CONGRESS.
IN SENATE—Friday, January 12.
Abolition of Imprisonment for Debt.
—The unfinished business of yesterday was then taken up, and the bill to abolish imprisonment for debt being under consideration, on the question of engrossing for a third reading.

Mr. Berrien moved an amendment to the sixth section; so as to make the provisions of that section operate not merely prospectively, but upon cases of actual imprisonment; which was agreed to.

Mr. Eaton moved an amendment to the section, exempting men of seventy years and upwards, as well as females, from imprisonment under this act.—Agreed to.

Mr. Tazewell made some suggestions, addressed to Mr. Berrien, to whom he asked several explanations. Several interrogatories and explanations passed between these gentlemen, which concluded in a debate in which Messrs. Bell, Berrien, Johnson, of Ky. McKinley, and Tazewell, participated, when the latter gentleman moved to strike out the 9th section, which provides for the imprisonment, until discharged by due course of law, of all persons who shall hold their property in such a manner as to prevent its being subjected to execution.

This motion was debated at great length by Messrs. Berrien, Tazewell, Van Buren, Hayne, and Johnson, of Ky. and was decided by yeas and nays as follows:

Yeas—Messrs. Chase, Ellis, Harrison, Hayne, Hendricks, Noble, Robbins, Ruggles, Tazewell, Van Buren, White, Wiley.—12.

Nays—Messrs. Barton, Bledsoe, Bell, Benton, Berrien, Boulogne, Branch, Chambers, Chandler, Cobb, Eaton, Johnson, of Ky. Johnston, of Lou. Kane, King, Knight, McLane, Macon, Martin, Parris, Ringo, Rowan, Seymour, Sibley, Smith, Van Buren, Williams, Woodbury.—40.

Mr. Cobb then moved to strike out that portion of the first section of the bill, which renders it necessary for the plaintiff to make oath to the specific amount of his debt, to the cause of action and to a belief that the defendant is unable to pay the debt.—Mr. C. explained his motion at considerable length, and was followed by Messrs. Johnson, of Ky. Kane, Woodbury, Van Buren & Berrien; when the question being taken, the motion of Mr. Cobb was rejected.

Mr. Chandler moved to lay the bill on the table; which being put, and a division called, the vote stood 22 to 22, when the Vice President gave his vote against the motion.

The question on the motion of Mr. Noble to postpone, then occurring, it was rejected.

On motion of Mr. Smith, of South Carolina, it was ordered, That, when the Senate adjourns, it adjourn to Monday next; when the Senate adjourned.

The following is copy of the memorial of the inhabitants of this city, which has been forwarded to Albany. To the Honorable the Legislature of the State of New-York.

The memorial of the undersigned, inhabitants of the city of New-York, on behalf of themselves and others of their fellow citizens, respectfully shews.—

That, within the last few years, the population and business other city of New-York, and, as a necessary consequence, its sources of litigation, have, from various causes, increased to a degree before unprecedented; and that the present judiciary establishment, as experience has fully shown, whatever may be the talents and exertions of the judges themselves, is inadequate to the discharge of the increasing duties imposed upon it; and ought, as your memorialists believe, to be so far augmented as to meet the emergency, and to insure to suitors, not only an able and impartial, but what is often still more important, a prompt administration of justice.

Your memorialists therefore, referring your honorable body for the particulars on this subject to the proceedings which have lately taken place in the Common Council of the city, copies of which are herewith transmitted,) would respectfully pray, that your honorable body would be pleased to provide by law for the establishment of a CITY COURT and the appointment of a VICE CHANCELLOR, as proposed in the two forms of acts lately submitted to the Common Council, and by them published for the consideration of their constituents—to the end that the ruinous delays of justice, under which, in common with our fellow citizens, we are now laboring, may be speedily removed.

And your memorialists will ever pray, &c.

Presidential.—Of the 58 members of the House of Representatives of Indiana, 38 are in favour of Mr. Adams, and 13 in favor of Gen. Jackson. This is the result of personal inquiry, and may be relied on. The rest of the members, 7 in number, declined avowing their preference.—[Richmond (Ind.) Public Ledger.]

