NEW COTTON.—Two bales of Upland Cotton of the new crop, from the plantation of Mrs Purcher, Sumpter District, S C, were brought to our market yesterday.—The quality and staple of the same are very fine. We understand they have been picking fifty pounds per hand for the last week on the above named plantation. The third bale reached our market yesterday afternoon. It is also a fine sample and quality. Since writing the above, we learn that the three bales have brought twenty and one-eighth cents.—Georgian.

FOR PRESIDENT

M. VAN BUREN.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT

RICHARD M. JOHNSON.

"I prefer that not only you, but all the people of the United States shall now understand that if the desire of that portion of them which is favorable to my elevation to the chief magistracy should be gratified, I must go into the presidential chair, the inflexible and uncompromised opponent of any attempt on the part of Congress to abolish slavery in the district of Columbia against the wishes of the slave holding states; and also with the determination equally decided to resist the slightest interference with the subject in the states where it exists."—Martin Van Buren.

FALL TRADE—THE CITY &c.—The indications at present are favorable to an early and heavy business of all kinds the coming season. The continued good health enjoyed by those who have borne the fervid heat of the summer,—the numerous improvements, finished and in a state of forwardness,—the increase of stores and warehouses, together with the total absence of many, and the partial absency of others of the obstacles which operated against the trade of last season. The stops are in general more abundant —larger stocks of goods have been ordered by our permanent dealers, and in one instance at least, the house of Oakey & Co., they are of direct importation, and that to a large extent,—an example which should and will be followed up, with profit, both to the importer and country. The demand for every thing has increased since last fall to a far greater extent than the period of time would seem to warrant, —the spirit of Internal Improvement which has so greatly increased, will also have its influence,—together with the spirit of emulation that exists between the different municipalities, in fact every thing does and will wear a still brighter aspect than formerly.

New Orleans and its inhabitants are becoming better known abroad,—the thousand and one falsehoods which have been put in circulation, have died a natural death, and the truth is gradually rising out of the mist of error and prejudice which has hitherto hung like an incubus over our goodly city and her citizens. The misrepresentations and untruths that have reach and tainted most minds in the other portions of the Union, are dissolving into thin air, and leaving the bright, broad glar of truth visible to the gaze of all. Her morality is becoming known and acknowledged,—the open, free and magnanimous spirit of her citizens have long been acknowledged—there nothing is hid, all meets the eye; no cloak of hypocracy covers the thoughts nor actions of any one,—that vice exists, is true, but it can be seen and shunned, and its votaries cannot plead,—'lead astray by false appearance,'—then there is no excuse, for this reason there is less vice in N. Orleans than in any other city of the same size, and importance. The day is not far distant when we shall be known, and therefore duly appreciated by our countrymen; even now the tinselled garb of falsehood in which evilminded or prejudiced persons dress up their opinions, and give them forth to the world, is seen through and looked upon accordingly. When the city, as it certainly will, becomes as healthy in summer as in winter, and our population gets to be permanent, then will New Orleans rank equal in all points, whither it be the amount of her trade, the enterprise of her citizens, or the morality of her inhabitants,—with the most extensive city in the Union.

This is no fancy sketch, we say and we believe it, and time will prove the correctness of our opinion, that this city is destined one day, and that at no great distance, to vie in wealth, in the extent of her commerce, in enterprise, in influence, with the greatest in the United States, if not in the old world.

BLOCKADE—The blockade of the port of Matamoras has been abandoned, at least we hear nothing more about it; but we see the blockade of Chartres street continues in all its force.

