FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.

WILL be given for the apprehension of the slave CHARLES or CHARLEY, who ran away on Sunday last, in the course of the day. He is about 5 feet 10 inches a height; robust, well made, very black, had a fine skin of a cent board, aged about 25 years, and has brigh

Had on when he went away a white frock coat a pair of blue cottonade pantaloons, and a black hat. The owner believes that he went on board a steamboat on Sunday for Louisville or Cincinnati, and as he is very intelligent, speaking both English and French, he will probably attempt to pass himself off as free. He usually worked in the cotton presses, or on buildings as a bricklayer.

The sheriffs of neighboring parishes are requested to pay attention to the above notice. Captains of vessels and others are notified not to receive or employ said negro, on pain of prosecution to the utmost rigor of the law.

Whoever apprehends and delivers said negro to the owner shall receive the above reward, together with the cost of expenses.

DR. JOSEPH EVANS' improved and successful mode of practice for the cure and prevention of all delicate diseases, viz:—Syphilis, gonorrhoea, gleets, strictures, mercurial affections and those arising from impurity of the blood, is continued as usual (confidentially,) at his dispensary, No. 19 Peck slip, New-York. Office hours, from 8 o'clock, A. M. to 9, P. M.

EF Those unfortunate victims of secret indulgence, long suffering under these or any other diseases of a private nature may depend on being cured, if they apply at this dispensary; and that by a course of medicine and treatment at once agreeable, expeditious and effectual, a perfect cure will be effected. Those of the most complicated and virulent form of the disease, should not despair when a cure is within their reach.

EF Strangers wishing to find this office, must not be led astray by ingenious puffing advertisements, and unmeaning lists of cures, (we can publish many,) A similarity of names may lead strangers to the wrong place; but a little observation will prevent any mistake. Remember the name is Dr. Joseph Evans, Old Galen's Blood Dispensary, No. 19 Peck slip, New-York.

EF Persons at a distance can have medicines forwarded to them, by describing their case, and enclosing a fee.

No letters taken in unless post paid.
