FOR MADISONVILLE AND COVINGTON.

THE well known and fast running steamboat CORSAIR, Bagley master, will leave the railway on every Sunday, until further notice, at nine o'clock A. M. and return in the evening of the same day. She will also leave the railway every Wednesday at half past 9 o'clock A. M. for Madisonville, and thence up the river within one mile of Covington, and return on the following day (Thursday.)—Passengers wishing to go on Sundays should be at the railway for the car at a quarter past 8 o'clock A. M.

This boat having been purchased by a company expressly for the Lake trade, will be continued as a regular packet between Covington, Madisonville, and New Orleans; and those wishing passage days would be willing to tow rafts of timber or spars.

Patronage respectfully solicited.

WM. BAGLET.

AGENCY AT WASHINGTON CITY.

JAMES H. CAUSTEN (late of Baltimore) having made this city his permanent residence, & located his dwelling and office directly opposite to the state and treasury departments, will undertake, with his accustomed zeal and diligence, the settlement of claims generally; and, more particularly, claims before congress—against the United States, or the several departments thereof—and before any board of commissioners, raised or to be raised, for the adjustment of spoliations on [illegible] nations. He has now in charge the entire class of claims of French spoliations prior to the year 1800, a majority of those embraced by the treaty lately concluded with the French government; with reference to which, he has access to the archives of the government, and secured legal aid of undoubted qualification. He has been so long before the public as an agent, that it will only be necessary now to say, that economy and prompt attention shall be extended to all business confided to his care; and that, to enable him to render his services and facilities more efficacious, he has obtained a commission of Notary Public.

To editors just [illegible], while it will be his pleasure to give [illegible] attention to all paper communications, the past [illegible] will be paid on [illegible] addressed to him.

FREE DAY SCHOOL.

ATTACHED TO THE POYDRAS ASYLUM.

THE managers of the Female Orphan Asylum have long for many years past, had frequent application for the admission of children into the Poydras Asylum, who were not objects of that institution, strictly one, and in many instances both parents; and wishing to extend the usefulness of the institution, have resolved to open a free day school, for the education of female children whose parents cannot have them instructed elsewhere. They propose having the pupils taught reading, writing, arithmetic, and plain sewing.

Parents desirous of availing themselves of this opportunity, will receive a ticket of admission for any child over five years of age. Information of the hours, rules, &c. by applying at the office of the Female Orphan Society. aug 2