We have often been surprised in our morning perambulations, to see so few enjoying a morning ride. What can be more delightful as well as beneficial, to the man who is engaged in the active duties of life, or the lady who prizes the mellow tints of beauty, than to rise with the orient sun and mount the 'prancing steed,' to leave the dull city with its lazy inhabitants locked in the embraces of Somnus, to enjoy the pleasures of a morning ride in the country, to breathe the pure and wholesome air that bears the treasured sweets of the wild flowers cultured by nature's hand to be cheered by the warblings of the merry songsters that float from the leafy groves, to behold the rich, green grass, and breath the universal fragrance that floats upon the air. To view early in the morning a company of equestrians, going forth to greet the rising sun, is really a pleasing sight, and shews that they prize their health far above the sluggard who is only awakened from his slumbers by the breakfast bell; to say nothing of the bloom it adds to the cheek and the sparkle to the eye. We hope soon to see the practice in universal vogue, especially among the ladies!

Galignani's Messenger says, that within the last six months there has been established at Moscow, Russia, five printing offices, one lithographic establishment, three bookseller's shops, and one reading room.

ITEMS.

COTTON CROPS.—The Clinton Democrat says that the cotton crops in the parish of East Feliciana have been much injured from the continued rains, yet they are fine, and should the fall prove dry and warm who shall have more than an average crop.

THE SILK CULTURE.—The Albany Journal says "200,000 silk worms are in operation at Cranston, on the farm of the Valentine Silk Company. There are 16,000 mulberry trees Next season one million of worms will be put in operation."

A RAIL ROAD is contemplated from Michigan city, thence to the mouth of Rock river upon the Mississippi.

It is said that the Queen of Spain is privately married to M. Munoz, and that he is very anxious to have her retire with him to England to enjoy the fortune she has stole of seven millions.

To the Editor of the Bee:

Riding along the Bayou St John a few days ago, I was shocked to observe several slaves bathing in its waters, within sight of the public road, and in broad day light. Having heard that a resolution had been passed some time since by the Council of the 1st Municipality, to prohibit this indecent practice, I would have had them immediately apprehended, had not a friend who was with me obligingly cautioned me against it, inasmuch as I would thereby subject myself to receive five lashes for every slave so taken up. I was incredulous, until he handed me a copy of the resolution in question cut from your paper, and as his interpretation of the law appears correct, I annex an extract of it, with a request that you will give your opinion. J. C.

"Under the penalty for the first offence of five dollars, for a free person; and if a slave, of ten lashes should his master not pay the fine. The said penalty to be doubled for the second offence, one half the fine to the informer or informers, on conviction before the Recorder of this municipality or any other competent tribunal."

[Take the obvious meaning, or spirit of the law, and not the letter, which is too frequently the case now-a-days.]—Editor.

LOAN TO THE BANK OF THE UNITED STATES.—The Paris Journal du Commerce of 7th ult. has this paragraph—shewing that the Bank of the United States have negotiated a loan, in Paris, for about six million and a half of dollars:

"There has been issued on the Exchange the bonds of a new loan of 12,500,000 francs, made at Paris by Messrs Hottinguer & Co. on account of the Bank of the United States. This is the first American loan contracted directly at Paris."

Extract of a letter, dated

"CAMBRIDGE, (U.) AUGUST 2, 1836.

DEMOCRACY TRIUMPHANT.

Mr. Bee: Sir:—Our general election closed yesterday, and the returns, as far as they have been received, show an overwhelming majority for the Van Buren party, wherever the party line was drawn.

In Tippecanoe county, the vote stood for Congress:

	Van Buren.	White.
J. Cummins	207	A. P. Field, 120

In Clinton, the adjoining county, the vote stood for Congress:

J. Cummins	122	A. P. Field, 3

R. M. Wright, the Van Buren candidate, who was declaratively upon the question, is elected to the State Legislature.

John Bethune and Wm. Hankins, both Van Buren, are elected to the House of Representatives of the Legislature.

In short, there is not a single White man, who ran for any office, that has been elected. Everything which was touched by the cudgel bearer in which he came out empty.

At the November election, this county will poll 600 votes, out of 700, for Mr. Van Buren and R. M. Johnson.—Globe.

INDIANA ELECTION.

