MARIGNY HOTEL.

Corner of Vickery street and the Pontchartrain Rail Road.

THE proprietor begs leave respectfully to invite the attention of the public to this establishment, which is furnished in a new and splendid style, unequalled in this country.

No pains or expense have been spared, and the utmost exertions will be used by all employed in the house to afford as much convenience and comfort to its patrons, as any plan of the kind possibly can.

Boarders and lodgers will be accommodated in the most genteel style, and the rooms are delightfully pleasant.

There is a neatly furnished saloon expressly for the accomodation of Ladies on the second floor, connected with which are apartments where Ice Cream, Soda Water and Confectionary are served to Ladies and Gentlemen every evening.

This will be found very convenient for Ladies and Gentlemen that travel on the Rail Road, who are too late for the cars, as a pleasant place to sit in, will be some compensation for the disappointment, and add to this some of the luxuries of this house will make the delay a pleasure—and for those who indulge in an evening promenade, this will be a most desirable resort.

This splendid establishment has been fitted up with great expense; and the proprietor has only been induced to incur the responsibility, from the knowledge of the fact that the citizens of New Orleans are second to none on earth for their certainty of rewarding laudable exertions.

He improves this opportunity to inform the public that he has recently opened in Bay St. Louis, opposite the wharf, an establishment known by the appellation of Bel air Hôtel.

The advantageous situation of this hôtel, its proximity to the landing place are too well known to require further explanations.

Madame L'hote justly appreciated by the great care she always took of her boarders, and by the attentions she paid to her visitors in all the public houses she has superintended as lately the Marine Hotel in New Orleans, will take charge of the interior department of the establishment.

Mr. L'hote will endeavour to give satisfaction to persons visiting his hotel, when he pledges himself they will find comfort, cleanliness, good fare and attention.

He has engaged a good French cook, transient and permanent boarders admitted, Table d'Hote with wine at every meal. july 2 Ed. L'HOTE.
