THE undersigned have the honor to inform their friends and the public that they have entered into copartnership in this city under the firm of BORDERES & Co, for the sale of dry goods. AUGUSTE BORDERES, PIERRE CHAMAU.

THE undersigned have the honor to inform the merchants of the city and country, that they have removed their establishment from No 47 Canal street to No 14 in the same street, (formerly occupied by Messrs Durand & Iznard's store,) where they offer for sale a large assortment of dry goods received by late arrivals from the North and Europe. BORDERES & Co.

DYEING AND SCOURING IN GENERAL.

NOTICE—Messrs MONDELET & Co., have the honor to inform the public, that on the 1st June next, they will open, at No 180 Chartres street, opposite the Orleans Hotel, A DYEING AND SCOURING Establishment.

The knowledge they have acquired of this art, by many years labor in the first houses in Paris, and by a deligent study of chemistry applied to dying, induce them to hope that no hesitation will be felt in entrusting to them the most valuable articles either for dying or scouring, convinced as they are that such articles will be as carefully and properly attended to as at Paris. Those who may honor them with their confidence will be convinced of their skill by the care and elegance of their work, and by the finish imparted to it.

They dye and scour all kinds of articles, such as silk, merinos, mousseline laines, cashmeres, crapes, tulles, velvet plain or figured, straw hats, furniture covers, carpets, church ornaments, ball and theatrical costumes silk and thread gloves, silk stockings, they clean silk dresses without changing the colors. By new chemical processes they bleach muslins, jaconets and print dresses, giving them the appearance of new materials. They clean and dye kid gloves, all kinds of leathers, gentlemen's clothing without injuring them, and giving them all the neatness of new articles. They dye clothing black for mourning in twenty-four hours, and warrant the durability of the colors—They likewise re-dye black stuffs, giving them various colors.

PROCLAMATION.

BY ALEXANDER MOUTON,

Governor of the State of Louisiana.

IN pursuance of law, I, ALEXANDER MOUTON, Governor of the State of Louisiana, do hereby declare and make known, that the following described lands belonging to the State of Louisiana, and which have been located under the Acts of Congress appropriating lands for a Seminary of Learning and for Internal Improvements in said State, will be offered at public sale in the city of New Orleans, on MONDAY, the Ninth day of December, 1844, under the terms and conditions prescribed in the act authorising their sale, approved on the 24th of March, 1844, which terms and conditions are as follows:

The said lands shall be sold in the same manner and under the same rules and proceedings as the lands belonging to the United States are sold, provided the purchasers may pay for the same in the warrants or debts now due by the State, and provided that said lands shall not be sold for a less sum than three dollars per acre.

For the lands belonging to Internal Improvements, it is further provided by said act, that it shall be lawful for all said lands to be paid for by the purchasers in warrants or debts proper now due, or which may be due at the time of the sale for internal improvements or in specie.
