BY JOSEPH LECARPENTIER.

By virtue of an order from the honorable the first Judicial District Court of the state of Louisiana, there will be sold, at Hewlett's Exchange coffee house, at New Orleans, on Monday the 25th of January, 1836, at noon precisely, the following property, surrendered by Jean Baptiste de Gruy to his creditors, to wit:—

1. Yanga, a negro man, 40 years of age.
2. Celeste, a negro woman, 50 years obage.
3. A tract of land, situated in the parish of Jefferson, on the right bank of the river on the front of the plantation formerly belonging to Ante. Foucher, jun., about 3 miles above the city and above the upper canal of said plantation; the said tract measuring 100 feet front on the river, and running by this breadth to the depth of three arpents, where it widens 30 feet and runs thence by 130 feet to the depth of 5 additional arpents, making a total depth of 8 arpents, together with the buildings and improvements thereon.
4. A tract of land, situated in the same parish, distinct of Barataria, about 4 leagues from the river, measuring 10 arpents front on the bayou Barataria, alias bayou Villars, alias the river Ouachas, with all the depth thereto belonging, and extending to the swamps called prairies noyées, of which depth 80 arpents only or thereabout are warranted up to the lines of the land heretofore belonging to the widow Palao; this tract is bounded on one side by A. d'Hemecourt, heretofore Baronde, and formerly Guerbois, and on the other side by the tracts nos. 5 and 6, and by the two intermediate tracts claimed by John McDonogh, assignee of Jourdan and of Petteau.
5. A tract of land adjoining the above, and measuring 20 arpents front on the same bayou or river, by 9 arpents and more in depth, bounded on one side by the foregoing tract no. 4, and on the other side by the bayou de la Barre, and by a cypress swamp belonging to Laurent Millaudon.
6. All the right, title and interest of the insolvent in and to the further depth of the above tract no. 5, which lies behind its first depth of 9 arpents, and also behind the second depth of 40 arpents, claimed by John McDonogh, and which further depth consists of all the land which lies between two parallel lines forming a front of 20 arpents, beginning at 49 arpents from the bayou Barataria, and running down to the swamps, called prairies noyées bounded by the same boundaries as the tract no. 5, to wit, by the tract no. 4 on one side, and by Millaudon on the other side.
7. A tract of land, consisting of prairies or savannas, with a small border of wood fronting on the bayou Barataria, and extending from the bayou Chalaud to the bayou de la Concession, measuring about 35 arpents front, by a depth of 20 arpents.
8. A tract of land, consisting of prairies or savannas, fronting on the bayou Barataria, and extending from the bayou de la Concession to the bayou de la Barriere, measuring about 37 arpents front by a depth of 20 arpents.
9. A tract of land, consisting of a cypress swamp, with a small portion only of savanna or prairie in the rear, measuring about 36 arpents front on the bayou Barataria, by a depth of 20 arpents, and bounded on one side by the bayou de la Barriere, and on the other side by the following tract no. 10.
10. A tract of land, consisting of a cypress swamp, with a small portion only of savanna or prairie in the rear, measuring about 36 arpents on the bayou Barataria, by a depth of 20 arpents, and extending from the foregoing tract, no. 9, to a point where the prolongation of a certain dividing line means the bayou Barataria, to wit, that line which runs from the Mississippi and separates the plantation of Nicholas Reggio from that of Laverge and the brothers Villere.
11. All the right, title and interest of the insolvent in and to a cypress swamp, fronting the bayou Barataria, and extending between the prolongation of both lines of the plantation of Messrs. Laverge and the brothers Villere, on the Mississippi; said cypress swamp measuring about 24 arpents front by an irregular depth of 20 arpents or thereabouts.
12. All the right, title and interest of the insolvent in and to a cypress swamp fronting the bayou Barataria, and running between the prolongations of both lines of the plantation of David Urquhart, on the Mississipi; said cypress swamp measuring about 39½ arpents front by an irregular depth of 20 arpents, or thereabouts.
13. All the right, title and interest of the insolvent in and two a cypress swamp, fronting partly on the bayou Barataria and partly on the back boundary line of Cazelar's plantation, and extending between the prolongation of both lines of Felix Foratall's plantation on the river; the said cypress swamp measuring together on both the above fronts about 26 arpents, by an irregular depth of 20 arpents or thereabouts.
14. A tract of land consisting of cypress swamp and prairies or savannas, and containing about 600 superficiens arpents, more or less, situated in the vicinity of the bayou Barataria, and adjoining on one side the foregoing tract, no. 13, and on the other side by one end of the vacant lands, and by the other end the rear of the lands of Cazelar, which together with those of Dusnau and others, separate this tract from the above bayou.
15. All the right, title and interest of the insolvent in and to a certain tract of land, forming an island, situate in the above parish and district, at about 18 leagues from the city, and on the same side of the lake Barataria, by which it is bounded on one side, and on the other by the bayou St. Denis; the said island measuring about one league in front by about two leagues in depth, and about 5 or 6 leagues in its contour or outline.

Terms: The 12 tracts, nos. 3 to 14 inclusively, will be sold according to the plans thereof, made by Allen d'Hemecourt, late deputy city surveyor, and which will be exhibited at the said Exchange coffee house some days previous to the sale. The slaves, payable one third in all March, 1836; and the balance in all March, 1837 and 1838; and the landed property, payable one fourth in all March, 1836, and the three other fourths in all March, 1837; 1838 and 1839 respectively, in notes satisfactorily endorsed, and secured by mortgage on the property sold.

TEMPLE OF THE MAGI,

Fitted up at very considerable expense, at no 140 Chartres st. between Conti and St. Louis st.

RAHAB-BEN-ABEL MARCHAEL, the far famed Chaldean Magi, and his Circassian lady, Zillah the Sybil, being the only two persons who have ever been permitted by the initiated Magi to visit a foreign country, will open every evening thereafter.

The very flattering reception they have met with in the Northern States, having been visited by upwards of 73,000 persons, has induced them to visit New Orleans and to hope to receive a portion of public patronage.

The apparatus and furniture are of
