BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS,
New Orleans, May 11th 1841.

THE undersigned is authorized and prepared to contract for the cutting of a channel through the Raft of Red River above the town of Alexandria, provided the same can be done in accordance with a plan and estimate made by George F. Daubin, Esq., Civil Engineer of the State of Louisiana, and also with an appropriation made for that purpose by the Legislature of this State, all of which can be seen at the office of the Board in the City of New Orleans, or on application to R. Rousseau, Secretary, No. 25 Old Levee street.

The person or persons contracting to do the said work will be required to give a bond with good and sufficient security in a sum of at least the full amount of the contract, to stipulate that one half of the amount of the work shall be completed to the satisfaction of the Board or of the said Daubin, at the completion of the contract. It is confidently believed that highly advantageous terms can be offered to such persons as may be disposed to enter into a contract for work of the character here proposed to be done.

THOS W. CHINN,
President of the Board of Public Works.

The Red River Whig, at Alexandria, will please publish the above twice a week for two months and forward a bill to R. Rousseau, Secretary of the Board of Public Works.

COUGH REMEDY—Pectoral Paste of Deguerrain, Druggist at Paris.—Of all the remedies now known for the cure of coughs, none has ever obtained so much celebrity as the Pectoral Paste of Georgé. The happy results obtained by its usage in the affections of the lungs and consumption, have rendered it invaluable.

This paste has the power of calming irritations of the lungs immediately, facilitates the expectoration, and stops the cough. It is one of the best remedies in colds, catarrhs, &c. which yield immediately to its effects. Physicians of the best standing in Paris have tested its effects in many cases and have recommended its use in all lung affections, and cases of consumption as the best remedy now known.

The above remedy can be obtained at M. Martin's, Drug gist, No 171 Chartres st.

IMPROVEMENT AND BANKING COMPANY,
New Orleans, 9th July, 1841.

THE splendid Hotel St Louis, being nearly finished in an elegant style, proposals for its lease from the 1st November next, will be received at this office.

Persons desirous of making applications may obtain at all times from the Cashier all the information they may require, and the proposals under seal must be addressed to the President and Directors on or before the 20th August, next.

By order of the Board. L. BERNARD, jy10 Cashier.

For the information of persons in other parts of the United States who might feel inclined to take advantage of this opportunity of securing the use of this splendid establishment it is thought proper to give the following description.

The Hotel forms part of the handsome block of buildings known as the City Exchange and St Louis Hotel. Previous to its destruction by fire in February, 1840, this edifice was styled the Palace of the South, and by its re-establishment it has rather been improved in style and convenience.

There is an entrance in St. Louis street, near the vestibule of the Exchange and Rotunda, and the main entrance is in Royal street through a handsome vestibule with a large winding stair way leading to the upper part of the building.

The second floor is comprised of one large dining room or ordinary 95 feet in length, 40 feet wide and 18 feet high. One ladies dining room or ordinary and one parlor, each 46 feet by 21 connected by large sliding doors 22 feet wide, two small rooms in the rear divided by a passage, leading from the ladies rooms above described to the stair way in St. Louis street, also the splendid ball room over the exchange, but which does not form part of the premises to be leased.

The third floor comprises 4 rooms fronting on Royal street, 21 by 21 feet each, 4 sets of rooms, each 19 feet by 16 and 16 by 12, connected by doors, [illegible] by 16, and 16 by 12; and two rooms 20 by 12, all intended for families.

The fourth floor besides a front of 180 feet and upwards, in Royal street, extends on St Louis from Royal to Chartres streets, 320 feet, and comprises 64 rooms, [illegible]

Besides the above there are in each of the 3d and 4th floor, one room fronting the yard [illegible]

The kitchen and cellars are, on the first floor [illegible] 30, and over them on the half floor [illegible] 10 feet each, with a back stairs leading to all the floors.

