NEW ORLEANS:
SATURDAY MORNING, NOV. 16, 1844.

THE NORTHERN MAIL.—The mail failed yesterday beyond Mobile. In all the experience of our editorial career, we have never known a mail failure so utterly provoking as this. At other periods the absence of the mail keeps back European news, or creates uncertainty and fluctuation in the prices of our great staples, or simply adds to the dullness of a cheerless day by a void in that great limbo of varying and miscellanious intelligence of which Uncle Sam's mail bags are the vehicle. But yesterday the arrival of the mail was expected, for the purpose of settling questions vastly more important than these. The principles upon which the Government of the United States would be administered for the next four years; the MEN who were to be placed at the head of the Government—these vitally momentous points would have in all human probability been established by the arrival of the mail. In brief, the people of New Orleans would have known definitely, whether HENRY CLAY or JAMES K. POLK, was elected President; and the harrowing solicitude; the intense and feverish curiosity; the speculations; the surmises; the wagers, would all have been conclusively settled. It is, therefore, little matter of wonder that the crowd which thronged the post-office on the arrival of the mail car, should have manifested their deep and uncontrollable disappointment at this compulsory procrastination—a delay which maintains the solicitude of both parties at its highest point, and keeps up political excitement which for the last ten days has agitated the community to a most extraordinary and unequalled extent.

In thus speaking, however, we mean to refer less to ourselves than to the citizens at large. The failure of the mail, beyond the mere inconvenience of the dearth of news, is rather a relief to us. We are not unwilling to suspend for four and twenty hours the harassing anxieties which the issue of the political struggle has unceasingly maintained in our minds. We are disposed during the brief interval which will elapse ere the final result is ascertained, to cogitate calmly over the prospect, and to set by for future employment a large store of that philosophic resignation which it may become us hereafter to cherish. And if we may be allowed the privilege of offering a morsel of advice both to our political friends and opponents, we would counsel them to employ the fleeting moments in preparing themselves for that comfortable condition of the moral man, which success will not unreasonably elate or defeat unwisely depress. Some of us, it is certain, will have to call forth whatever of firmness and wisdom we may possess, upon the reception of the news from New York, and it would be well for both parties if they made up their mind to await the result with dignified composure. The erudite and original Captain MARRYATT, in a philosophic treatise upon the Fallibility of Human Expectations, which he hath beautifully conveyed under the fascination of fiction, maketh one of his yclept "Jacob Faithful" indulge upon every sublunary calamity, in two pithy axioms of extraordinary wisdom. "Take it Coolly" is one and "Better Luck next Time" is the other. We commend them both very heartily to whigs and locofocos, when inspecting the contents of this day's mail.

TENNESSEE.

Passengers who arrived yesterday from Nashville brought with them lists of the losses and gains in 37 counties in Tennessee—comprising sixteen counties in the western district, and twenty-one in middle Tennessee. From these accounts it follows that in west Tennessee POLK has gained upon Gov. Jones' vote 382 votes, and in middle Tennessee 1765 votes—total gain in 37 counties, 2150 votes.

In addition to the above, we have from Nashville and other papers two more counties, Tipton, in west Tennessee, and Smith, in middle Tennessee. Tipton shows 30 whig loss, and Smith 177 whig gain. Therefore, in 39 counties the result is as follows:

	Loco gain.
West Tennessee, (complete),	412
Middle Tennessee, 22 counties,	1591
	2,003

There are 79 counties in the state, consequently there are 34 yet to be heard from. Gov. POLK must gain in a greater ratio in the remainder, to carry the state—Jones' majority last year was 3833. If the gains should continue in the same ratio, CLAY still would carry the State by 1,100 votes. But it is hardly supposable that POLK will gain at all in East Tennessee. We have seen that his gains in West Tennessee are small, and it is only in Maury, Bedford, Hickman, Giles and other strong locofoco counties in Middle Tennessee immediately around his own neighborhood, that he has gained considerably. East Tennessee, like the western district, is unlikely to be influenced by those causes which have swelled POLK's vote in the middle section of the State —his own home. We await the result with unshaken confidence. Our readers know we are not sanguine, and our conviction that Mr. CLAY has carried the state by 700 to 1,500 majority have not been disturbed by the intelligence above stated.

