In two parts, being a series of beautiful illusions in mechanical philosophy and natural magic, illustrative of the marvellous feats performed by the Ancient Magicians, Sorcerers and Indian Brahmins, as originally exhibited at the Court of Ispahan, before his Mightiness Mahmoud Schah, and also before the court of England, to the astonishment and approbation of their majesties and suite.

The illusions are of the first order, truly magnificent, instructive and amusing, and of such a nature, that persons of the strictest religious principles can feel no repugnance in witnessing.

Amongst many others the Dramahtical illusion of the

HEAD QUARTERS, New-Orleans, Jan. 17th 1836 ORDERS

IN Conformity with the request of Major General Gaines of the United States Army, commanding the western department, a Regiment of Eight Companies, composed of Riflemen or Infantry or of both, will be held in readiness to assemble at a moments warning and march to the assistance of the troops now engaged in Florida, in subduing the Seminole Indians.

The commander-in-chief confidently relies upon the zeal and patriotism of the citizens of Louisiana, for the voluntary enrolment of the requisite number. In Baton Rouge a company of gallant men have anticipated the call, and offered their services; and their example will now, no doubt, be followed in different parts of the state.

The citizens are therefore invited to organize themselves in companies and report in writing immediately to the general of their Brigade and to the adjutant general's office at New Orleans, in order that measures may be taken to supply any deficiency by a draft under the provisions of our Law.

If more volunteers offer than are required; the services of those who are soonest organized will be accepted in preference. If, on the contrary it should be necessary to draft men to make up the deficiency, the draft will be made by entire companies, each of the seven Brigades of militia and the Legion of Louisiana being obliged to furnish one company.

Each company whether of volunteers or drafted Militia will consist of one Captain, one first Lieutenant, one second Lieutenant, four Sergeants, four Corporals, two Musicians, and if possible of fifty privates.

The eight companies will form a regiment to which will be attached a Colonel, a Lieutenant-Colonel, a Major, an Adjutant, a Sergeant-Major; and a Quartermaster Sergeant.

If volunteers do not offer as field officers and adjutants, their places will be filled by draft from Officers of the proper rank in the different corps of the state.

The men are required to provide themselves with all the necessary clothing. But arms, accoutrements, provisions, medicines, and camp equipage will be provided for them.

As soon as the requisite number is completed, their organization will be announced, and all will be held in readiness to assemble at New Orleans at a moment's warning, to be mustered and embarked for Florida.

In order to ensure the prompt compliance with this call, every officer of the militia is required to complete immediately the organization of the corps he commands, to order musters, whether of company or battalion at the earliest period allowed by law, and to transmit this order to those under him with all possible despatch.

The officers commanding the several brigades of militia will report, from time to time, to Head-Quarters, at N Orleans, the progress made within the bounds of their command, in the execution of this order; but this will not dispense with their reports to their respective Generals of Division. By order of the commander-in-chief,

OFFICIAL.

Twelfth Legislature—Second Session.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 14th.

The house met agreeably to adjournment.

Mr Ducros offered the following resolution which was read for the 1st time and ordered for a second reading on tomorrow:

"Resolved that the senate be invited to meet in the Hall of Representatives on Thursday 21st inst. at 1 o'clock P. M. for the purpose of electing a State Treasurer."

Mr Lewis on behalf of the judiciary committee reports the following bills with amendments,

"An act to amend the act entitled "an act to determine the cases in which the defendant in criminal prosecutions shall be entitled to peremptory challenges." and

"An act to prescribe certain duties to the clerks of the District and Parish Courts."

Which bills were read for the 1st time and ordered for a 2d reading on tomorrow

The same member on behalf of the same committee, to whom was referred the bill entitled "an act to create two additional judges of the supreme court," made the following report:

"The judiciary committee, to whom was referred the bill entitled "an act to create two additional judges of the supreme court, beg leave most respectfully to report, that your committee have had the same under consideration, and from the most mature deliberation, they have come to the conclusion that it is, at least for the present, inexpedient to adopt the measure contemplated by said bill.

"From the nature and amount of business annually brought before the supreme court, your committee are of opinion that three judges are amply sufficient to discharge the duties required of this tribunal.

"That the salaries paid to these judges are greater than those paid to any other state judges in the United States, and equal to that received by the chief justice of the Union, whose duties are known to be much more arduous, than those of our supreme judges, and your committee believe that an increased expenditure of ten thousand dollars per annum ought not to be incurred unless the advantages to be gained thereby should clearly appear to be at least commensurate with the expense; and such would not, in their opinion be the case, if the bill under consideration were adopted.

"It has been said out of the house, and may be urged in it, that the present judges, from ill health and the infirmities consequent upon advanced age are unable to undergo the physical labor necessary to a proper discharge of the duties of their station, while their mental energies continue in full vigor; such, your committee would hope is not the case with any of the distinguished jurists who preside in that tribunal; but were this even so, still, your committee are of opinion that they would rather be an argument in favor of a change of the officers than an increase of their number, which latter alternative might in time serve to increase instead of diminishing the evil complained of

"From these considerations and others not necessary to be incorporated in this report, your committee feel bound to express their opinion that the proposition contained in said bill, after having been revised by the mayor, shall be paid in cash.

Be it further resolved that on the first of February next, or a few days after, the mayor shall submit to the council the propositions which he shall have received relatively to gutter and curb stones, and to the hard square paving stones.

Be it further resolved that the mayor shall be authorised to enter into any other arrangement as would, at all times, ensure a sufficient quantity of curb and gutter stones to keep Messrs Mouton and Phelps supplied.

For the consideration of the first and second sections,

On motion, the house resolved into a committee of the whole.

Mr Penn being called to the chair, after some time, on motion, the committee rose; the chairman, Mr Penn, reported that the committee of the whole had had under consideration the bill entitled,

"An act amendatory and supplementary to the several acts relative to the act to incorporate the citizens' Bank of Louisiana," and have adopted with first and second sections thereof.

The house took up the said bill.

Mr Brashear moved that MM: B Marigny, A Gillet, W H Sparks, A Labranche, M G Penn, A Landry, and P A Delachaise be excluded from voting on the bill now before the house, on the ground of being interested directly and indirectly in the passage of said bill.

Mr Labatut having moved that said proposition be indefinitely postponed,

Mr Brashear called for the yeas and nays,