Besides other conveniences, such as supply of water and handsome fixtures for gas light &c, there are two large reservoirs in the 4th floor containing [illegible] 6000 gallons of water. L. B., Cashier

GALT HOUSE,
Cincinnati, corner Main and Sixth streets

THE location of this house being central, half way between the river and canal, and upon the highest level upon Main street, and convenient to all kinds of business, together with the late addition, and improvements makes it one of the most desirable hotel in the city for merchants and travellers in general. Fare not surpassed by any hotel in the city—bills moderate, servants attentive. Feeling grateful for past favors, I hope by strict attention to the comfort of all who may call to merit a continuance of public favor so liberally bestowed.

GUILD'S PATENT COOKING STOVES CALLED "QUEEN OF THE WEST."

THE undersigned, agent for the sale of this article, for the first time introduced to the notice of the New Orleans public, begs leave respectfully to solicit public attention thereto.

He refers to the subjoined flattering testimony as to its economy, neatness and general utility.

We, the subscribers, having used for some time Guild's Patent Cooking Stove, called the Queen of the West, can no hesitation in giving our unqualified testimony in its favor. For neatness, convenience, economy and general usefulness, we think it surpasses any other cooking apparatus that we have seen in use. It seems to have supplied one great desideratum not heretofore attained, as over capacious, and at the same time heated uniformly and equally on every side—and the fire being placed over the oven brings the heat immediately in contact with the bottom so that it performs all the different offices of baking, boiling, broiling, and heating smoothing irons at the same time, and with the least possible quantity of fuel, and the different sizes manufactured seem equal to supplying the wants of all, from the smallest family to the largest hotels and steamboats.

A CARD.—The subscriber begs to express his grateful thanks to the public for the very liberal support he has received since he commenced business in this city. And he assures the public that his connections in every department of the seed business in the different countries of Europe are equal to that of any house in the United States. He imports seeds, plants, &c. direct from the most extensive and respectable nurseries and seedsmen in France, England, Scotland, Holland and the northern states, and it will at all times be his study as it is his interest, to import articles of the very best description. Having made arrangements with some of the most eminent seed growers in the north for a full supply of seeds of this year's growth, his customers may rely with confidence that a large quantity of fresh seeds will be ready for them by the first of September next.

James Dinn, the subscriber's brother, will leave in a few days for Europe to select and forward seeds and plants of the very best quality, and will be happy to execute any commissions entrusted to him with care and punctually.

LIFE INSURANCE.

OCEAN INSURANCE COMPANY.—The absence of any institution in this city for insuring life, and the extravagant rates of premium demanded by the northern and European companies for granting life policies to persons residing in Louisiana, have determined the Board of Directors of this Company to put into operation that clause in their charter which authorizes insurance upon lives, on a scale of premiums which will enable every one who is in receipt of a moderate annual income to secure for those who are dependent on them a comfortable provision in case of their death.

The scale determined on is, as nearly as possible, the average of those adopted by the London offices for insuring lives in England in addition whatever being made for difference of climate, and by this scale an annual premium of twenty dollars paid by a person 25 years old will secure the payment of one thousand dollars to his assigns should he die within the year—an annual premium of one hundred dollars will secure five thousand dollars—and so on in proportion for any larger amount.

The Company will issue policies for any term from one to seven years and the premium can be paid quarterly, half yearly or yearly.

Any further information that may be required will be furnished on application to the office No. 40 Camp street, corner of Gravier street.

By order of the Board.
m8 CHS. BRIGGS, Secretary.

An act to prevent free persons of colour from entering into this State, and for other purposes.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Louisiana, in General Assembly convened, That all free negroes, mulattoes, or other free persons of colour who have come into this State since the first day of January 1825, in violation of an act of the Territory of Orleans, passed on the 14th of April, 1807, entitled "an act to prevent the emigration of free negroes and mulattoes into the Territory of Orleans," shall and may be arrested and proceeded against by warrant before any judge, justice of the peace, or Mayor in this State. And that upon due proof of the violation of said act, by any free negro, mulatto, or other person of color, before any judge, justice of the peace, or Mayor, in this State, it shall be the duty of the said judge, justice of the peace, or Mayor to order any free negro, mulatto, or other free person of colour, so brought before him, and convicted of having come into this State, since the 1st day of January, 1825, to depart therefrom within sixty days.

