NEW YORK, Feb 6.

COFFEE—There was more animation than for some days, chiefly from the trade. The sales amount to 1500 bags in all, and prices may fairly be quoted higher. The particulars are as follows, viz: 300 Mobile at 11 a 13 c; 300 Brazil at 10 a 11½ c; but no sales ended 11½ c. (350 bags were sold in Philadelphia from this market at 12½ c.) 1500 bags Havana at 12 a 13½; 300 St. Domingo at 10½ c. 400 do. Rio, days at 12½; 400 white Porto Rico at 12½.

COTTON—The market was rather quiet than other, there being no demand of moment, except for Orleans. In prices there is no change. Sales 700 bales, of which 150 were Florida, at 16 a 18 c; 350 Orleans at 14 a 17½ c; 200 Mobile, at 17 a 19 c, and 100 Orleans at 16 a 18½c.

MOLASSES—There was considerable interest in this article, as the prices for the season had not before been fairly opened. One cargo of Orleans was sold at 27 c, and another at 27½, on Saturday; a cargo of Havana, and most of it in barrels, sold at 27c.

SUGAR—We have only to report 700 baskets Bata to retail, and 300 hogsheads Havana, 500 packages Cuba, at 7½ a 8½ c for brown, and 9 a 10 c for fair, with 5 Croix at 10½ a 11½ cts per lb.

WOOD—No change in the Logwood market, it becomes plentiful; 90 tons sold at 23½; 40 tons St. Domingo at 22½ 50. Other dye woods are but little wanted, and in general the prices are light.

HAVRE, December 31.

The following report embraces the transactions from the 3d inst. to the 30th inst., inclusive.

COTTON—The transactions in this article, since our last report, have been limited to the wants of the trade, and they have continued to be in the year at a large pitch, a very heavy market at nominal prices.

The sales from the 3d to the 30th instant inclusive, are 1645 bales, comprising of 75 bales New Orleans, at 110 f 147 50; 314 b. Mobile, at 125 to 145 and 579 b. Upland, at 110 f 143 50; the whole duty paid.

Owing to the westerly winds which have prevailed, without interruption, we have had no arrivals within the period.

NEW-ORLEANS:

WEDNESDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 15, 1837.

U. S. Sloop of War Fairfield.

February 10, 1837.

To the Editor of the New Orleans Bee.

SIR—The U. S. Ship Fairfield from Pensacola on the 8th inst., and arrived here on the 10th. She touched here for the purpose of giving convoy to American vessels, bound to Texas, Matamoras, Tampico and Vera Cruz.

The following is a list of the officers attached to this ship:

Hughes Delany commander, Lieuts John Kelly, R. D. Thorburn, N. M. Hewson and Simon Fox Moore.

Acting sailing master Guert Gansevoort, Surgeon William Johnson, Pay'd Ass't B. R. Cockwell, Purser, Peyton A. Southall, Midshipmen—James T. Armstrong, W. Taylor, Smith, James D. Johnston, John C. Howell, John Rutledge and George M. Cooke.

Capt. Clerk, John W. Gatewood, Sailmaker, Solomon Gunner Jacob Carpenter, Sail Master, Wm Adams—Act. Carpenter, Act. Gunner, Purser's Steward, B. Prescott. P. M. SOUTHARD.

MR JOHN Q. ADAMS.

This extraordinary individual, who has received so many and high and undeserved honors from Monarchs, whose real character it is so difficult to ascertain, so mingled is it with the ingredients of madness and knavery, has at length committed himself by an act which must forever deprive him of all consideration among men of all parties, an act which is unexampled in the annals of American legislation, an act which we thought no one would have the hardihood to perpetrate: he has presented one petition from free mulattoes in Fredericksburgh, in Virginia, and another signed exclusively by slaves, both, it is hardly necessary to add, in favor of abolition. We fervently hope that the House will vindicate its dignity by expelling him with disgrace. One thing is disclosed by the presentation of these petitions, which affords us much gratification, and is of some importance as showing the true character of those abolition petitions, which have been presented by dozens during the present and last sessions of Congress. It is asserted positively by some of the Northern papers which we received yesterday, and the fact is beyond dispute, that the signers to some of these petitions were all negroes and people of color, and a large portion of the signers to all those petitions were men and women of that description. After this development, Congress is bound to refuse even to receive any more petitions in favor of abolition.

The Whigs have been unfortunate in their choice of candidates for the Presidency. In 1828 their candidate was Henry Clay, who lately presented a petition to prohibit the emigration of Roman Catholics and the naturalization of foreigners. In 1828 their favorite candidate was J. Q. Adams, who has insulted common decency by presenting petitions from free negroes and slaves in favor of abolition.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Tuesday, Feb 14, 1837.

The house met agreeably to adjournment.

Leave of absence for a few days was granted to Mr Wadsworth.

Mr Lawson offered a resolution to appoint a joint committee of both houses to inquire into the necessity of convening a meeting of the general assembly in the present year, for the purpose of apportioning the representation of the different parishes of the state.

Mr Kenner presented a petition from John Consteck, which was referred to the committee of claims.

Mr Ducros from the committee of enrollment reported as duly enrolled, several bills and resolutions.

Mr Grymes, from the Judiciary Committee, moved that said committee be discharged from the further consideration of the petition of Elmira Mills, praying for a divorce, as the tribunals had jurisdiction over such cases.

Mr Grymes also moved that the Judiciary Committee be discharged from the further consideration of the bill to define the powers of the Supreme court.

Mr Grymes from the same committee reported a bill to provide for the administration of insolvent corporations—read and filed.

Also a bill to amend the Code of Practice—read a 2d time and ordered to be printed.

Mr Haile gave notice that he will shortly introduce a bill imposing certain responsibilities on doctors of medicine.

Mr Brashear, agreeably to notice, introduced a bill to authorize, for the purpose therein mentioned, the Planters' Association. Read a 2d time, and 300 copies ordered to be printed.

The speaker appointed Messrs Slidell, Canon, Lawson, Grymes, Paine, Kenner and Sloan members of the joint committee of superintendance of the celebration of the 8th January, 1838, under the resolution passed yesterday.

Mr Sloan, agreeably to notice, introduced a bill to incorporate the Mutual Insurance and Life and Trust company of New Orleans and Baton Rouge.

The Speaker laid before the house a letter from the mayor of New Orleans, transmitting a report of the chief engineer of the city of New Orleans, in relation to the improvement of the city, and the necessity of the adoption of a system of drainage, and the necessity of the adoption of a system of drainage, and the necessity of the adoption of a system of drainage