Yet do we frequently see Indiana set down as a Jackson State.—[Ed. Am.]

The debate upon causing a picture of the battle of New-Orleans to be painted, has resulted, as it was proper it should, in the rejection of the proposition. This will be a sore disappointment to partisans; but all others will concur in the propriety of the decision. The project was undoubtedly got up for effect; it had been previously announced by letters from the capitol, that on the 8th, steps would be taken to develop the Jackson strength; and the homage of a picture, to be paid for by the people, was the adopted test. Happily, and properly, it failed; and this new attempt at idolatry has been defeated by the good sense of the representatives of the people. We say idolatry. Perhaps, however, that word imports too much—for it at least implies sincerity—whereas, in this project, honour to the individual or the event, was only a secondary consideration—effect upon the public being the first. It was intended as a demonstration of Jackson strength; and so it ought to be viewed.—N. Y. American.

SNOW HILL, Jan. 2.
Piracy or Mutiny.—On the 2d inst. a large armed brig was discovered ashore on Chincoteague beach.—The crew could show no papers, but stated the brig was from Hayti—there appeared to be no captain or lieutenant on board. The crew it is supposed, mutinied and took possession of the brig from the officers.—There were pistols, muskets and cutlasses. On information given the magistrates in the neighbourhood went about getting together a party for the arrest of the crew.

The United States' ship of the line Delaware, Capt. Downes, anchored in Annapolis Roads last Wednesday, where she will, no doubt, be visited by the Heads of the Departments, and many citizens of Baltimore and Washington.—[Gaz.]

FROM BRAZIL.—The ship Porcia, at this port sailed from Rio Janeiro, Nov. 18th. The captain informs that Mr. Allen, late minister to Chili, had arrived there, on his way home. The law passed by the Cortes to equalize the duties on all foreign merchandise, had not been sanctioned by the emperor; and the senate had rejected a bill passed by the lower house, to authorize foreign vessels to perform the coasting trade. The Cortes had adjourned their session. We learn that Mr. Allen, and his lady, arrived at Rio on the 14th Nov. in a French merchant ship from Valparaiso, and would embark in the ship Brilliant, which was to sail in about ten days for this port.

A force of about 3000 men sailed from Rio about the 10th, to reinforce the army in Rio Grande. The Buenos Ayres army remained inactive in the mountains of that province, and it was not expected the campaign would open before Decembris.

New-York, January 4.
Painful occurrence.—Mr. Oliver G. Kane, secretary of the National Insurance Company, in Wall street, put a period to his life last night, by shooting himself through the head with a pistol. He went to Niblo's Hotel on Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock, and asked for a private chamber, stating that he was very much fatigued. He asked for no refreshments during the day, and evening.—At 11 o'clock at night a waiter knocked at his door, to enquire if he was in want of any thing, to which he answered "no." Yesterday morning, the waiter again knocked at his door, and received no answer. Mr. Niblo, on learning this circumstance, had the door forced open, when the body of the unfortunate man was found lying on the bed, with a pistol lying near.—The bullet had entered the right ear and passed out at the left, had struck the wall and dropped on the bed. A vial which had contained laudanum was found in the room, which, it has been ascertained, he procured on New Year's Eve, at the store of Messrs. Hulls. The verdict of the coroner's jury was, that he came to his death from the ball of a pistol, fired by himself. In the office of the company of which he was secretary was found a slip of paper, on which he had written:—
"My fate may be read in the tragedy of the Gamester. O. G. K."

It is somewhat remarkable, that his predecessor in the same office, committed suicide some two or three years since. Mr. Kane was a young man of very respectable parentage and connections, and universally esteemed. He has been married only two years, and left a most accomplished and amiable wife, and an infant child, whose affliction at this melancholy bereavement is almost insupportable.

New-York, January 10.
The eighth of January—thanks to the indiscretion of those who made it a party day, passed off in this city with less than accustomed honor. We are assured, by one who took pains personally to verify the fact, that among the mass of shipping in our rivers not a flag of any sort was flying. The military parade was piteously thin. The Masonic Hall dinner, notwithstanding unpropitious entreaties to buy tickets, and even—as we are credibly informed—offers of them at half price, was anything but a squeeze. And, in short, the "ponderous halls of the feudal ages," to which the banquet room was tastefully likened, could not be heavier nor duller, than this Jackson celebration.