Sec. 2. Be it further enacted, &c., That any free negro, mulatto, or other free person of color, who having been ordered to depart from this State pursuant to the provisions of the first section of this act, shall, after the period assigned for his departure, be found in any parish in this State; all such free negroes, mulattoes and other free persons of color, found within this State, in disobedience of such order of departure and removal therefrom, shall be liable to be prosecuted before any court of competent jurisdiction or before any judge justice of the peace or Mayor, and upon due conviction of having disobeyed an order of departure or removal, as provided for in the 1st Section of this act, all such free negroes, mulattoes, and other free persons of colour, shall by said court, judge, justice of the peace or Mayor, be sentenced to one year imprisonment at hard labor, and if any free negro, mulatto, or other free person of colour ordered to depart from this State, pursuant to the provisions of the first section of this act, shall be convicted of a disobedience to such order, and sentenced to imprisonment as above prescribed, all such free negroes, mulattoes, or other free persons of colour shall be held and bound to depart from this State in thirty days after the expiration of imprisonment; and on failure to depart within said thirty days, all such free negroes, mulattoes, and other free persons of color, on due proof of a failure to depart from the State as herein required, shall, by said court, judge, justice of the peace or Mayor be sentenced to imprisonment as hard labor, for life.

Sec. 3. Be it further enacted, &c., That no free negro, mulatto or other free person of color, shall come into this State, under the pain of being ordered to depart therefrom, as provided for in the 1st section of this act; and in disobedience of such order, on pain of incurring the penalties or imprisonment enacted in the second section thereof, except as is herein after provided for.

Sec. 4. Be it further enacted, &c., That any free negro, mulatto, or other free person of color, having departed from this State, in pursuance of any order to that effect, or in obedience to the command of the act of the Territory of Orleans, passed the 14th April, 1807, or of this act, and who shall return into this State again, all such free negroes, mulattoes and other free persons of color, shall be held to be proceeded against, under the provisions of this act.

Sec. 5. Be it further enacted, &c., That all free negroes, mulattoes and other free persons of color, who shall come into this State as seamen attached to any vessel, or as cook, steward, or in any other capacity, and who shall not depart with said vessel, provided she is destined for an outward voyage, and in a, or is from any circumstance in public, or not destined for departure, shall not depart within thirty days from this State; all such free negroes, mulattoes and other free persons of color, so coming into this State, and not departing therefrom as contemplated in this section shall incur the penalties of the second section of this act, and be proceeded against as directed by the first and second sections of this act.

Sec. 6. Be it further enacted, &c., That if amongst the free persons of colour who are subject to depart from this State, there are any who hold any property or slaves, on which they do actually pay State taxes, he, she, or they shall, on proving the same before the acting governor of the State, be allowed by him one year from the promulgation of this act, to depart therefrom, and to dispose of their said property, if they think proper to do it; and on their giving to the Governor their bond in favor of this State, in such penal sum as the Governor shall fix, with one or two good freeholders as securities, conditioned that they shall depart from this State at the expiration of the year allowed to them, and that, in the meantime, they shall behave as a good and peaceable citizen ought.

Sec. 7. Be it further enacted, &c., That any free negro, mulatto, or other free person of color who is or is subject to the provisions of the act of the Territory of Orleans, passed on the 14th of April, 1807, or of this act, shall at any time depart from the United States; all such free negroes, mulattoes, or other free persons, so departing from the United States, shall be prohibited from returning into this State, under pain of being proceeded against, and incurring the penalties of the first and second sections of this act. [See Act of 1831.]

Sec. 8. Be it further enacted, &c., That if any free person of persons shall hereafter knowingly bring or cause to be brought into this State any free negro, mulatto, or person of colour, and shall hold the same as a slave, or shall offer the same for sale as slave, such person or persons in this State as a slave, every such person or persons shall pay for every such free negro, mulatto, or free person of color, the sum of one thousand dollars over and above the damages which may be recovered by such free negro, mulatto, or free person of color, to any person or persons who will sue for and recover the same, which may be done either by indictment, or by information filed by the Attorney General, or by the District Attorney as the case may be, or by a civil action brought by any person prosecuting for the same.

