MAYORALTY OF NEW ORLEANS—COUNCIL OF MUNICIPALITY NO. 1.

Sitting of Monday, 13th July, 1840.

THE Council of Municipality No. 1, ordain as follows:

1. From and after the promulgation of this ordinance no pedlar or hawker of goods, merchandize, jewelry, boots, shoes, hats, caps, hardware, cutlery, groceries, ready made clothes, stationary, &c. shall be permitted to station in any public place, road, levee or side walk, within this municipality, under a penalty for each offence of three days imprisonment and a fine of ten dollars; and moreover for the faithful performance of this ordinance the commissaries of the meat and vegetable markets are hereby held personally responsible, and shall be fined $25 for the first and second offence, and afterwards dismissed from office by the Mayor if they neglect their duty. The commissary of the meat market is obligated to inspect from St. Ann to St. Phillip streets, and the commissary for the vegetable market, from St. Phillip to Ursuline streets. The residue of this municipality devolves upon the immediate inspection of the commissaries of the different wards or districts under the same conditions and penalties.

2. All keepers of taverns, coffee-houses, grog shops, and all others who rent to or permit pedlars to station in front of their premises, shall pay a fine of $50 for each offence, and if repeated, their license shall be taken from them.

3. During the summer months, when oysters are not sold, the occupants of the oyster stands on the levee are not permitted to sell any spirituous liquor, under the penalty of $25 for every offence. They are also not permitted to sell other than fruit, under the same penalty.

4. The owner or owners of the ferry shall have a strong fence or enclosure made, with one small and one large gate in front of the landing, say thirty feet front on the Levee, extending on each side to the river—the gates to be shut and locked after the running of the boat shall have ceased.—The interior of this enclosure shall always be kept clean, under the penalty of $10 for each and every offence.

5. The stands or pavilions used for the sale of ice cream, lemonade, &c. shall be removed from the Levee and permission granted, if asked, to said occupants, to erect three small pavilions for the same purpose under the trees of the public square, in front of the church, for which they will pay each $25 per month to this municipality, during the [illegible] months.

[illegible] and after this date, no other stalls outside of the [illegible] permitted, (and that only during market [illegible]) but those that sell bacon, [illegible] peas, beans, grain, [illegible] the Levee to [illegible]

[illegible]

7. The present regulations shall be printed in [illegible] English and published in several [illegible] [illegible] to be printed, and the Mayor [illegible] have them stuck up in the several parts of the three markets of this municipality, and every other public place, so that all persons interested may not pretend ignorance of their promulgation.

TO THE PROPRIETORS OF [illegible] AND SUGAR ESTATES—[illegible] Principle.

Gentlemen,—We beg to [illegible] your notice, a plan to improve [illegible] by passing the syrup (previous to its being [illegible] vacuo,) through a bed of animal charcoal [illegible] color is absorbed, the operation is [illegible] diate—and the apparatus not expensive. [illegible] coal is regenerated for continued use, by [illegible] and speedy mode of recarbonizing.

This principle entirely supercedes the [illegible] refine, or the use of the pneumatic pans—by this process the dissolution, the syrup is almost wholly granulated [illegible] for refine or vacuum sugar, and the small portion [illegible] uncrystallizable syrup or molasses, [illegible] per cent.

We beg to observe that we are the original manufacturers of the Vacuum Sugar Apparatus, and first introduced the same into the colony of Demerara; since at New-Orleans, Cuba, Java and in many parts of the East Indies, with great success and value to the proprietors.

[illegible]

Plans furnished [illegible] competent persons appointed [illegible] teach the present improved system.