The Election.—Well, the election is over, and parties is over, and parties have again cooled down to soberness and how has it terminated? Why here, in this town, the residence of Harrison, while Governor of the Territory of Indiana, his friends, running their candidate upon the Harrison question, and that candidate, too, the candidate for elector in this District, was beaten 96 votes in the township, and 66 in the county. In the language of my neighbor of the Gazette, may I not say, old Kyoz is redeemed, regenerated, and disenthralled? For my own part, I am willing things should again resume their old course without let or hindrance, until the election in November. They shall be allowed to claim majorities, before elections, and we will take them at the polls.—Vincennes Sun.

ALGIERS, June 26.

The question as to the fate of Algiers being decided several wealthy houses of Marseilles have sent over agents for forming agricultural, commercial, and industrial establishments. The plain is tranquil. The harvest is going on well, and promises to be abundant. The hopes of the colonist are quite restored. The partisans of our Bey of Medeah sustain their courage, and keep the field with success. The late occurrences at Tafna and Tremicen have contributed greatly to encourage them. The building of houses and the widening of the streets at Algiers are going on with great activity.

THE VEGETATING WASP—A Spaniard named Torrubia, found many years since, near Havana, some dead wasps in a field: from the belly of each wasp, a plant germinated, which grew about five spans high. He named this plant Gia, and it is full of sharp prickles, which are supposed to proceed from the belly of the wasp. Dr Hill says, the Spaniards also describe a vegetating fly, why flies about for some weeks, with a vegetable growing from its back. Some authors are of opinion, that this phenomena is caused by the insect swallowing the seeds of certain kind of plants.

TO THE POINT—A bill for the organization of the militia, being once under discussion in one of the State Legislatures, a member spoke to the point as follows:

Mr Speaker, when I do speak, I come to the point. I think this are proposition to get organ all nonsense. I've been captain six years, and I know in fact, Mr Speaker, I'm to assert it before heaven and arth, that one good drum and fife are worth all the organs in creation for militia. I'm satisfied this is the pint, and therefore I feel constrained to move that the organs for the military be eternally postponed.

The following is an extract of a letter, dated Chicago, Ill., August 5, 1836:—

"I have not time to give a detailed account of the result of the election in this State. So far as heard from, suffice it to say, that the result has proved that the democracy of Illinois remains unimpaired, and at the town meeting election shows an increased majority.—Whatever may have been the hopes of the opposition, they have found themselves far behind the age; their hopes are blasted."

WASHINGTON MONUMENT.

THE Board of Managers of the "Washington National Monument Society" invite DESIGNS for this structure intended as a memorial of a Nation's gratitude.—It would be to fetter genius to prescribe any limits to the exercise of its powers, which should, however, blend durability, simplicity and grandeur. Although it is impracticable at present to estimate the extent of the contributions that may be made, the designs may be predicated on an expenditure of not less than one million of dollars.

The Board of Managers will not offend American genius so much as to offer, in this instance, a pecuniary reward. The artist whose design shall be adopted will feel amply remunerated; and all the designs will be bound and carefully preserved; for which purpose it is requested that they may be sketched, as near as may be, on paper of a uniform size; of the dimensions of sixteen by twenty-two inches. The designs to be directed to GEORGE WATTERSON, Secretary.

The undersigned has received the following communication from the Commander and Administrator of the Island of Curacoa and its dependencies.

The Island of Bonaire, producing annually a large quantity of salt, and it being the wish of the Government to extend the trade of those Islands as much as practicable, it offers for that purpose to the merchants of the city, who wish to avail themselves thereof, a credit of three months on any quantity of salt with which they wish to load their vessels. Applications for that purpose can be made through the medium of the undersigned in this city, or direct to the Government at Curacoa, immediately after the receipt whereof, an answer will be given, direct to the Island of Bonaire, where the commandant will have received the necessary directions to deliver the requisite quantity of salt, and which, after the expiration of the term of credit, will have to be settled for in monies current in the island.

Given under my hand, in the city of New York, the 9th August, 1836. J. C. ZIMMERMAN, Consul of the Netherlands.