Sec. 9. Be it further enacted, &c., That if any white person shall be convicted of being the author, printer, or publisher of any written or printed paper or papers within the State, or shall use any language, with the intent to disturb the peace or security of the same, in relation to the slaves of the people of this State, or to diminish that respect which is commanded to free people of color for the whites, by the 40th section of the act entitled "An act prescribing the rules and conduct to be observed with respect to negroes and other slaves of this Territory," approved June 7, 1806, or to destroy that line of distinction which the law has established between the several classes of this community; such person shall be adjudged guilty of high misdemeanor, and shall be fined in a sum not less than three hundred dollars nor exceeding one thousand dollars, and moreover imprisoned for a term not less than six months nor exceeding three years, and if any free person of color shall be convicted of such offence, he, she, or they shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, and imprisoned at hard labor for a time not less than three years and not exceeding five years, and at the expiration of said imprisonment, be banished from this State for life.

Sec. 10. Be it further enacted, &c., That from and after the passing of this act, any person or persons who shall emancipate his, her, or their slave or slaves shall enter into bond, with at least one good and sufficient security, in the sum of one thousand dollars for each and every slave intended to be emancipated, conditioned that the slave or slaves emancipated, shall permanently depart from the State within one month from and after the passage of the act of emancipation; and in default of the slave or slaves so emancipated, refusing or neglecting to depart from the State, within the time prescribed by this section, the said bond shall become forfeited, one half to the person denouncing and the other half to the State, the penalty of said bond to be recovered by motion before any court of competent jurisdiction; Provided, that nothing contained in this section, shall be held to extend to any person who shall be emancipated in consequence of meritorious services rendered to the State or to his or her master or mistress, or any member of the family of the master or mistress in the preservation of their lives.—[See Act of 1831.]

Sec. 11. Be it further enacted, &c., That in the event of the forfeiture of the bond mentioned in the preceding section, the slave emancipated shall be subject to a special privilege for the payment of the same.

Sec. 12. Be it further enacted, &c., That it shall be the duty of all free negroes, griffs and mulattoes of the first degree, who came into the State after the adoption of the Constitution thereof, and prior to the 1st day of January, 1825, within sixty days after the promulgation of this act, to enroll themselves in the office of the Parish Judge of the Parish where they may be resident, or in the office of the Mayor of the City of New Orleans; setting forth their age, sex, color, trade or calling, place of their nativity and the time of their arrival in the State; for which enrolment the Parish Judge or Mayor shall be entitled to demand and receive the sum of fifty cents.

Sec. 13. That it shall be the duty of the said Parish Judges to transmit to the Mayor of the City of New Orleans, before the first of July next, a copy certified by them of the book mentioned in the 12th section of this act, and the Mayor shall cause a general list to be made out, of all the lists so transmitted to him from the several parishes of the State, and of the one which he shall himself have caused to be made; and it shall be his duty to keep in his office the said general list.

Sec. 14. Be it further enacted, &c., That any person of color, as described in the 12th section, who shall not have had him or herself recorded, in conformity with the provisions of the 12th section of this act, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty dollars, and to an imprisonment not exceeding one month.

Sec. 15. Be it further enacted, &c., That any Judge who shall have neglected to comply with the provisions of the thirteenth section of this act shall be liable to a fine of not less than fifty dollars, and not exceeding one hundred dollars, recoverable before any Court of competent jurisdiction.

Sec. 16. Be it further enacted, &c., That the provisions of the first section of this act shall not be construed to extend to any free negro, mulatto, or other free person of color who may have been a slave in this State and who shall have, with the consent of his owners, been emancipated in any other State of the Union, and shall have, after such emancipation, returned into this State.

Sec. 17. And be it further enacted, &c., That it shall be the duty of the State Printer to publish this act in [illegible] every six months, and that in all cases it shall be the duty of the Attorney General and the several District Attorneys of this State to prosecute the [illegible] within their respective districts, whenever it shall [illegible] by any citizen of this State, under pain of being removed from office and in all [illegible] brought by the Attorney General or the [illegible] District Attorneys, as herein before prescribed, the said negroes, mulattoes or other free persons of color, shall be bound to prove that they had come into this State prior to the 1st of January, 1825, and the presumption shall always be, that they have actually come into the same in violation of this act.

Approved, March 16, 1830.