Six counties in Middle Tennessee and twenty-six counties in East Tennessee remain to be heard from.

INDIANA.

We are indebted to the Clerk of the steamer Duke of Orleans, for returns from several counties collected at the office of the Evansville Journal, which we add to those published by us yesterday from the Louisville Journal of the 7th inst. The twenty-five counties heard from, show a whig gain of 610 on the vote of 1843, when Whitcomb (l. f.) was elected governor by a majority of 2013. Sixty-four counties remain yet to be heard from.

FROM TEXAS.

The schooner Lone Star arrived yesterday from Galveston, bringing us papers to the 2nd inst. They contain little news. The Galveston News of the 1st, contains a correspondence from Corpus Christi, confirming the account published a few days ago, of a battle between the Commanche Indians and the troops of Mier and Guerrero. After beating the Mexican troops, killing some forty and taking a piece of artillery, the Indians retreated into the interior, killing and taking prisoners until they reached China, 150 miles from the Rio Grande, there destroying the Rancho Ramirez.—They were attacked by 600 troops, who defeated the Indians, and took from them near 200 prisoners. The loss on the side of the Indians was about 30, among whom is said to be their chief Santa Anna. The Mexicans were still in pursuit.

It is stated by the Galveston News that the long talked of treaty with the Commanches and ten other of the wild Indian tribes has been ratified.

The Vindicator, speaking of Gen'l Houston's agency in effecting the treaty, remarks:

"This gratifying result of nearly three years labor, persevered in under every unfavorable circumstance, must indeed be a source of gratification to him as well as to every genuine Texian. No feature in the policy of his administration has been so much misunderstood or so much reviled by the opposition; yet with an indomitable resolution, and a steadiness of purpose highly praiseworthy, he has pursued it to consummation."

ORLEANS THEATRE.—This favorite establishment opened on Thursday evening for the season, to a tolerable numerous audience. The reappearance of the favorite prima donna Mlle CALVE, was hailed with rapturous applause. Although two years have elapsed since we heard her, she appeared to be as charming and fascinating as ever. Her voice was slightly tremulous at first, but she soon rallied, and got through the difficult role of the "Fille du Regiment" in her usual successful and captivating style.

This Evening Auber's beautiful opera of the "Crown Diamonds" will be performed.

THE MOBILE PAPERS received by yesterday's mail, contain no further returns from Alabama. As they will be all one way, we presume no particular anxiety is felt on this score.

THE WEATHER has grown decidedly winterish, and infinitely more agreeable. A cold bracing November atmosphere is at any time preferable, to the miserable murkey and cloudy sky and sultry air under which we suffered a week since.

DREADFUL EXPLOSION.

On the 13th inst. at 3 P. M. at the S. W. Pass, while the towboat Tiger, Capt. Crowell, was towing over the bark Marcia, bound to Boston, she burst all her boilers, six in number, making a perfect wreck of the boat, even to her guards, killing three and wounding three more slightly.

The following are the names of the killed and missing:

Capt. Danl. B. Clark, Pilot, of this city.
David Brown, 1st Engineer, of New York.
Abraham Snyder, 2d Engineer, of Canada, and scalding three deck hands slightly.

Capt. Crowell informs us that the reason no more persons were killed, was that a short time previous he had ordered all hands aft to haul in the spring cable.—the remains of Messrs. Brown and Snyder were intered on Hichcock's Island at the S. W. Pass.

Capt. C. thinks there can be no doubt that Captain Clark was killed as the wheel-house and wheel were blown about five hundred yards from the boat.

The wreck of the boat was brought up to the city by steamer Persian.

