GEO. O. HALL,
June 30 Clerk.

A BEAUTIFUL HEAD OF HAIR—is the greatest ornament belonging to the human frame. How strangely the loss of it changes the countenance and prematurely brings on the appearance of age, which causes many to resort at being anxious, and sometimes even to shun society to avoid the looks and sneers of their acquaintance; the remainder of their lives are consequently spent in retirement. In short, not even the loss of property gifts the generous thinking youth with that heavy sinking gloom as does the loss of his hair. To avert all these unpleasant circumstances, OLDRIDGE'S BALM OF COLUMBIA stops the hair from falling off on the first application and a few bottles restores it again. It likewise produces eyebrows and whiskers, prevents the hair from turning gray, makes it curl beautifully, and free from scurf. Numerous certificates of the first respectability in support of the virtues of Oldridge's Balm, are shown by the proprietors.

☞ Beware of spurious imitations.

ROBERT WITHERTON, Esq. late Mayor of Philadelphia, has certified, as may be seen below, to the high character of the following gentlemen—

The undersigned do hereby certify that we have used the Balm of Columbia discovered by J. Oldridge, and have found it highly serviceable not only as a preventive against the falling off of hair, but as a restorative.

The above named gentlemen are wearing wigs, may not always experience its restorative qualities, yet it will certainly run its virtues to the question of the public, when it is known that three of the above signers are more than 50 years of age, and the others not less than 30.

From the Mayor.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, City of Philadelphia.

I, ROBERT WHARTON, Mayor of said city of Philadelphia, do hereby certify that I am well acquainted with Messrs J P Inglis, John D.
