PARISH OF ORLEANS—Court of Probates—The State of Louisiana—To all whom these presents may concern: Greeting—Know ye that whereas William L. Hodge a resident of the city of New Orleans, has applied to me W. F. C. Duplessis register of wills, in and for the parish and city of New Orleans, and ex-officio Clerk of the Court of Probates, in and for the parish and city of New Orleans aforesaid, for a monition or advertisement, in conformity to the Act of the Legislature of the State entitled "An act for the further assurance of titles to purchasers at judicial sales" approved on the 10th March 1834. Notice is hereby given to all whom it may concern, that by virtue of and in obedience to two orders rendered by the honorable the court of probates, in and for the parish and city of New Orleans, State of Louisiana, in the matter of the succession of James S. Rowe, deceased, the former bearing date the twenty ninth day of February one thousand eight hundred and thirty six, and the latter bearing date the seventh day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty six, the undersigned, did, as register of wills aforesaid, on the eleventh day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty six, expose for public sale, by auction, the accounts of the succession of the aforenamed James S. Rowe, deceased, and also for accounts of Richard Russell, the latter consenting that his undivided interest should be sold, the following described landed property and buildings which were adjudicated to said William L. Hodge, he being the last and highest bidder.

Description of the property as given in the judicial conveyance.

1. A certain lot of ground situate in the square comprised within Camp, Girod, Magazine and Poydras streets, in the suburb St. Mary, above the city of New Orleans, as per plan
