GARREAU'S INSTITUTION.—Hitherto a certain class of society have had reason to complain of the difficulty, we might say, impossibility, of procuring for their children, as complete an education as is desirable. Parents ought therefore, to view with pleasure an establishment where their children may obtain a course of instruction equally solid and various.

Mr. and Madame Garreau have recently established a seminary for both sexes in Rampart street, between St. Anne and Maine streets. A long experience in the art of instruction enables them to satisfy every desire on the part of parents.

French, English, History, Geography, Mathematics, Mythology, Drawing, Book-Keeping, and in short every department of a complete education are taught with care, zeal and assiduity. Professors of well ascertained merit are attached to the establishment.

Music, Dancing and the use of the Sword will be imparted to those desirous of acquiring a knowledge of these arts. All the various manual arts which constitute an essential portion of a Young Lady's education will be taught by Madame Garreau herself.

Boarders and half boarders will be received in the establishment.

For terms and references, see Prospectus at Mr. Lelievre's, book store. jy21 1m

NOTICE.
To all the Companies of the Louisiana Legion.
MESSRS. MONDELET & Co inform those gentlemen who belong to the Louisiana Legion, that they will undertake to scour and clean every kind of military dress and accoutrements, giving them the same gloss and lustre as if they were entirely new. FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD—Ranaway since the 6th April last, from the plantation of the undersigned, at McDonoughville, opposite New Orleans, the mulatto BEN, alias BENJAMIN, aged about forty-five years, about 5 feet ten inches (English measure) well built and a handsome boy—has a large mouth, rather thick lips, long and flat nose, has no beard, and is of a dark or red color. This mulatto speaks and writes English, French and Spanish. He is a good sugar maker and will probably seek employment in his business.

ALSO—The negro JEAN BAPTISTE, aged about forty-five years, 5 feet 9 inches in height, (English measure)—Jean Baptiste is a creole negro, speaking the English indifferently. He is of a weak constitution, thin face, bright eyes, and has small beard nearly grey.

These two negroes were seen yesterday on the Canal Veret near the plantation of the undersigned.

The whole reward will be paid to the person who will lodge them in one of the jails of this city—or one-half for the apprehension of either of them.

DYEING AND SCOURING IN GENERAL.
NOTICE—Messrs MONDELET & Co, have the honor to inform the public, that on the 1st June next, they will open, at No 160 Chartres street, opposite the Orleans Hotel, A DYEING AND SCOURING Establishment.

The knowledge they have acquired of this art, by many years labor in the first houses in Paris, and by a diligent study of chemistry applied to dying, induce them to hope that no hesitation will be felt in entrusting to them the most valuable articles either for dying or scouring, convinced as they are that such articles will be as carefully and properly attended to as at Paris. Those who may honor them with their confidence will be convinced of their skill, by the care and elegance of their work, and by the finish imparted to it.

They dye and scour all kinds of articles, such as silk, merinos, mousseline laines, cashmeres, crapes, tulles, velvet plain or figured, straw hats, furniture covers, carpets, church ornaments, ball and theatrical costumes silk and thread gloves, silk stockings, they clean silk dresses without changing the colors. By new chemical processes they bleach muslins, jaconets and print dresses, giving them the appearance of new materials. They clean and dye kid gloves, all kinds of feathers, gentlemen's clothing without injuring them, and giving them all the neatness of new articles. They dye clothing black for mourning in twenty-four hours, and warrant the durability of the colors.—They likewise re-dye black stuffs, giving them various colors.