COLLISION AT SEA.—The ship Pennsylvania, E. Emerson, 32 days from Liverpool, on the 5th ult., in lat. 43:40, long 13:50, at 9 P. M., came in contact with the Swedish brig Harmonie, from Trieste, bound to Amsterdam, with a cargo of staves. The Harmonie's larboard side was stove in and cut down, both masts were carried away, and she became a complete wreck. The Pennsylvania lay by her during the night, and at day light took off the captain and crew (twelve in number) and abandoned her with twelve feet water in her hold.—On the 7th, the Pennsylvania fell in with the French brig Huron, from Marseilles, bound to Rouen, which received on board the captain and crew of the Harmonie, together with all their baggage, stores and provisions. On the 10th, Sheppard Ogden, supposed to be a native of Prussia, fell from the fore yard and died the next day.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

AMERICAN THEATRE.—Mr and Mrs Wallack, (late Mrs Sefton) and Mr Shaw, will make their first appearance this season. The pieces selected are Macbeth, in which Mr and Mrs Wallack will sustain the principal characters, and the farce of the Omnibus, in which Mr Shaw will appear as Pat Rooney. We hope to see a full house, to greet these old favorites back again upon our boards.

CRIMINAL COURT.—William Pearson, charged with assault and battery, was yesterday put upon trial, and found guilty.

Andrew Border, indicted for larceny, was arraigned and pleaded not guilty.

A nolle prosequi was entered in the case of J. B. N. Lefebre, charged with assault and battery.

RECORDER BALDWIN'S COURT.—Edward Kingsly, charged with committing an assault upon Mrs Smith, was examined and in default of bail was committed to the Parish Prison to await his trial before the Criminal Court.

George J. Walton, charged with stealing a dress from Mrs J. Carter, was examined and committed for trial before the Criminal Court.

John Brown, arrested as a dangerous and suspicious character, was sentenced to six months imprisonment in the Work House.

William Collins was sentenced to 30 days confinement in the Work House, under the vagrant law.

☞ Edward Taylor, was arrested yesterday by the police of the First Municipality, charged with stealing a watch from the store of Mr Isaac Backhouse, No. 17 Front Levee. The accused was brought before Recorder Genois, and remanded for further examination.

NEW WORKS.—J. B. Steel, No. 14 Camp street, has laid on our table the following publications:

Mary Howitt's Picture and Verse Book.—This is a translation of Otto Specter's Fable Book, a volume of universal repute in Germany, and admirably suited to children. It is beautifully got up and embellished with one hundred handsome engravings.

The Youth's Historical Gift.—A Christmas, New Year and Birth-day present, containing familiar descriptions of civil, military and naval events, by the Old English chroniclers. Edited by R. M. Evans, illustrated with forty engravings. This is an excellent volume and well arranged for the inculcation of historical knowledge into the youthful mind.

My Uncle the Clock Maker, a tale by Mary Howitt. We have not read this little volume, but can safely recommend it. Mrs Howitt is one of the most charming and winning writers of the day. Her productions are the delight of youth and girl-hood.

The above works are from the press of D. Appleton & Co., New York.

An Elementary Dictionary containing a selection of the most useful words in the English language, with their definitions for the use of schools. Compiled by Wm. G. Webster, son of the late Noah Webster.

LIFE OF FRANCIS MARION, by W. Gilmore Simms. We are indebted to Henry G. Langley, publisher, through the attention of J. B. STEEL, No. 14 Camp street, for a copy of Mr. SIMMS' Life of General Marion. No writer in America is better qualified than Mr SIMMS for the task of tracing the fortune of the great partisan leader of South Carolina during the Revolution. Born upon the soil consecrated by the blood of her patriots, and intimately conversant with all the legends and stories attached to the several spots endeared to the memory of Carolinians by the exploits of MARION, Mr. SIMMS has been enabled to collect authentic particulars unknown and ungathered by preceding historians. We doubt not the work will prove deeply interesting and we shall give it early perusal.

SOUTHERN TRANSCRIPT.—L. M. Archbold, the able editor of the Alexandria Transcript, has retired from the editorial supervision of the paper. It will in future be conducted by Mr. Wm. Prather.

