Professor A. C. Barry's

TRICOPHEROUS, OR MEDICATED COMPOUND, FOR RESTORING, PRESERVING, AND BEAUTIFYING THE HAIR, eradicating scurf and dandruff, and curing diseases of the skin, glands and muscles, cuts, bruises, sprains, &c. &c. It has been ascertained by experiment that Barry's Tricopherous has produced the same effect in curing diseases of the skin, &c., of the horse and all the animal kingdom. The following testimonials, selected from hundreds of similar import, will serve to show the value of the preparation, and the estimation in which it is held by those who have given it a trial:

New York, Sept. 22, 1850.

PROF. BARRY—Dear Sir—I have been afflicted within cutaneous eruption of the scalp, of a most aggravated character, for the last eleven years, and during that period have had the advice of some of the most eminent physicians, and have tried all the preparations for the hair and skin now known, without the least benefit. I was advised by a friend to try your Tricopherous. I did so, and to my surprise and gratification, found myself cured in about two months. Such was the violence of the disorder that at times I was partially blind.

Respectfully yours,
G. V. M. BAPELYE,
140 Columbia street, Brooklyn.

New York, Oct. 23, 1850.

PROF. BARRY—My Dear Sir—About two years ago my hair came out a great deal, and my head was much affected with dandruff. I was told by a friend to try your Tricopherous, and I did so, and to my astonishment my hair was firmly rooted, and all the dandruff disappeared, as the head now shows for itself. With respect, I am your obt servant,
J. S. TREDWELL, 163 Broadway.

If any lady or gentleman doubts the authenticity of the above, they will please call at Professor A. C. Barry's Office, No. 137 Broadway, New York, where he will produce the original letters.

[From the Military and Naval Argus, Nov. 9, 1850.]

There is no remedy for the permanent cure of baldness and diseases of the cranium generally, that has reached the popularity enjoyed by the article known as Professor Barry's Tricopherous, or Medicated Compound. It is extensively used by the upper classes of the community; in almost every nursery in the land it is used in preference to other articles of the kind. It imparts vigor to the roots of the hair, and thus promotes its growth to a remarkable degree. It destroys the dandruff and scurf, and yields the hair fine and glossy. It will cure all diseases of the scalp, such as scald head, new worm, and other obnoxious disorders of the skin; in cheapness as well as efficacy, it stands unrivalled. It is sold in large bottles, price 25 cents, at No. 137, Broadway, and at the Druggists generally throughout the United States and Canadas. je19 3m

ERASTUS EVEARTT, A.M. Principal & Proprietor.

THE various branches of knowledge are taught by Mr. Everett and three Assistant Professors, selected with a view to good character and skill and experience in teaching.

The system of Education embraces the Grammar and Literature of the Greek, Latin, English, French and Spanish Languages, History, Geography, Rhetoric, Versification, Logic, Political Economy, Moral Philosophy, Book keeping, Arithmetic, Algebra, Geometry, Trigonometry, Natural Philosophy, & Chemistry.

No pains are spared in imparting a thorough knowledge of these branches, so that all students who resort to this Institution may be fitted to enter with advantage upon the duties of the more responsible avocations of life, or upon the study of the learned professions.

As the Modern Languages, (particularly the English and the French, and the higher Mathematics) receive very special attention, the school offers superior advantages to boys designed for mercantile pursuits.

☞ For particulars see the prospectus, which may be found at Mr. Steel's Book store, 14 Camp street, at Mr. Lettevre's, Royal street, or at the school, 37 and 38 Esplanade street.

ST. LOUIS INSTITUTION.

DIRECTED BY MADAME DEROM.

BOARDING AND DAY SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES.

(Years 1850—51.)

No. 145 St. Louis st., between Dauphine & Burgundy.

THIS Institution, founded nearly twelve years ago, combines every material, moral, and intellectual advantage. Madame Derom, formerly a pupil and governess in the "Institut de la Legion d'Honneur," Maison St. Denis, has founded her Seminary, as much as possible, on the model of that great establishment, as well as on the plan of the first Northern Academies.

The situation of St. Louis' Institution is one of the most agreeable and salubrious in town. The whole locality, including dormitories, class and study rooms, play grounds, is spacious. Extensive and airy and overlooking several gardens, it is in a healthy position, and, in a good judgment for its perfect management...

The plan of instruction both in French and English embraces all the literary and scientific branches of a finished education.

The study of English is the object of particular attention. Madame Derom is scrupulously careful that the young Ladies should devote more time to the study of the English language and literature than to any other branch. ... a professor well known in New Orleans, continues his course of lessons every day. Two English governesses residing in the establishment, preside over the elementary classes, and contribute to the progress of the pupils by the constant use of that language in all the relations of ordinary life.

With respect to the study of French, besides the lessons of able professors and governesses, ... Madame Derom herself ... superintends ... branches, and are thus enabled by their personal efforts to secure the solidity and rapidity of the progress of their pupils.

The department of Music, including the piano, harp and singing, is under the direction of Madame Lavillebeuvre, an excellent music mistress, who formerly gave lessons in St. Louis' Institution, and who is now especially attached to the establishment. This young and talented lady so justly classed at the head of the artistic celebrities of Louisiana, enters into the study of Music in Madame Derom's Academy a marked superiority. No musical can better estimate its precepts, and this is often the secret of a scholar's advancement. A musical séance taking place every month is intended to ... and brilliant progress of Madame Lavillebeuvre's pupils.

Religious and moral instruction, which is the basis of every really good education, has received greater development than in any other Boarding School in the city. Madame Derom herself superintends the religious exercises of the Catholic pupils, and M. l'Abbé Pimbonnet prepares them for their first communion, and completes the work by giving religious instruction several times every week in the Chapel of St. Louis' Institution. a1
