Creole Table Mustard.
PREPARED BY LARROQUE.

THIS Mustard is, both to taste and odor, of the most pleasant kind, and has over all other preparations of the sort an indisputable superiority. In the first place, it is in no way heating, which is a very just cause of complaint in other table mustard. 2d—It stimulates the appetite. 3d—This preparation does not contain any ingredients capable of neutralizing constituent parts of the mustard seed, (Sinapis Nigra) which most of the manufacturers are ignorant of, and do not scruple to add to their preparations very strong acids and the most alkaline salts. Some even go as far as to make use of mustard of which the most essential oily substance is extracted and make up for the deficiency with other sediments, and even to those worthless powders an artificial tart by adding to it carbonate of ammoniac and strongly spiced substances. You can detect the same so injurious to health, by the long continued heat it leaves in the throat and palate, whilst the tart of the genuine article is almost as soon destroyed as felt.

G. BOYER'S
CLASSICAL AND COMMERCIAL INSTITUTION,
No 146 Court Street,
(between Dauphine and Burgundy streets.)

THIS Institution, the oldest scholastic establishment in New Orleans, is well known and highly distinguished for the success which has accompanied it ever since its foundation; a considerable number of pupils who have quitted it to enter on the great scene of life, having already acquired some distinction in the various avocations to which they have devoted themselves.
Boyer's Institution is conducted in one of the largest Mansions in the city, occupying a fine central position being well ventilated and in other respects perfectly salubrious.
The range of studies which engage the attention of the pupils extends over all the branches of Learning which are necessary to a useful, polite and finished education, from primary instruction to the more abstruse subjects which are especially the province of a collegiate course.—Discipline so necessary to quicken in the youthful mind a due perception of the duties incumbent on it in its future relation with society, is a conspicuous feature of the establishment, being at the same time severe and considerate, whilst the solicitude of the Principal regarding the moral training of the youths committed to his charge, is, though strict, yet paternal.
The English language, daily becoming more and more evident, as of the greatest possible importance to all living in this community, is, in Boyer's Institution, attended to with more than ordinary care, the Professors engaged in this branch being gentlemen of undoubted attainments and long accustomed to Tuition.
