STATE PRINTER.
THE UNION—IT MUST BE PRESERVED."

THURSDAY MORNING, JUNE 12, 1834.

We are authorized to announce JAMES BRADFORD, of Feliciana, as a candidate for Congress for the Second District.

A. PICHOT Esq. is a candidate for Alderman of the 4th ward, in the place of J. Agnissé, resigned.

The northern mail of yesterday brings nothing of the slightest interest.

It will be seen by referring to our Washington head, that Congress is again in session.

We have Mexican files of papers to a late date, but we find nothing of moment in them.

We are informed that the water works committee of the Commercial Bank, having made a contract for raising a mound on the square purchased for that purpose, in faubourg Annunciation, the first load of earth will be deposited upon it, TO-DAY AT HALF PAST FIVE, P. M.

As it has been thought proper, that the commencement of so important a work, should be accompanied with a suitable solemnity; a procession of upwards of one hundred carts destined to be employed in the transportation of the earth will move from the principal at 5 o'clock, P. M.

The governor and other principal officers of the state, and the mayor and city council, have been invited to be present, on an occasion so interesting to all who desire the prosperity of our city, and we are requested to inform the citizens generally, to join the procession in carr agon or to ride to the spot at the appointed hour.

The first load of earth will be deposited by the mayor, and at the invitation of the committee, an appropriate address will, we are informed, be delivered by C. M. Conrad, Esq.

N.B. Since the above was in type, we learn that a part of the machinery for the water works are now on board the ship Wm. Brown in the river.

POLONIUS.—What, read you my lord?
HAMLET.—Words! words! words!!

The White papers think that idle declamation and noisy blabbing will stun the good sense of the people, and force them to confess in despite of sound reason, that White is more capable than Dawson. It will not do, the people's minds are formed, and can't be changed at this late day by any of the flimsy arguments that desperate politicians may address. Let them therefore be discreet enough to cease their interminable clamor, seeing that they only show their folly and ignorance by so ridiculous a course.

The Louisiana charges the Dawson papers with being subsidized. Ye gods what impudence some folks have!

The White-men have been thrown into dismay by the great meeting at Davis's. It has spread among their one general consternation, which promises to thin their ranks in such a manner before the July election, that the Dawsonites will have nothing to contend against but a mere phantom.

MUNICIPAL PROCEEDINGS.

Sitting of the 10th June, 1834.

Mr Culbertson being absent, Mr Pedesclaux was designated by the Council to take the Chair.

The proceedings at the former sitting having been read, together with the following letter from the Mayor:

Mayoralty of New Orleans, 10th June, 1834.

To the President and members of the City Council.

GENTLEMEN:—I have the honour to inform the council that the Supreme Court of this State has reversed a judgment rendered in July last by the Parish Court for the parish and city of New Orleans, in favor of Mr G. Hubert, relative to the quo warranto which he had obtained, to be reinstated in the functions of syndic for the 7th ward.

I also transmit to the council, a copy of the decree rendered by the Supreme Court in the case of the Mayor, Aldermen, and habitants vs. C. L. Blache and his securities.

I likewise transmit to the council a letter from Mr Lebreton D'Orginy, offering to sell to the city a piece of ground for the purpose of making a cemetery, accompanied with a plan herewith transmitted.

I am respectively, your obedient servant,
DENNIS PRIEUR, Mayor.

Mr Schmidt made motion, That as regards the first part of the Mayor's letter, he be authorized to take all legal measures to pay into the Treasury, the amount of a judgment obtained in the Supreme Court.—Adopted.

Mr Schmidt made motion, That the Council sit with closed doors, for the purpose of considering the latter part of the Mayor's letter.—Adopted.

The council sat with closed doors for one hour, after which the order of the day was taken up, and the following report read.

