TO DR. MAGNIN, inventor of the 'Lucina cordial, or Elixir of Love'

"Respected and honored sir.—We have all, in a variety of cases, tested the remarkable effect of your great discovery, and have assembled for the purpose of bearing evidence to the facts, and tendering you the honor which is your due. The "Lucina cordial" is, in our opinion, an infallible remedy for the prostrating of the procreant functions, and artificial barrenness and therefore must prove a blessing to the human race. We can also bear evidence that there is nothing in it of a mercurial or deleterious nature; and, in short, that it is one of the noblest medicinal discoveries of any age.

"With feelings of admiration and respect, we remain, dear sir, your obedient servants,

JOSEPH IN BOSSUIT,
SIGIMMOND DE LA MARTINE,
ADRIEN DECRAND,
OCTAVE NICOLS,
JEAN BLANC,
ROBERT STEVENSON
LOUIS CUSSEAU,

"LE CORDIAL DE LUCINE" or, in English, "the Lucina cordial," is a general invigorator of the human frame. In all the various cases of languor, lassitude, and debilitation, it is an unfailing remedy; as it is equally its province to impart cheerfulness and decision to the mind, as health and vigor to the body. But the peculiar virtue on which its celebrity is based, is the healthy and certainly wild which it restores the virile powers, when they have been destroyed by diseases, time, recklessness, or any of the numerous causes which terminate in the prostration of these functions.

In common with the generality of really good medicines, this cordial contains nothing of a mercurial or deleterious nature, among the many ingredients which go to compose it, but is the purest, most simple, yet most efficacious, that while it can renovate the prostrated energies of a giant, an infant may use it, not only with impunity, but with advantage.

The testimonials in its favor are so unfeignedly such, that, notwithstanding the benefits which would be sure to result from it, we cannot enter into an analysis of the inestimable cordial here, or publish many of the documents which have been forwarded to us, lest the modesty of blushings it has rendered an nonbers of deserving individuals. But this we cannot forbear remarking—that it has been demonstrated that there is scarcely ever, if any one instance at all, an original barrenness, or a natural imbecility of the procreant functions, in either sex; and therefore, that those evils are the effects of artificial causes, and may be speedily subdued and removed by the use of "Le Cordial de Lucine."

The Lucina cordial is also an indubitable cure for the gleet, and for the fluor albus, obstructed, difficult, or painful menstruation; also for the incontinence of urine, or the involuntary discharge thereof. It is likewise a sure remedy for the individuals in whom such chronic eruptions of the skin, and of the lineaments of feature of the aged.

COUNTERFEIT.—The public is respectfully informed that one of the basest and most dangerous counterfeits ever attempted has lately been brought to light in the city of New York; we mean an imitation of Dr. Jayne's celebrated medicine known "Brandreth's Tonic Mixture," for fever and ague.

We had but just put down an imitation called "Brandreth's Tonic Mixture," by L. S. Comstock & Co., when another, still more dangerous, makes its appearance from the street of "Brandreth & Brother," No. 105 Water street, N. Y., in which the fac simile of the proprietor has been counterfeited—his copy rights infringed upon—his certificates copied—and, in fact, everything, in a manner, that from its outward appearance, it can scarcely be detected. We would also say, that we have commenced a suit, in the United States court, for damages for this "piracy," upon our Brandreth and Comstock's Tonic and recommend to those who purchase the article, unless its source can be directly traced to the proprietor, or some one of his general agents, whom he has endeavored to select, to note carefully the signature and the name of the proprietor, on the wrapper, the place where they reside, and who, we trust, would think to offer any other than the true and original "Brandreth's Tonic Mixture," for the paltry gain of a few dollars, thereby endangering the lives of their fellow citizens.

HUMAN HAIR.—It is certainly true, although it not generally understood, that the roots of the hair always remain in the most abundant profusion, and that nature never ceases to supply the hair of every individual than hairs growing from them, but in the worst cases of baldness, that they neither perish nor are destroyed, and unless by accident or disease, remain in a state of dormancy, ready for the destruction of the parts which nourish and sustain them, to continue that they (the roots) continue vigorous, and are not destroyed, or even injured, when the hair has fallen, from fever, or from constitutional causes, either in the old or young. (Extract from S. I. Beale & co's treatise accompanying Beale' hair restorative.

MESSRS I. I. BEALE & Co. invite those who are bald in any degree, or who are losing their hair, to come by their office, 194 Broadway, up stairs, and have their Hair Restorative applied without charge until the hair is restored.

They further offer to enter into a contract with any party to restore the hair where the party of a fortnight of from two to five hundred dollars, and party being bound in a like sum, to be paid when the hair shall have been restored.

The subscriber has certificates of gentlemen of the highest standing in the city, may be seen at the office 194, Broadway, showing from healthy that Beale' Hair Restorative has restored hair where the human hair and if there are not sufficient to satisfy the disinterested, (of whom there are a great many) on account of the numerous humbugs, that have been impudently or imposed on the community) counter demonstration will be given to those who may call the re.

The ladies are respectfully recommended to the use of Beale' Hair Restorative, as it is certainly infallible in producing an abundance of new hair where it has become thin, and in preserving and beautifying that hair in its beauty.

Beale' Hair Restorative will keep it in excellent condition, and preserve a full head of hair in health and beauty to the latest period of life. Price $3 per jar. A liberal discount to those who buy to sell.
