old. Are the ordinances against fast driving within the precincts of the city merely a vain [illegible]? Must they still continue to be a jest and byeword to the careless miscreants who are thus suffered to trifle with impunity with human life? Are we forever to urge the same incessant complaints? We earnestly appeal to the proper authorities to put the laws in force, and place a final barrier to the dangerous infraction of our Municipal Ordinances which disgrace the administration of our city.

Bahia

The Boston Courier reports the arrival in that port from Bahia, March 28th, of the ship Recon, Captain Symonds. At the surrender of the city on the 17th, two thousand persons were taken. Sabino, the chief of the rebels was found secreted in the house of the French Consul. His fate was uncertain as his friends were numerous, and the victors afraid of vigorous measures. Before the surrender of the city, a body of rebel soldiery about six hundred in number, escaped through the blockade in whale boats, and [illegible] the country. Some apprehension was felt lest they should be reinforced. The besieged, when in possession of successful defence, destroyed many of the most valuable buildings, about seventy in all. The residents and soldiery suffered severely from starvation.

The U. S. ship Fairfield, sailed from Rio Janeiro, March 21.

Newspapers

Paris, the most refined and enlightened metropolis in the world, boasts of 300 papers. In England and America there are more newspapers than in all the other countries in the globe, the number being—in Belgium, 81; in France, 750—in England, 1,200—in America, 2,800—in Holland, Switzerland, Russia, Austria, Prussia, Spain, Italy, and in the other countries of Europe, 71. Total, 4,905.

China has one paper, and Turkey, two; Greece has four—the isle of Candia, one—India, 27—Australia, 17. These details are from an article in "Le Courrier des Etats Unis."

EFFECTS OF INTEMPERANCE.—In New York James Keren in a fit of intoxication, let the candle fall on a bed in which lay his wife Sarah equally given to the same brutal habit. The clothing was soon on fire and the wretched woman so horribly burnt, that she died after bringing a dead child prematurely into the world. The husband witnessed the affair with perfect sangfroid, and neither stirred hand nor foot to assist his wife. He is committed for trial.

BANKS IN MASSACHUSETTS.—No less than thirteen banks in this state have failed—stopped and failed.—The Legislature have repealed the charters of 11 out of the 13. Most of the Country Banks pay specie.

The following persons from New Orleans left New York, on the 7th instant for England by the Great Western—H. P. Leonard, George C. Duncan, lady and servant, J Labadie, G. Bruslé, B. Duprix, Capt Wm H. Chase, U S Engineer Corps, bearer of despatches, and lady.

☞ Mad dogs are infesting the streets of Philadelphia, though two hundred dogs have already been destroyed under the new ordinance. One, exhibiting every rabid symptom, was killed lately, after having bitten two children. It is time for the authorities of New Orleans to look out for these dangerous animals.

MACKENZIE'S GAZETTE—A paper having this title, and devoted to the news and politics of Canada and the other North American Colonies, England and Wales, Ireland, Scotland and the Continent of Europe," has made its appearance in New York.

MUNICIPALITY No. 1.

SITTING OF MONDAY, May 21, 1838.

The Council assembled this day according to adjournment.

The Recorder having called the members to order, and directed the Secretary to call the roll, the members present were—Messrs. Armitage, Lazare, Pation, Faurès, Guillot, Writz, Lanaux, Zenon Cousin, Lessepe, Cruzat, Vignié, Guesnard, Lefebvre, Lambert, Marsoudet, Preval, Philippe Lanaux, Henry Coisson—19

Absent—Messrs. W F C Duplessis, E Duplessis, Prados, Correjolles and Roy.

After reading and approval of the Journals of the 14th and 16th instant,

A message from the Mayor, Mr Charles Génois, was recd, dated this day

The first article of this message stated, that the adjudication of the lands formerly belonging to M'Donough, which was to have taken place that day, conformably to a resolution of the Council, had not taken place, because the prices offered were below the minimum fixed upon.

On motion of Mr Prados, and after dispensation of rules, the following preamble and resolution were adopted:—

Whereas, the sale of the lots purchased from Mr M'Donough, by the 1st Municipality, could not take place this day, for want of purchasers; and, whereas, it is of the greatest importance to the interests of the 1st Municipality, that the immense capital invested in these lots, should not remain inactive.

Whereas, the Council of this Municipality is of opinion that the most advantageous mode of defraying the interest paid by it to Mr M'Donough, on the price of the purchase of said property, is to obtain rents by having houses and buildings constructed thereon.

Resolved, That the Surveyor of the 1st Municipality be authorized to draw a plan, indicating the buildings to be constructed on said lots purchased from Mr M'Donough by the 1st Municipality, by preserving in said plan the front indicated on that drafted for the sale of said lots.

Resolved, That the Surveyor shall transmit said plan to the Council, with an estimate of the cost of said buildings.