The committee to whom was referred the petition of the inhabitants of the new faubourg Marigny, praying the incorporation of the two first squares of the said faubourg, comprised between Champ Elysees, Urquhart, St Bernard, and Bons Enfants streets, beg leave to report:

That after having examined the squares prayed to be incorporated, they are of opinion that the council might grant the petitioners their prayer as the taxes that would be derived from the lots situated higher would be more than sufficient to cover all the expenses that the city would have to incur, for keeping the streets, &c. Accordingly, your committee beg leave to submit the following resolution:

Resolved, That all that part of the new faubourg Marigny, comprised within Champ Elysees, Urquhart, St Bernard, and Bons Enfants streets, be and is hereby incorporated, and shall pay the same taxes and that the inhabitants thereof shall derive the same advantages as those of the other incorporated parts of the city. (Signed) E. MONTEGUT,
Chairman of the Committee.

J. MACREADY.

Mr Montegut demanded the adoption of the report and resolution.

Mr Schmidt proposed an amendment as follows, "it being understood that all the ordinances of the council be put in force immediately after the incorporation of the said squares."

Mr Mercier thereupon rose and said, I have no objection to make to the substance of the amendment, but it seems to me that it introduces a new practice which is useless, as the council have never by any decision required it. It would be establishing a wrong principle, and would be tacitly admitting that we had no right to enforce our ordinances in a part of the city subject to our jurisdiction. It would be as much as to say, that when incorporated, it had the right to adopt or reject whatever ordinances it pleased. This, one can readily perceive, would be ridiculous. It would be precisely the same, as if we were told that when the United States' government united the Florida parishes to Louisiana, those parishes were not obliged to yield obedience to the laws of the United States."

Mr Schmidt in reply said, that as a member of the bar, he concurred entirely in the views of his colleague from the 6th ward, but, said he, it seems that one of the courts in this city does not think as he does. The council will remember that one of our courts decided, that although the faubourg Lacourse payed taxes, it did not from thence arise that the ordinances should be observed. We have no evidence that other courts will not render similar opinions. Accordingly, I think we should adopt this amendment as a precautionary measure. If the member of the 8th ward had been here a longer time in this body, he would not have made the objection he has.

The principal resolution was adopted, together with the amendment.

The following resolution being upon the table, viz:

Resolved, That the collector on tonnage and exports and upon vessels be discharged from the duties imposed by the ordinance of the 13th June 1833, and that the Mayor be requested to nominate a person to that office who shall receive $ quarterly for his services.

Mr Pritchard demanded the rejection.

The yeas and nays being taken, the result was as follows: For the affirmative, Messrs M'Cready, Schmidt, and Mercier. For the negative, Messrs Labitut, Montegut, and Dixon. Mr Pedesclaux gave his vote as president officer and member of the council, for the negative, consequently Mr Pritchard's motion was rejected.

Mr Dixon thereupon moved that the resolution be adopted.

Mr Schmidt demanded the reading of the report upon which the resolution was founded.

The same having been read, Mr Schmidt desired to make some observations, but was reminded by the President pro tem, that the only question before the council, was the adoption or rejection of the resolution.

Mr Montegut proposed, that the Mayor be authorized to expend "two thousand dollars."

Mr Pritchard said, I rise with some reluctance to the expenditure of the blank with so extravagant an amount. He said he has now that post has occupied it for a long time. He was renominated at the last election and re-appointed. If he found the duties of the place too onerous, why did he again become a solicitor for it? He had no occasion to become a candidate. I oppose myself to such a useless expenditure of money as has lately been indulged in. Does not my colleagues know that this city pays more taxes than any other, and notwithstanding, a desire is manifested to augment them. I repeat, too much money is spent unnecessarily and without reflection. I will perhaps be told that a thousand dollars is not much; this may be so, but 50 and with $100 will make two thousand, and it does not require many $100 to make a large sum. I pray the gentleman to withdraw his motion. The duties of the station could not have augmented so much, since the last January, and it was at that time that the present incumbent asked for and obtained his present post.

