Cartsarian system of Penmanship.—No 8 Chartres street.—Messrs. Dolbear & Brothers take pleasure in informing their friends and the public generally, that they have returned and reopened their writing establishment, and respectfully invite ladies and gentlemen to call. All those who previously commenced, and had not time to acquire as finished a style as they desired, are respectfully invited to attend without any extra charge, as they wish all persons to acquire a good and rapid business style of writing before they consider their lessons completed. By this system a free use of the whole arm is firstly given: secondly, the use of the fore arm: thirdly a movement of the fingers (which is the only movement given by the usual method): fourthly, a combination of all these movements which enable a person to write with ease, elegance and rapidity.

Hours of attendance will be such as to accommodate all who may wish to avail themselves of their instruction.

Ladies who prefer it, can receive lessons at their own residencies.

From his excellency Governor Roman.

I have examined with attention the system of writing taught by Mr Dolbear, and it is with pleasure that I certify to its superiority over any other method with which I am acquainted. Mr Dolbear having given private lessons in my family, I consider it but justice to add that I believe him as much worthy of public patronage on account of the correctness and mildness of his character, as on account of the rapid improvement of those who received his lessons.

A. B. ROMAN.

New Orleans, July 8, 1832.

New Orleans, 19th May, 1832.

On the invitation of Mr Dolbear, a teacher of Penmanship in our city, upon the Carstarian system; we have carefully examined specimens of the writings of his pupils, whose ages range from 8 to 50 years, written through an entire course of instruction; and after having done so, it is with the highest satisfaction that we can testify to the rapid if not unparalleled progress which they have made.

From the specimens seen and the examination of the system made, we cannot withhold the expression of a current opinion that the system is greatly superior to any hitherto taught. If to write legibly, elegantly, rapidly, and in good taste, be an accomplishment, useful or desirable it is upon the principles of this system that it is to be acquired. We therefore anxiously solicit of the public a liberal patronage in favor of an instructor whose qualifications are of the highest order, and whose labors promise to be so exceedingly useful to this and other communities.

TO BE LEASED.

12 arpents of ground or thereabout, front on the river, by 70 arpents depth, situated in parishes Jefferson, at 5 miles above the city of New Orleans, on the same side and contiguous to Carrollton. To be leased by lots of an arpents front with the depth most convenient to the leaders, excepting the lot on which stands the improvements, the pleasure and kitchen gardens, and which measures about four arpents and which could not be divided. There stands on that lot a dwelling story house in good order, newly painted and plastered, a store for the use of the house, kitchens, stables, sheds, hospital, provision stores, negro cabins, and a variety of other improvements. The pleasure gardens situated between the house and the public road, is covered with a great variety of fruit trees, ornamental trees and shrubs, tastefully laid out, and making beautiful walks. There are to be remarked four live oaks which are admired by every body. In the rear there is a beautiful walk of Pacaniers, and in the rear of the improvements a field well cultivated and producing an abundance of vegetables. This lot, as well as the others, contains the best pasture grounds and may be improved so as to afford a considerable income from the sale of milk, fruits, vegetables and provender. The Carrollton railroad, which runs thro' said property, facilitates at all times and in all seasons the easy transportation of produce. Said establishment for its pure air and the shade of its groves is the most desirable retirement in warm or sickly seasons, and may be converted into a Tivoli for public diversion. On the front of said property there is a large bateaux elevated to the level of the road, and well calculated for the establishment of saw mills, brick and wood yards. Persons wishing to lease part or the whole of said property are desired to call and examine the premises.