AMERICAN REPUBLICANISM.—Quite a considerable number of journals are daily coming out in favor of the principles of the American Republican party. In our own city we can refer to the Tropic as an example.—We perceive that in Boston, the Courier—an old and valuable journal—has taken high and strong ground in favor of that party, and a new paper has been started called the "American Republican." In New York, the American, Courier & Enquirer, and Commercial Advertiser all sustain American Republican principles, and in Baltimore, the Clipper, lately neutral, has taken a similar stand. Whatever may be the result of the Presidential election, we apprehend that in all the Atlantic cities, the American Republican party will grow up and prove a formidable phalanx.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE, 4th November, 1844.

Information has been received at this Department that the instalments due on the 30th of April and 30th of July last, under the Convention between the United States and the Mexican Republic of the 30th January, 1843, were paid by that Government on the 27th of August last.

THE PASTURAGE OF BEES.—Next to the situation of the bee-hive is the consideration of the bees' pasturage. When there is plenty of the white Dutch clover, some time called honeysuckle, it is sure to be a good year. The red clover is too deep for the probocis of the common bee, and it is therefore not so useful to them as is generally thought. Many lists have been made of bee flowers, and of such as should be planted round the apiary. Mignionette, and borage, and rosemary, and bugloss, and lavender, the crocus for the early spring, and the ivy flowers for the late autumn, might help to furnish a very pretty bee-garden; and the lime, and liquid amber, the horse chesnut, and the sallow, would be the best trees to plant around.—Dr. Bevan makes a very good suggestion, that lemon thyme should be used as an edging for garden walks, and flower-beds instead of box, thrift, or daisies. That any material good, however, can be done to a large colony by the few plants that, under the most favorable circumstances, can be sown around a bee-house is, of course, out of the question. The bee is too much of a roamer to take pleasure in trim gardens. It is the wild tracts of heath and furze, the broad acres of bean fields and buckwheat, the lime avenues, the hedgerow flowers, and the clover meadows that furnish his haunts and fill his cell. Still it may be useful for the young and weak bees to have food as near as possible to their home; and to those who wish to watch the habits, a plat of bee flowers is indispensible.—Quarterly Review.

An Englishman has been fined a thousand roubles by the Russian authorities in St. Petersburg, for throwing a stone at the statue of Peter the Great.—Irish paper.

A similar case, says a Philadelphia paper, occurred at St. Petersburg in 1839. A young American gentleman, the agent of a mercantile house in Boston, having dined out in that city, got a little excited with wine, and on his return to his lodgings was obliged to cross Admiralty Square, on one side of which the equestrian statue of Peter the Great is situated. A thought struck him as he looked up at the statue that he would like to take a ride along with the old gentleman. Upon the impulse of the moment, and without thinking of the consequences, he clambered over the iron railings which enclose the statue, ascended the enormous pedestal rock, and mounted the gigantic bronze horse, behind the Czar Peter. He had hardly got comfortably seated before he was ordered from his elevated position by some of the numerous police officers who are constantly on the alert in that great city, and taken into custody. The ambitious young man was taken before the authorities and fined five thousand rubles. Upon his remonstrating at the severity of the penalty, the Judge informed him that the fine, with quizzical gravity, remarked, "[illegible] who ride with great men must expect to pay a great price."

ARREST OF BURGESS.—William Burgess, the swindling clerk of the Bank of England, who escaped from the officer at Nahant without his hat on Friday last, was arrested on Saturday on Brewster's Island, conveyed to Boston and committed to jail. Burgess had sent a man to Messrs. Reynolds & Grout for some funds they held of his, and thus his hiding place was discovered.—Baltimore Sun.

COMMERCIAL.

NEW-ORLEANS, FRIDAY NIGHT, November 15, 1844.

Only a limited amount of business has been transacted in this market during the past few days, and but few changes have occurred that require any special notice. We have had frequent arrivals from the Ohio River since our last, furnishing some addition to the reduced stocks of western produce, and in consequence more extensive business has been done in this department.