From Columbia.—accounts from Maracaibo state that a terrible earthquake was felt at Bogota and its neighborhood on the 16th of November, which left half of the houses of the city uninhabitable and injured all the churches but one. It continued for more than 24 hours. The Danish brig Fortuna, from New-York via St. Thomas, which arrived at Maracibo Dec. 3, having on board 25 bbls. of flour, had been seized in consequence of three small rolls of old and decayed tobacco having been found beneath some casks of water and rubbish, and which the Captain supposed must accidentally have remained from a former cargo. The vessel was immediately condemned, and the Captain and crew were put under guard on board their vessel, and the former would have been cast into the common prison, with thieves and other villains, but for the interference of Mr. Alenson, to whom the vessel was consigned.

There was a report at Maracaibo that the Commodore General of the place had been slain in a duel at Bogota.

The merchants of Norfolk, at a late meeting, resolved that an entire and total embargo be put on the circulation of money of the several banks of North Carolina. They pledge themselves to exclude from the market all such papers. And they call upon all magistrates and others to enforce the law of Virginia against the circulation of any bank notes under 500 dollars.

From Porto Rico.—A fire broke out at Ponce, Porto Rico, on the 18th ult. occasioned by lightning, which consumed to stores with their contents, and about ten dwelling houses.

HELPEVIC INSTITUTION.
In order to give greater latitude to his system of education, Mr. De Fernex has invited, as a partner in his Seminary, the Rev. Mr. Wright, of Massachusetts, a young man of distinguished public confidence as well as of personal qualifications. Having a college in England, Mr. Wright has been enabled to take charge of the Seminary in French will thus offer to young gentlemen the advantages of preparing to be admitted into the colleges of the United States, and of furnishing to others a complete course of education adapted to the commercial and ordinary pursuits of life.

Mild, temperate, and daily attention, will give to the students of this Seminary the most perfect health, and the most liberal education will always be given to the students who will facilitate the attainment of different branches of study by the most simple and familiar illustrations. In a word, the object of this Seminary will be the communication of valuable knowledge, and the formation of those mental and moral habits in young persons, which shall oblige by the foundation for their respectability and usefulness in subsequent life.

The institution is already in progress, at the house of Mr. De Fernex, No. 116 Royal Street Jan. 22

REMOVAL.
SULPHUROUS BATHS.
DOCTOR RENOUE has the honor of informing his colleagues and the inhabitants of New-Orleans and of Louisiana, that he has removed his establishment of Sulphurous Baths from Ann Street, No. 152 to Barracks Street No. 156, at the corner of Burgundy in the house lately occupied by Dr. Formento.

It is generally known, how much benefit is obtained by sulphurous bath in cutaneous diseases, rheumatic complaints, psoriasis, and other serious complaints, it is needless to quote here the numerous instances of immediate cure and relief afforded by the application of that remedy.

Mr. Renou has availed himself of his removal, in constructing a new apparatus, and making his establishment free from any kind of reproach that could have been made to the former one.

The room for the reception of white people is totally separate from the one fixed for negroes.

His new lodgings afford him the means of receiving certain number of sick persons wishing to board at his house.

He has provided a spacious hospital, and his house being situated in a retired part of the town less crowded with houses than others, makes the situation perfectly wholesome.

Prices for 12 Baths, . . . $ 16 ..

For treatment of negroes per day, 1 ..

Doctor Renou will however take with the persons who will apply to him all possible arrangements.

During the last year of his practice in Paris, Doctor Renou has been intimate with the celebrated Dr. Ducamp inventor of the most efficient method of curing ichthura (retention of urine,) and he had especially addicted himself to the treatment of that disease; he has now in his possession a complete collection of all the instruments necessary thereto. He may ensure to those persons affected with the above complaint, who will apply to him, a prompt and safe cure from his method of treatment.
