MESSRS. F. BLANCHARD & ACHILLE LION, Surgeon Dentists of the Faculty of Paris and New Orleans, have the honor to inform their clients, that since the 1st of June, they have opened their offices at No. 44 Royal street, between Bienville and Customhouse (residence of Dr. Lion.)

The engagements they are under towards various institutions and the Governor of the city, up to such time as may be needed to [illegible], having [illegible] many days in the course of the month. They have, however, deemed it expedient to form a Copartnership as well on their own accounts as on account of their numerous Clients, in order that one of the two may be always in town, ready to attend to the persons who may honor them with their confidence. The superiority of their work and the care and promptitude evinced by them, induce them to hope for a continuance of the patronage of the public.

Dr. PEARSON, [illegible] Surgeon Dentist, office and residence Baronne street, opposite the State House.

DR PEARSON invites his friends and all interested to call and examine the improvements in the manufacture of Artificial Teeth, particularly the Block Teeth, for which he received the first premium at the State Fair.

Persons wishing artificial Teeth inserted, can have it done at my establishment with less delay and upon more reasonable terms than any other in the city.

It has ever been my object to place it in the power of the poor as well as the rich to obtain relief and receive the benefits of dental operations. The great increase of my practice for the last year has compelled me to employ several skilful operators among whom is an experienced French Dentist, to whose services I have procured for a term of years at considerable expense. The Creoles may rely upon finding him always ready to make such operations as will always be acceptable to my examination.