The cases of Joseph Draw for defrauding a number of banks, were determined in the Municipal Court of Boston, last week. The evidence fully proved the various iniquities of the prisoner, but his counsel, Henry H. Fuller, Esq., whilst admitting the moral turpitude of his client, denied that the criminal law reached him. It will be remembered, that Drew opened accounts in sundry banks, under different names, and drew his accounts for the purpose of eloping with the proceeds, but was detected by the sagacity of the teller in one of them. His counsel contended that it was the fault of the bank officers, who were guilty of a gross neglect of duty in not knowing the precise balance of the depositor, and that he was not bound to know the state of his bank accounts. These positions were controverted by the opposing counsel, Mr. Parker; for the overdrawings being made with fraudulent intent, were criminal. The prisoner was found guilty, and sentenced to seven years' imprisonment. He made an appeal, which has been allowed.

Gen. Talmadge has sent from France two sample papers, manufactured from corn husks, which may be seen at the office of the American Institute, Broadway, New York. It is said to cost one fourth less than paper of the same quality made from rags.

Mr. Storrs, an abolitionist, attempted to deliver a lecture at Exeter, N. H, on Wednesday evening last, in the Methodist Chapel, but was prevented by the assemblage of a mob, who broke the windows of the church, and then drove the congregation from the house, by discharging water upon them from an engine.—Boston Trans

THE CROPS.—In consequence of the unusual quantity of rain in the early part of the season, and the drouth in the latter, the crops both of cotton and corn will fall far short of the last year. And the effect of the wet weather has been more injurious in the prairie soil than in sandy land.—Cahawba Ala. Democrat.

PUBLIC LAND SALES.—The amount of sales of Public Lands according to an article in the Globe, has been as follows, during the last five years:

In 1832,	$3,115,376
In 1833,	4,973,324
In 1834,	6,099,981
In 1835,	15,810,795
And in the two first quarters of 1836, we are told, though not ascertained exactly, about	13,500,000

The National Intelligencer, with regard to the letter of the President, remarks: "We consider this document to be of an importance scarcely inferior to that of the Proclamation of Neutrality of the first President of the U. States in 1792, which prevented this then young nation from being ingulfed in the wars of the French Revolution."

CHILI.

From the Correspondent of the N. York Star, at VALPARAISO, April 15, 1836.

The schooner Yellet, of Baltimore, from Genoa, and last from Mazatlan, (Mexico) arrived on the 9th inst. fifty-six days from the latter place, with a full cargo of paper. Owing to a misunderstanding than existing between Mexico and the United States relative to the affairs of Texas, she did not offer her paper for sale, otherwise it would have paid well. She was discharged part here and proceeds down the coast again, to the Intermediac in a few days.

Sales for the week have been heavy. In bond, white wax 636 qql; flour 6 3-4 a 7, bag of 200 lbs; Sperm candles, 3 1-4 rs; Virginia tobacco, plug, 11 qql.

The demand in the market now is chiefly for Chili consumption.

☞ The following notice has been received at City Hall News Room, Boston:—

U. S. CONSULATE, Island St. Helena, 17th June, 1836.

To owners and masters of vessels.—Gentlemen—should an American vessel wish to be reported without anchorage at this port, I recommend she stand in off the anchorage about two miles, and communicate by showing her numbers agreeably to the code of signals compiled by J. R. Parker as a good look out will be kept on shore for that purpose. I take liberty to again repeat and make known that all letters, packets, parcels or other communications from or for the United States, or from or for the owners, masters supercargoes, officers or crews of American vessels, or other citizens of the United States, that the same will be with pleasure received and forwarded by me, with expedition, free of any charge or expense whatever.

W. H. CARROLL,

U. S. Consular Commercial Agent at St. Helena.

We learn that Telegraph Signal arrangements similar to the above are in operation by the American Consuls at Batavia, Cape of Good Hope, Gibraltar and Havana. Also by the keeper of Sandy Key Light House, at Key West, and in the ports of Charleston, Baltimore, New York, Portland and Boston. aug 19.

