JACKSON FAUBOURG.
1500 Valuable Lots in the vicinity of the City,
BY FERNANDEZ & WHITING.
WILL be sold without reserve, and to the highest bidder, at Hewlett's Exchange, on Monday the 12th of January, 1835, and the following days, 1000 lots of Ground, situate in faubourg Jackson, in the rear of the city, as per plan approved by the City Council, and exhibited at the Exchange Coffee House, to which reference is made;

These Lots are situated on the left side of the Bayou St John; and between the said Bayou and the New-Orleans Canal, at a distance of not more than one mile and a half from the city. The advantages of their situation are numerous; and for gardens, milk establishments, country seats, small farms, or summer residences, it surpasses, by its local situation and proximity to the city, any piece of land that can be offered.

These lots are generally on high land, and require no expense to be put in to immediate cultivation. The land is new and the soil is very rich, and well adapted for gardening; it affords also excellent pasturage for cattle.

These lots are of greater importance to speculators and individuals, than might be thought of at first. By an ordinance of the City Council, Orleans street must be opened to the Bayou St John, and is already half finished, and it is projected to make a rail road upon the said street to the Bayou; and it is proposed to remove the bridge immediately on that street, and by another ordinance Canal street will be opened to the Metairie road; and ultimately, there is no doubt, all the streets of the city. The splendid shelled road made along the Canal, Carondelet, and the other existing communication, together with those commenced and projected, will afford easy access to the City.

The rapid increase of the faubourg Trenie, which will reach the Bayou St John in a very short time, the improvements undertaken and undertaken by the "The Company of Architects of the Eighth Ward," and in conclusion the city having extended itself considerably up and down the coast, must necessarily go, as it is rapidly going back. All these are advantages which must tend greatly to enhance the value of these lots.

Terms of Sale:—1 5th cash, and the balance at 1, 2, 3 and 4 years credit, in notes without endorsement and with mortgage. The acts of sale to be passed before Joseph Cuvillier, not. pub. at the expense of the purchasers, and to take possession through the City Surveyor, at their own expense.

P S. All purchasers will have the privilege of cutting wood upon the on enclosed lots. dec 13
