Sales at Auction.

BY TRICOU & BARNETT, Sen., Auctioneers.

Sale of Geneva & other Lots adjoining. Fronting Lake Pontchartrain.

WILL be SOLD, on Thursday, 21st June next, at 12 o'clock, at the City Exchange, by the above-mentioned auctioneers, several lots of Ground, forming the city of Geneva, together with several other lots adjoining it, and fronting Lake Pontchartrain.

It is impossible to imagine a more favourable and healthy spot for building delightful country houses. The air is pure, the soil elevated, and a large number of springs of limpid water are to be found there. Bayou Castaing and Bayou des Cannes there fertilize their banks, on which grow in abundance oaks, walnuts, and splendid magnolia grandiflora.

Situated at three hours' distance from New Orleans, near Mandeville, whose population is continually augmenting, Geneva promises soon to rival, if not surpass the former. But it is superfluous to speak any further of a spot which is familiar to all. The national railroad passes in the midst, as well as the road going to Pearl River, which is already marked out in consequence of the activity and energy of Mr Bernard Marigny.

These lots offer great and numerous advantages and emigrant Swiss, Frenchmen, &c. who seek to establish themselves economically and advantageously.—The products of their industry could easily be sent to Mandeville and New Orleans, with which daily communication is kept up. A saw-wood mill is already established quite near the spot, several others are about to be erected.

Those desirous of purchasing, would do well to profit by the departure of the steamboat every Sunday to Mandeville to visit the said lots. Those persons who cannot leave New Orleans may apply to Messrs Penn, deputy surveyor of the United States, or to Louis Surgy, surveyor to the third municipality, who have both surveyed and examined said lots in every respect.

The terms are highly favourable to purchasers. One sixth cash—the balance at 1-2 3-4 and 5 years in notes bear a mortgage, and in case of the notes not being paid when due, they shall bear an interest of 10 per cent from the day of protest.

The squares are very large and contain four superficial acres.

The act of sale will be passed before Amedée Ducatel, at the expense of the purchaser.

Mr Louis Surgy is pledged to put purchasers in possession, as soon as a sufficient number is obtained. In case the actual sale are not signed by the purchasers within one month from the sale, the sellers reserve the right of selling at a second time at the risk and account of the purchasers, after ten days advertisement in the public papers and without further notice.

The plan of said lots will be exhibited at the Exchange before the sale or at A Ducatel, not. pub.

A BEAUTIFUL HEAD OF HAIR is the greatest ornament belonging to the human frame. How strange is the loss of it changes the countenance and prematurely brings on the appearance of old age, which causes many to recoil at being uncovered, and sometimes even to shun society to avoid the jests and sneers of their acquaintances; the remainder of their lives are consequently spent in retirement. In short, not even the loss of property fills the generous thinking youth with that heavy sinking gloom as does the loss of his hair. To avert all these unpleasant circumstances, OLDRIDGE'S BALM OF COLUMBIA stops the hair from falling off on the first application, and a few bottles restores it again. It likewise produces eyebrows and whiskers; prevents the hair from turning grey, makes it curl beautifully, and frees it from scurf. Numerous certificates of the first respectability in support of the virtues of Oldridge's Balm, are shown by the proprietors.

Read the following:

ROBERT WHARTON, Esq. late Mayor of Philadelphia, has certified, as may be seen below, to the high character of the following gentlemen.

The undersigned do hereby certify that we have used the Balm of Columbia discovered by J. Oldridge, and have found it highly serviceable not only as a preventive against the falling off of hair, but also a certain restorative.

WM THATCHER, senior, Methodist Minister in St. George charge, No. 86 North Fifth st.

John P. Inglis, 331 Arch street.
John D. Thomas, M. D. 163 Race st.
John S. Furey, 101 Spruce st.
Hugh McCurdy, 243 South 7th st.
John Gard, Jr. 123 Arch st.

The aged and those who persist in wearing wigs, may not always experience its restorative qualities, yet it will certainly raise its virtues to the entire to the public, when it is known that three of the above signers are more than 50 years of age, and the others not less than 30.

From the Mayor.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, City of Philadelphia.

I, ROBERT WHARTON, mayor of said city of Philadelphia, do hereby certify that I am well acquainted with Messrs J P. Inglis, John S. Furey, & Hugh McCurdy, whose names are signed to the above certificate, that they are gentlemen of character and respectability and as such full credit should be given to the said certificate.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the city to be affixed, [L. S.] this sixth day of December, &c.

ROBERT WHARTON, Mayor.

CAUTION.—Observe that each bottle of the genuine balm has a splendid engraved wrapper, on which is represented the Falls of Niagara, the agent's name, &c. &c.

Sold wholesale and retail by COMSTOCK & CO, sole agents for America, 2 Fletcher street, near Maiden lane, one door below Pearl st. New York, and by one or more druggists in nearly every town in the Union.

Also by Simmons, Hart & Co., Comb & Variety Store. feb 2 y

PENMANSHIP,

Practical and Ornamental, Taught at

DOLBEAR & BROTHERS' Writing Academy, No 8 Chartres street.—The extensive patronage which the [illegible] method of Writing has received in various parts of the United States, and the increasing application for instruction in the science, as well as the practice of Writing, has induced them to establish permanent academies in New York, New Orleans, and Mobile; and it is their attention to afford greater facilities for the acquisition of Penmanship, than are afforded by any other institution in the country. Persons entering one of them has the privilege of attending either of the others without extra charge. The Ladies and gentlemen are respectfully invited to call and see specimens of rapid improvement given by persons from 8 to 50 years of age, who have received lessons in this school. [illegible] may be seen at any hour of the day. Ladies are taught a delicate and rapid epistolary style; also, various styles of ornamental writing, suited to Albums, Cards of Compliment, &c. Gentlemen are taught a rapid and expeditious hand writing calculated to facilitate the business transactions, by dispensing with the delay incident to deciphering the hieroglyphical scrawl of many men of business, and imparting to the clerk a style at once rapid and elegant. Persons visiting the city for only a few days, will receive special attention.

The number of Lessons is not limited, but each person who enters is desired to remain till he can write sufficiently well for any kind of business. The interest of both teacher and pupil.

Ladies who prefer it can receive lessons at their residences. Ornamental writing executed with elegance.

N. B. Dolbear's "Science of Penmanship" particularly designed for private learners and academies, and calculated for persons of all ages, imparting ease and freedom not attained by any other means. Also, Dolbear's new copy book for female seminaries, intended as a supplement to the science of Penmanship, for sale here.

TEETH.