A FRIENDLY CARD.—R. C. Langdon, Esq., who has just established himself as the proprietor of an extensive Hotel at Lawrenceburg, Ind., has issued the following card:

To EDITORS OF NEWSPAPERS, &c.

One of your corps, it will be seen by the above notice, has caused his wonted vocation for a season, and assumed another: from an Editor he is metamorphosed into a Boniface. Instead of scratching for the mental pittances of old literary friends, he is about to cut and carve for the corporeal palates of new ones, in epicurean style. Should any of you chance to pass this way, no matter of what political creed, you shall be sure of a cordial reception and a hearty welcome, and free, and truly happy will he be to greet any of his former brethren of the tripod as are Respectfully, &c. R. C. LANGDON.

CORRECTING THE PRESS.—The Boston Courier says. Mr Hoyt, of the Tremont Theatre, feeling himself aggrieved by some remarks of the Morning Post, called on the editor, Mr Charles G. Greene, and behaved to him in so insolent a manner as to induce Mr Greene to kick him down stairs into the street. The noise of the mêlée attracted some notice from the neighbors, and the dismomfitted actor was, as he deserved to be, most terribly laughed at for his folly, besides being

SALES

WILL be sold at public auction, by the subscribing Parish Judge of the interior parts of Lafourche, on Monday the 3d of October, 1836, at 10 o'clock in the morning, at the Temple on Lake Barataria, at about fifteen miles from Bayou Lafourche, and near the mouth of bayou des Allemands or de la Ville, the property left by the late Antonio Dias, or formerly in community between him and Marie Feya, his surviving wife, to-wit:

1st. The said spot called the Temple, containing about 17 arpents front, with a number of buildings thereon:

N. B. The Temple is one of the finest sites in lower Louisiana; it is situated on Lake Barataria or Perrier's Bay, at a distance only of several hundred yards from the Barataria and Lafourche Canal; it is entirely composed of ridges and mounds of muscle shells, yielding good lime and an excellent substitute for paving pebbles. In the mounds have been frequently found curious Indian antiquities. The vine thrives there to perfection, and the orange plum and peach trees grow on the beach, with surprising luxuriance. The place would be a very eligible one for a Hotel or Villa, and procure to visitors, in its fullest extent, the sports of angling, seining, duck shooting, &c, and the pleasure of bathing, &c. &c.

2d. A certain tract of land, situate in the said parish, on the right bank of Bayou des Allemands, at about twelve miles from the Temple, and perhaps at nine miles in a straight line from Bayou Lafourche, which tract measures twelve arpents, or thereabout, in front, by forty arpents in depth.

3d. Another tract of land, known under the name of Vatherie Domé, situate on the left bank of bayou des Allemands, in the parish of St Charles, nearly opposite the tract last above described, distant about five leagues from the river Mississippi, and comprised between bayou Saut d'Ours, Lake Malist and bayou Domé, with a large stock of milch cows, other cattle and sheep.

4th. A tract of land measuring two arpents, more or less, front, by 40 arpents in depth, situate in the interior parish of Lafourche, on the right bank of bayou Lafourche, at about fourteen miles below Thibodeauxville.

5th. Another tract of land, measuring six arpents, more or less, front, by 40 arpents in depth, situate in the interior parish of Lafourche, on the left bank of bayou Lafourche, at about 21 miles below Thibodeauxville, and at a small distance above the intended junction of the Barataria Canal, with bayou Lafourche.

6th. A negro slave, who is an excellent hunter, boatsman and fisherman.

7th. A likely negro girl, about 17 years of age, a good house servant.

8th. About 30 fowling pieces, guns, muskets or rifles, together with pistols, shot, &c.

9th. About 20 boats, canoes, skiffs or hunting pirogues.

10th. A number of milch cows and other cattle of the Temple.

11th. Cast nets, tools, implements of husbandry, furniture, liquors, &c. &c.