The last act of the message transmitted a copy of a resolution adopted by the Council of the 2d Municipality, at its sitting of the 15th instant, concerning the sale of the lots forming part of the ancient commons, and situated between Canal, Tchoupitoulas, Magazine and Common streets.

Mr Marsoudet gave notice, that the Committee of Conference, appointed for this purpose, would soon present its report; and in the meanwhile, on motion, Resolved, that said resolution be laid on the table, subject to the call of the Council.

On motion of Mr Lambert,

Resolved, That the Council dispense with the ordinary rule, to proceed to the election of Auctioneer to the 1st Municipality.

On motion of Mr Vignié,

Resolved, That Mr J Dutillet shall be, and is hereby unanimously elected Auctioneer to the 1st Municipality.

On motion of Mr Prevat,

Resolved, That the Mayor be directed to make known to the Council at its next sitting, the individual chosen by him as the 6th Assessor of Taxes, in virtue of the resolution passed the 14th instant.

A letter was read from Mr W F C Duplessis Alderman of the 1st Ward, announcing his resignation.

On motion of Mr Armitage Resolved, that the resignation of Mr W F C Duplessis as Alderman of the 1st Ward, be accepted, and that the mayor shall be, and is hereby authorized to have published conformably to law, that an election for an Alderman will take place in the 1st Ward, in such a place under the inspection of such persons as shall please the mayor to designate.

A letter was read from Mr Marsoudet, announcing his resignation as Commissary of the General Sinking Fund.

On motion the council proceeded to fill this vacancy by the ballot box,—Messrs H Coisson and F Lefebvre, being appointed tellers, upon counting the votes it appeared that of eighteen votes, Mr C Lesseps had obtained 11, Mr Lambert 7, and there was one blank vote.

Mr C Lesseps was consequently proclaimed duly elected commissary of the sinking Fund.

LATER FROM ENGLAND

The packet ship Philadelphia, Morgan, has arrived at New York from London bringing papers of that city of the evening of the 19th of April. We copy the annexed items from the New York Evening Post

The Philadelphia brings out 100,000 [illegible] sovereigns for the United States Bank, and 170,000 for Prime Ward & King.

Despatches were received from Sir J Colborne, Governor of Canada, at the colonial office on the [illegible] ult.

Earl Durham was to sail on 20th ult. in the Hastings, from Portsmouth for Quebec.

We learn by this arrival that the ship Thorn, of Sag Harbor, lost her captain and six of her crew, by a whale staving the boat on the 1st February.

☞ The scientific expedition undertaken at the expense of the Hudson's Bay Company, to survey the extreme northern coast of America, has, in part, fulfilled its object. Messrs Dease and Simpson, with ten attendants, reached Fort Good Hope, the northernmost settlement of the Company, on the 4th July last, and descended the Mackenzie river in boats. They reached the ocean on the 10th of July, and proceeding westward, followed the line of coast to Point Barrow. They [illegible] completed the survey of the coast between the extreme points laid down by Captain Beechey and Captain Franklin.

They passed a few days with the Esquimaux at the Point, and setting out on their return reached Fort Norman on the 5th of September, having been absent four days short. From Fort Norman, they went, at the time the despatches were sent, preparing to proceed to a settlement which had been got ready for them at the east end of Great Bear Lake. Here they were to winter, and in July next to resume their labours.—Proceeding to the eastward they hope to connect the discoveries of Franklin and Back, and then complete the Survey of the whole coast of North America.

A snow storm as severe as any of the past winter was experienced in London and its neighborhood, on the 19th of April

Green peas were for sale in London for one guinea per basket, about the eighth of a peck.

FRANCE

The Chamber of Deputies on the 17th of April was occupied with the discussion of the proposed conversion of the 5 per cents. The Committee on the extraordinary credits demanded on account of Algiers met for the eleventh time on the 16th. The limits of the Algerine territory were discussed. M Thiers contended that they should be made as extensive as possible, and talked of sending a force of 100,000 men to protect the territory.

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD.

Ran away from the subscriber on the [illegible] of May, the negro woman HESTER. She is about 20 years of age, rather small stature, of a bright yellow color, and a likely countenance, speaks English only. She took with her her female child Harriett, a very bright quadroon, between four and five years of age, large black eyes, long curled hair, of a delicate appearance and handsome features, rather small for age, has the upper front teeth much decayed. The child is of a very clever color, shows much intelligence, and will, when asked her name, call herself LOLO. It is supposed that the mother has been enticed away by some unprincipled white man, or that she has been furnished with spurious free papers or passport, in which case she will probably have changed her name. ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS reward will be given, and reasonable expenses paid if taken out of the State of Louisiana; FIFTY dollars if within any of the other parishes of this State, and twenty five dollars if within the city and parish of New Orleans. Also all reasonable expenses will be paid, if taken in the country or out of the State.

Captains of steamboats, &c, are forewarned not to carry off the said slaves under the severest penalties of the law.
