LOUISIANA LAW SCHOOL, [illegible] now permanently located at No. 117 Royal street, between St Louis and Conti streets, will be opened on the 18th of December, when the lectures commence.
[illegible], the only one in the United States where the Civil Law is explained and studied, although recently established, has received so flattering a support from the public, that the undersigned has felt it his duty to spare no pains or expense in rendering it as extensively useful as practicable.
The Course of Studies embrace a general and a special course.
The General Course, which comprehends the outlines of the science of jurisprudence, is intended as preparatory to the Special course. It includes besides an examination of the utility and philosophy of legal studies, an outline of the history of the Roman, Spanish, French and Common law, which is indispensable to enable the students to appreciate the elements of the jurisprudence of Louisiana, also the principles of modern international and of constitutional law, &c.
The Special Course which is devoted to the study of the actual legislation of Louisiana, and which is intended to prepare the students for admission to the bar, embraces the study of the various authors prescribed by the rule of the Supreme Court of the 20th Nov. 1840, prefixed to the 15th vol of Louisiana Reports.
Attached to the Law School is an extensive and well selected Law Library, comprising several thousand volumes.
The Hon Henry A Bullard, Judge of the Supreme Court, Christian Roselius, Esq, late Attorney General of the State, and J P Benjamin, Esq, will aid the undersigned in delivering lectures in the institution.
Terms—Fifty dollars for the General, and one hundred dollars for the Special Course, each course is of six months duration. Subscribers to the Special Course are admitted free of charge to the General Course.
Applications to be made to the subscriber, who will promptly furnish any additional information that may be desired. GUSTAVUS SCHMIDT.
New Orleans, Oct 9, 1844—till 1 d
The Commercial Gazette, Louisville Journal, Nashville Whig, St Louis Republican, and Lexington Reporter, will please insert the above for one week and send their account to G SCHMIDT.