The weather since our last has been cool and dry.

COTTON.—Arrived since the 12th inst. of Louisiana and Mississippi 6,033 bales; Tennessee 2,437; Arkansas 114—together 9,154 bales. Cleared in the same time for Liverpool 2,555 bales; Havre 1,786—together 4,391 bales, making an addition to stock of 4,802 bales; and leaving on hand inclusive of all on shipboard not cleared this day a stock of 110,973 bales.

On referring to our report of Tuesday night last, it will be perceived that we left the Cotton market in a depressed condition, with only a limited business doing, after the receipt of the steamer's accounts. The demand on Wednesday was to a moderate extent, and the sales reached 2,500 bales, nearly all of which was on English account. Yesterday's business was pretty much of the same character, and summed up 3,400 bales, chiefly for England besides some small parcels for the north. To day the transactions comprised 2,300 bales, and the market closes with rather a heavy feeling, and a strong disposition on the part of holders to sell.

The sales of the week amount to 14,800, and those of the past few days to 8,700 bales, which we notice as follows: 73 bales Louisiana and Mississippi at 5¼ [illegible]

SUGAR.—The demand for Sugar since our last has kept pace with the receipts, and the market presents a pretty steady appearance without any accumulation of stock. Most of the purchases are for shipment to the north, the sales which some few parcels were taken for the west. The range of prices is just the same as before quoted, say for Inferior 3½ @ 3½c; Ordinary 3½@4, Common 4@4½c, Fair 4½@4½c, Prime 5@5½, strictly prime and choice [illegible] ₩ lb. A small lot of exceedingly choice Sugar was sold at 6c ₩ lb. No sales on Plantation have come to our knowledge as yet.

HAVANA SUGARS.—There is an abundant stock of both Sugars in market, but the demand continues very limited. We quote Brown 6@6½c; Yellow 7@7½, White 8@9½ cents ₩ lb.

MOLASSES.—The entire demand noticed in our last has materially subsided, and the market exhibits a heavy and drooping appearance. We quote 9@20c ₩ gallon, and the sales are chiefly for the north. Nothing has been done on plantation since our last.

FLOUR.—The Flour market has continued dull since our last, and the sales are chiefly in small lots for home consumption. Prices are heavy, and we quote Ohio $4@4 06, St Louis $4 10@4 25 ₩ bbl.

WESTERN PRODUCE.—The Provision market has not exhibited any material change since our last, and the transactions in all descriptions continue on a very limited scale. Pork is selling in small lots at former prices, say for Mess $10, M O $9 25; Prime $7 50 ₩ brl. There is no change in the Bacon market; small lots of Mess are selling at $11@11 50 in brls, and $[illegible] 50 in half brls. Prime is very dull and difficult of sale at $[illegible]@4 12½ ₩ brl. Some sales of Lard have been made since our last for the Havana market, chiefly at 4½c; the market is heavy and prices are tending downward. There has been a moderate demand for Bacon since our last, and prices have undergone no change; we quote Shoulders 4½@5c; Sides 5½@6c; Hams uncanvassed 9½@10c; canvassed and extra cured 10@10½ ₩ lb.

WHISKEY.—The market has relapsed into a very dull condition, and the sales are only in trifling quantities at 20 cents per gallon for Rectified. There is no Common in market.

BAGGING AND BALE ROPE.—Numerous arrivals since our last have added very considerably to the previous heavy stocks of these articles, and the market is in a wretchedly dull condition, as it is impossible to effect any sales of consequence without submitting to a decline.—Prices may almost be considered nominal. We quote Kentucky Bagging 11½@12½c cash, and 12½@13c on time—Kentucky Bale Rope 4½@5½c, according to terms, quality, &c.

COFFEE.—There is no alteration in the Coffee market. The sales are very limited, and we quote Havana middling to prime green 7½@[illegible]; Rio 6½@8½c, Java 10½@11½c; Laguayra 7½c ₩ lb.

