HOW EVE DO—Just drop'd in—beg pardon—I hope I don't intrude—but if it is not asking an impertinent question—I'll wait up to CRU. HOLLAND'S BENEFIT, at Placide's Varieties, on TUESDAY next, 5th Feb.

Twenty-five elapsed since I was first introduced to a New Orleans audience, which took place at the Camp street Theatre—by Mr. Holland—on Friday, 20th Jan., 1826. I shall never forget the flattering reception I met with then, and oft'time since, and hope "for auld long syne," I may again receive your kind indulgence on my re-appearance for the above occasion. PAUL PRY.

THE proprietor would most respectfully inform his friends and the public, that the above place did not suffer the least damage from the late freshet, and tastefully fitted up, will be opened for the season, on SATURDAY, the 28th inst., with a

and that he will use his utmost to give a regularly handsome every Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday.

The orchestra will be composed of the best artists now in the city, and nothing has been neglected calculated to render the room one of the most agreeable places of amusement in the city. An excellent police is engaged, and strict order will be enforced.

SALVATOR VIOSCA, Proprietor.

WHITLOCK, Manager.

N. B. Attached to the establishment is a superior Bar, well stocked with choice Wines and Liquors; also, a Restaurant, where may be had, at all times, such delicacies as the market affords. 0187

Whitehall, No. 44 St. Louis street.

NEW OYSTER HOUSE, &c.—The undersigned will open, on Saturday, 1st December, in St. Louis st., opposite the Exchange, an establishment, the want of which has long been felt in the First Municipality. A Saloon has been fitted up comprehending at once the comfort and luxuries of a coffee room and oyster house. In our arrangements for the gratification of the taste of the public, we have spared no expense, and exercised no measure which will tend to give to our establishment a marked superiority over all others of the same kind in New Orleans. A man of long experience and skill has been engaged to purchase the best oysters that can be had, and the liquors will always be of the finest quality.

The strictest decorum will be maintained at all times throughout all parts of the establishment, and we shall strive to render it the place of agreeable resort during the winter months.

A magnificent billiard room is fitted up for those who delight in that elegant exercise.

The saloon will be richly decorated and splendidly lighted. Artists of the first merit are employed to give to it an appearance of beautiful simplicity which cannot fail to please the eye of taste.

The waiters will be polite and prompt.

A first rate Cook is employed, nowhere excelled for skill in his profession.

Most respectfully we solicit the public patronage for this new and useful enterprise, and we assure our friends and fellow citizens that no sacrifice will be avoided that may contribute to the pleasure and enjoyment of those who may honor us with their visits. S. VIOSCA & CO.
