TO THE PUBLIC.
THE Rocking and Ventilating Bedstead, or crib with a fan-tester.
The subscriber having obtained a patent for this beautiful and useful article of domestic comfort, begs leave to call the attention of the public to it, confident that it only remains to be seen to be patronized and generally used. It combines the unusual advantages of a common stationary or rocking bedstead or crib for children, and of ventilation by means of a fan-tester.
The advantages to be gained by efficacious ventilation, combined with a healthy action to the recumbent, needs no comment. They have long been recommended by physicians of great eminence—and combine economy, elegance and comfort. GIDEON VAUGHAN, Jr.
The above named article is to be seen in the hall of the second story of the Exchange. may 30 may 24 DUCROS & MORPHY.

NOTICE.—M BACHER, Druggist, informs the public and his friends in particular, that he has just established an apothecary-shop at the corner of Barracks and Rempart streets. He keeps on hand a general supply of every thing connected with Pharmacy, as Chemical Preparations and Medicines, either wholesale or retail. The prescriptions of Physicians will be executed with care and prudence; and will be sent to the houses of persons who from their situations cannot themselves make their wants known, &c. &c.
He will use his best exertions to please and satisfy the planters, and will accord to them every facility in paying.
He has on hand a regular supply of Leeches, an assortment of Chirurgical Instruments for dentistry, and a general assortment of patent medicines from different countries. He will neglect nothing that can insure public countenance and support: he begs those acquainted with him to continue the kind patronage hitherto extended.
New Orleans, March 31st 1834. mar 31

J. R. PUTNAM, DENTIST,
RESPECTFULLY informs the public that he has removed to the house recently occupied by Dr. Kerr, at the corner of Canal and Royal streets, over the Post Office, (entrance No. 6, Royal street,) where he may be found from 9 o'clock, A. M. until 5 P. M., ready to attend to the duties of his profession, and where he invites those who wish to employ or consult him to call, as it is impossible for him to leave his rooms during those hours, except in cases of indisposition. He has rooms for the accommodation of his visitors, separate and distinct from his family apartments, where they can be entirely private during the performance of an operation, or whilst waiting for his services; should he be at the time engaged. His charges will be such as are sanctioned by the usages of his profession and will not be deviated from except for persons of limited means, or where families are to be attended to, then a reasonable deduction will be made. As he has no assistant in his business, and as it is expected that he will be found always in his rooms, it must be obvious to all, that it is impossible for him to keep books and attend personally to the collection of his bills; he therefore respectfully solicits those who receive his services to make settlement at the time, or attend to it as soon as convenient to themselves, as he has given offence to some by presenting his accounts through another person employed for that purpose. It is expected that punctuality will be strictly observed where positive engagements are made, or an excuse furnished in time, as a neglect to do this may subject others who have made engagements to disappointment and him to loss and inconvenience. Those indebted for services rendered during the last season, will oblige him by calling and paying their bills. may 29
