LEGE'S ASSEMBLY ROOM,
Corner of Camp and Poydras streets, near the American Theatre.

THE subscriber respectfully informs the public, that he has taken the upper story of that location, to which is annexed a spacious and splendid ball room; supper room, ladies and gentlemen's dressing rooms, a convenient place for the deposit of hats, cloaks, &c., and also a superb restaurant and bar room.

His purpose in mentioning this, is, that it may be known to the public, that he is about to engage a select orchestra and devote at least one night in the week to public balls.

Gentlemen desirous of forming private dancing societies, are requested to call upon the subscriber at the above ball room, where all necessary arrangements can be made.

His prices will be as moderate as in any other similar institution in the city, and he hopes by his unremittingable exertions to please, that he will merit and receive a share of public patronage.

His school for the instruction of young ladies and gentlemen, in this graceful and elegant accomplishment, will be held at the same place. In addition to the dances of this city, will be taught the Galopades, Mazourka, and all the latest fashionable Parisian and Italian figures.

It would be needless for the subscriber to expatiate on the immense advantages to be derived by youth, from this charming and beautiful acquirement, to those who entertain a knowledge of the Therpsicorean art, it imparts at once, freedom, health, agility, and grace to the humane frame, and is capable of reclaiming the most awkward and graceless action, to the refined and polished air of bon ton.

Notice will be given of the first public assembly.

Letters of invitation to ladies will be sent in due time, and no others but those invited by the subscriber will be admitted.

Gentlemen desirous of procuring letters of invitation for ladies, will please call on the subscriber.

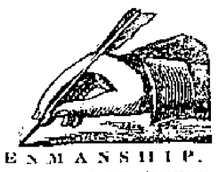
dec 3 PASCALET & MICHON.



PENMANSHIP.

MESSRS. DOLBEAR & BROTHERS respectfully give notice that they have returned and re-opened their WRITING ACADEMY at No. 8 Chartres street, where Penmanship in all its variety is taught.

Lessons will be given through the day, and until 10 o'clock in the evening. Ladies who prefer it, can receive lessons at their own residence. By this system—the Carstairian—a more rapid business style may be acquired in two weeks than usually effected in years by the old method.

Ladies and gentlemen are respectfully invited to call and examine specimens written by persons of various ages in this city and elsewhere.

All those who had not time to finish their lessons last season, can do so now free of charge.

They would also inform those who have applied to them for copies of the system, that the next edition will be out in the course of the winter.

In order to give transient persons who have not had an opportunity to examine for themselves—the opinion of those who have, the following report is inserted. For others see Circulars.

NEW ORLEANS, 12th May, 1834.

On the invitation of Mr Dolbear, a teacher of Penmanship in our city, upon the Carstairian system; we have carefully examined specimens of the writings of his pupils, whose ages range from 8 to 50 years, written through an entire course of instruction; and after having done so, it is with the highest satisfaction that we can testify to the RAPID if NOT UNPARALLELED progress which they have made.

From the specimens seen, and the examination of the system made, we cannot withhold the expression of a current opinion, that the system is greatly superior to any hitherto taught. If to write legibly, elegantly, rapidly, and in good taste be an accomplishment, useful or desirable, it is upon the principles of this system that it is to be acquired. We therefore anxiously submit of the public a liberal patronage in favor of an instructor, whose qualifications are of the highest order, and whose labors promise to be exceedingly useful to this and other communities.