SALT.—The good demand for Liverpool Salt noticed in our last has since continued without abatement, and holders have realized a further and very decided advance. We notice a cargo sale of 1,900 sacks coarse at $1 12½, and 440 fine at $1 30, leaving a cargo in first hands unsold and held over for a higher price. Smaller lots from the levee are selling at $1 25@1 35 for coarse and 1 45@1 57 ₩ sack for fine. Turks Island Salt continues dull and sales are difficult to effect, as large supplies are coming in and more anticipated. Parcels are selling at 70@75c ₩ sack of two bushels.

GRAIN.—White Corn has been in limited request since our last, and prices have receded to 40@43c ₩ bushel. There is nothing doing in Yellow and the price is nominal. OATS are in demand at 44c ₩ bushel in sacks. A lot of WHEAT arrived since our last is for reshipment.

BUTTER.—The market is plentifully supplied with Western Butter, and sales are making at 7@10c, according to quality. Goshen we quote at 15@17c ₩ lb.

CANDLES.—The enquiry continues very limited at former prices, say for New Bedford and Boston 31c; Nantucket, &c. 30c ₩ lb.

RICE.—The sales are restricted to retail lots at $4 75@4 [illegible] ₩ cwt.

EXCHANGE.—There has been a very fair demand for Foreign Exchange since our report of Tuesday last, and as packet day approaches the rates are gradually tending in favor of drawers. We quote London 8½@9 ₩ ct prem; Paris 5 26½@5 28½. Bills on the North are perhaps more freely offered, but the rates remain unchanged, say for 60 day bills on New York 1½@1 ₩ et dis; checks [illegible] ₩ ct discount.

TO THE PUBLIC.

☞ A certain individual, whose name I have not been able to obtain, after seeking information from a proper source, namely the Editor of the Morning Herald, has published in said paper on the 14th instant, a burlesque piece turning into redicule peaceful and honest citizens, residents of the parish of Plaquemines who in the purity of their political sentiments feel proud to encrease the small but honest number of whigs of said parish, where the infamous schemes of locofocoism had been perpetrating the most egregious frauds. Being unable to obtain the name of the author of said piece, I am under the painful necessity of appearing before the public, and I now do proclaim the author to be a villain and a coward.

ECONOMY IS THE ROAD TO WEALTH.
OLD CLOTHES MADE NEW.
LONDON DYEING & SCOURING ESTABLISHMENT.
JOHN J. JACKSON, lately from London, respectfully informs the citizens of New Orleans and its vicinity, that he has taken the store No 98 Camp Street, next to Vernon's Temperance Intelligence and General Agency office, a few doors below Poydras, for the purpose of Dyeing, Renovating, Repairing and Scouring on an entirely new principle. All clothes made to appear as when new, without any injury to the texture, and if not done to satisfaction, no charge will be made.
GENTLEMEN'S WEARING APPAREL
From the long and practical experience which I have had during my apprenticeship in London and in working for the officers of the Horse Guards, and other officers of other regiments, I am enabled to dye SCARLET and other colors in a superior manner; also to extract grease spots and stains of all descriptions from military and other garments.
Gentlemen composing volunteer companies in this city, who have military clothes out of order, from the effects of grease spots, stains, &c. are respectfully invited to call and give him a trial.
Gold, silver and silk lace, epaulettes, &c. tarnished from use, can be restored to their original lustre and brightness.
LADIES' WEARING APPAREL, (including silk, satin and velvet dresses) dyed in the most approved fashion and in the latest style and finish.
Carriage cushions, hangings, pulpit covers, sofa and chair covers, window hangings, carpet and hearth rugs, cleaned, dressed, &c. and made to appear as when new.
Many gentlemen and ladies hesitate to have their garments, carpets, &c. renovated or dyed, in consequence of the numerous impostors that do not understand their business. The subscriber requires but one trial to prove the character of his workmanship.
From a strict attention to business I hope to meet a share of public patronage.
☞ All work entrusted to my care will be ready for delivery in forty eight hours after being left with the subscriber. JOHN J. JACKSON. o11—3m