Mr Dixon said, I think that the honorable member is misinformed, for the duties of the place when I came into the hands of Mr Noyes, were not so great as at present. It is true that the sum is rather high, but I would rather give it than not see the levee in a better state. I think it is impossible for the collector to perform all his duties, seeing how multifarious they are.

Mr M'Cready said, that he had not opposed the taking away of a part of the duties imposed at present upon the collector, as he thought they were too numerous, but he thought as the inspector of carriages had nothing to do, he should be charged with them.

Mr Pritchard moved that the blank remain as it is.

The motion of Mr Montegut was negatived.

Mr Schmidt said, I cannot vote upon this question, not having sufficient data to go upon. It is very possible that it would be for the interests of the city that another officer should be named to aid in the discharge of the duties of the collector. However thus may be, one thing is very certain, that those duties cannot be imposed upon the inspector of carriages without manifest injustice. I should like to have time to examine into the matter, and therefore move that the subject be referred to a committee, with instructions to make a report at the next sitting.

Mr Schmidt's motion having been seconded, it was agreed with Messrs. Montegut and Dixon to compose said committee.

A letter from Messrs. Mann and Keller having been read, Mr. Pritchard moved that said letter be deposited on the table, and that the city surveyor be requested to give his opinion upon the same—Adopted.

The report of the committee upon vitriol was adopted together with two amendments. The ordinance thereon to be in force from and after the first November next, and prescribes that all persons who shall violate its provisions shall be condemned to pay a penalty of not more than 375, and not less than 251.

Mr. Montegut made motion that for the future the 2d article of the ordinance of the 8th September, 1834, shall not be in execution unless there be in the treasury money appropriated to that purpose—Adopted.

Mr. Freret moved that the Mayor be authorized to cause St. Charles street to be paved between Poydras and Canal. He briefly explained the object in view, and stated that the part of the city proposed to be paid was required for the facilitating commerce, as it was in winter in almost an impassable state.

Mr. Mercier desired to obtain some information upon the matter, and moved that it be referred to a special committee.

Mr. Pritchard said that he was far from opposing the paving of any street, but he thought before proceeding to St. Charles street there were many other parts that deserved the preference. For instance, Bienville, Custom-house and Conti were the most commercial streets in the city, and yet although they are almost impassable in the winter for drays, &c. &c. as well as pedestrians; yet they were not paved. For myself I think the system of paving has been already sufficiently abused. I never go through Esplanade street without blushing to think that while it is paving the centre of the city is totally neglected.

Mr. Freret said, that as his motion was so strenuously objected to he begged leave to withdraw it—Accorded.

On motion of Mr. Montegut a peddling licence was accorded to Mr. Fernande Sou.

Mr. Montegut moved that the mayor be authorized to remit to Gaspard Reynaud the sum of $26,25, being the amount of a judgment obtained against him by H. Bacquet.

Mr. Labatut moved that the mayor be requested to pray the directors of the Pontchartrain Navigation Company to place persons for the purpose of preventing the accidents occasioned by the cars.

Mr. Schimdt opposed this motion; he said that if the lives of citizens were in danger, measures of an efficacious character should be taken, and not to pray the rail-road company to do this or that thing.

Mr. Dixon read the permission given to the rail-road company to establish a rail-road where it is located, under the restriction that it should be withdrawn, if the case required it.

Mr. Labatut's motion was amended as follows, that the mayor be authorized to request, &c. was therefore put to vote and adopted.

The counsel thereupon adjourned to meet on Saturday at half past 5 o'clock.

The Hartford Convention Whigs seem to relish the language bestowed upon Mr Jefferson by the Boston Courier, amazingly. They relume that one of their number has been bold enough, publicly to express the feelings which they have all privately held. We have no doubt but a majority of them fully agree with the Courier, that they are "disgusted with democracy"—and that, with that paper, they are ready to "say either reflection that the sooner New England cuts herself off from the corrupt and corrupting body politic, the better." These would be nobles, who make it an objection to Gen. Jackson that he has no relative on whom the mantle of his glory may fall, and that he is but the son of a poor Irish woman, can never rest satisfied under a government like ours, that bestows its protection, as Heaven does its blessings, alike upon the poor and the rich, the humble and the proud.—Boston Post.

