MAYORALTY OF NEW ORLEANS—COUNCIL OF MUNICIPALITY NO. 1.

SITTING OF MONDAY, 13th July, 1840.

THE Council of Municipality No. 1, ordain as follows:

1. From and after the promulgation of this ordinance no pedlar or hawker of goods, merchandize, jewelry, boots, shoes, hats, caps, hardware, cutlery, groceries, ready made clothing, stationery, &c. shall be permitted to station in any public place, road, levee or side walk, within this municipality, under a penalty for each offence of three days imprisonment and a fine of ten dollars: and moreover for the faithful performance of this ordinance the commissaries of the meat and vegetable markets are hereby held personally responsible, and shall be fined $25 for the first and second offence, and afterwards dismissed from office by the Mayor if they neglect their duty. The commissary of the meat market is obligated to inspect from St. Ann to St. Phillip streets, and the commissary for the vegetable market, from St. Phillip to Ursuline streets. The residue of this municipality devolves upon the immediate inspection of the commissaries of the different wards or districts under the same conditions and penalties.

2. All keepers of taverns, coffee-houses, grog shops, and all others who rent to or permit pedlars to station in front of their premises, shall pay a fine of $20 for each offense, and if repeated, their license shall be taken from them.

3. During the summer months the oyster stands are not sold, the occupants of the oyster stands on the levee are not permitted to sell any spirituous liquor, under the penalty of $20 for every offence. They are also not permitted to sell other than fruit, under the same penalty.

4. The owner or owners of the ferry shall have a strong fence or enclosure made, with one small and one large gate in front of the landing, say thirty feet front on the Levee, extending on each side to the river—the gates to be shut and locked after the running of the boat shall have ceased.—The interior of this enclosure shall always be kept clean: under the penalty of $10 for each and every offence.

5. The stands or pavilions used for the sale of ice cream, lemonade, &c. shall be removed from the Levee, and permission granted, if asked, to said occupants, to erect three small pavilions for their purpose under the trees of the public square, in front of the church, for which they will pay each $25 per month to this municipality, during the summer months.

6. From and after this date, no other stalls outside of the markets shall be permitted, (and that only during market hours, say till ten o'clock a. m.) but those that sell bacon, ham, pork, flour, corn, meal, fruit, rice, peas, beans, grain, vermicelli, coffee and spruce. The walk from the Levee to the vegetable market shall be kept free of market pedlars; and after market hours the whole of the outside of the markets, and the space on the Levee between the two markets, [illegible] are obligated to have this done under a penalty of $10 for each neglect of duty.

7. The present resolutions shall be printed in French and English and published in several newspapers, and one hundred handbills shall be printed, and the Mayor requested to have them stuck up in the several parts of the three markets of this municipality, and every other public place, so that all persons interested may not pretend ignorance of their promulgation.

(Signed) PAUL BERTUS, Recorder.
Approved, July 14, 1840.