As a specimen of the wretched drivel which that broken down political hack, Henry Clay, ropes out in the Senate of the United States, we copy the following passage, from a report, by the editor of the National Intelligencer, on his remarks on presenting a memorial on Wednesday.

"As to the question yesterday addressed by the Senator from Massachusetts to those who hold the power, whether they meant to adjourn without taking any measure to relieve the country from its present suffering, Mr Clay said, he verily believed that they do not know what to do: they are afraid to stay, and afraid to return, they are between two fires—afraid of JACKSON if they remain, and of their constituents if they go home. If, however, they mean to do nothing to recover possession of the public treasure, if they mean to do nothing to relieve the distress which provokes the country Mr Clay said he was himself, ready to concur with them in fixing the earliest practicable day for adjournment, after passing the bills nessary to carry on the Government. What would be the consequence of such contempt, by those in in power, of the successive evidences of public opinion, presented from day to day, and from week to week, it was easy to foresee. Already, he said, the whole "party" was crumbling away; sinking, like the banks of the Mississippi undermined by the torrent, whole acres at a time. Why, (said Mr. Clay,) I am told that the whole Regency of New York, taking the alarm, has fled from Albany, and taken refuge in this city. Whether they would or would not be re-demanded by Governor Marcy, under the laws in such cases made and provided, he could not say; but if they remained, he hoped they would be allowed the benefit of all the rights of hospitality due to such distinguished strangers. For himself, he condoled with the gentlemen, in this me trying time of their misfortunes, and trusted that they would be able to bear them with manly fortitude and Christian resignation."

The Justice Shallow of the Gazette and the full blown Bufo of the American will copy these ebullitions of the Senatorial Zany as specimens of irresistable wit.

LATEST FROM RIO JANEIRO.

We have been favored with Rio Janeiro papers to April 8th, including the first number of a paper in English, called "The Rio Packet," which is to be published semi-weekly.

The 7th of April, being the anniversary of the regeneration of Brazil in 1831, was celebrated with very demonstration of rejoicing.

By a decree of March 6th, government had granted to a company called Nitheroy, the exclusive privilege, for ten years of navigating the rivers and bays of the Province of Rio Janeiro by steam. The company, or their partners, are to establish steam boats on said bays and rivers, within 15 months from the date of the decree, under penalty of two contos of reis, to be paid to the Public Treasury.

The Minister of the Home Department has a circular Circulars to the Presidents of several Provinces, stating the government and received information of the existence of Silk Worms in those provinces, and requiring them to investigate the matter, and report to the secretary of State's office a particular account of silk as made by the insect or such as are to be found, and the kinds of mulberry trees on which they feed, whether they can be propagated with facility in the 19th." They Silk Worms of Brazil is not exactly of the same species with that of Asia, being larger and of a more hardy nature. The silk is said to be of an excellent quality.

Jose Antonio de Freitas Rodrigues has been commissioned by the government to travel at Government expense to promote manufacturing in Brazil, and to introduce the process of propagation to a great extent in the provinces of St Paulo, Nitheroy, &c. &c. Nurseries of mulberries are to be established and St Paulo by the [illegible] named, which in 1829 contained [illegible] 30,000 plants.

RIO JANEIRO, April 5.—The Long [illegible] world bears a more favorable aspect than it has done for some time past; the reports from the Provinces of the Rio Grande Provinces to the Regency, and the accounts from the citizens received from the several [illegible] are all of a tenor that tranquility is firmly restored and [illegible] is certain that the insurrection of Pernambuco has not been quelled, but as [illegible] have [illegible] against the insurgents [illegible] out [illegible] to dictate [illegible] Pernambuco.
