THE ROB BOYVEAU LAFFECTEUR, prepared with the greatest care, is vastly superior to all the depurative Syrups of Larrey, or Cuisinier, or Sarsaparilla, Saponaria, etc. It has superseded the Cod-Liver Oil, Anti-Scorbutic Syrup, Essences of Sarsaparilla, as well as every preparation in which Iodine, gold or mercury are used. THE ROB BOYVEAU LAFFECTEUR is also prescribed in the treatment of AFFECTIONS OF THE NERVOUS AND FIBROUS SYSTEMS, such as GOUT, SORES, MARASMUS, RHEUMATISM, HYPOCONDRIA, PARALYSIS, STERILITY, EMACIATION, etc. The Rob Laffecteur is especially fit for the radical cure, and that in a short time, of ACRIMONIOUS WHITES, of old and CONTAGIOUS GLEETS, as well as SYPHILITIC DISEASES, either primitive or secondary, and such as have resisted all other curative remedies. The Rob, concentrated to 38 degrees, can be kept for an indefinite length of time and used in every season. MEDICAL.

SANDS' SARSAPARILLA
IN QUART BOTTLES.
For Purifying the Blood, and for the Cure of Scrofula, Rheumatism, Stubborn Ulcers, Dyspepsia, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Erysipelas, Pimples, Biles, Mercurial Diseases, Cutaneous Eruptions, Liver Complaint, Bronchitis, Consumption, Female Complaints, Loss of Appetite, General Debility, &c.

The value of this Medicine is now widely known and every day the field of its usefulness is extended. It is approved, and highly recommended by Physicians, and admitted to be the most powerful and searching preparation from the root, that has ever been employed in medical practice. Its operation extends to the remotest parts of the system, and communicates its renovating influence to the absorbing and secreting organs. In man, Nature seldom effects, unassisted, the cure of any virulent diseases, but requires the aid of a stimulant, alterative, or antiseptic medicine. In diseases of the skin and flesh, a combination of these three classes of medicinal agents is highly desirable. All these properties are combined in this preparation; and instead of operating successively upon the system, as they must necessarily do when taken separately, they operate simultaneously, and in perfect harmony when administered in this form. Its tonic property strengthens the digestion, and improves the appetite. Its alterative tendency carries off the accumulations of morbid matter—and its antiseptic influence neutralizes the virus, by which the disease is fostered. Its uniform success in curing and relieving the various diseases for which it is recommended, is established by a multitude of attested facts.

From a Physician in Maryland.

CAMBRIDGE, Md., Oct. 5th, 1850.

Messrs. Sands: Gentlemen—My little daughter was afflicted for a long time with sore head and eyes, and by using your Sarsaparilla was perfectly cured, other medicines and sarsaparillas having failed to relieve her. Having used it and tested its efficacy, I confidently recommend it in preference to any other, as it seems to possess properties not contained in any other preparation; and I find that purchasers, after they have used it, invariably want the same article again, whenever they require a medicine for which this is recommended.

Respectfully yours, J FLINT, M. D.

Mr. and Madame BOURSIER are glad to have this opportunity of expressing to the parents of their numerous pupils the gratitude they feel for the liberal patronage extended to them.

The assistance of enlightened, conscientious and skilful Teachers will give a vigorous impulse to the studies, and parents may depend upon their being conducted with these intellectual and practical methods approved by experience, and sanctioned by religious and solid doctrines, which must always be the basis of sound education.

Mr. and Madame BOURSIER will not say anything in praise of their system of education, but the brilliant results obtained in a short time, have so increased their numbers, which is the most flattering test of popular opinion.

There will be exercises in Music and Elocution every quarter, viz: the first Monday in July, October and January, and a general examination, on the distribution of prizes, will take place on the first Monday of April, the end of the scholastic year.

Mr. and Madame BOURSIER have incurred great expense to found a durable and suitable establishment; therefore, parents and children are invited to pay a visit at its opening on Monday, the 12th of next month.

The prospectus, giving the course of instructions, can be obtained at the institution, or at every Stationer's store in the city.

N. B.—Parents residing out of the town will find comfortable rooms at Mr. and Madame BOURSIER'S, during their stay in New Orleans. jel7

COLLEGE.
St. Ann Street, facing the Place d'Armes, Old "Congo" Square, under the direction of MR. JEOOU,
Master of Arts and Mathematical Sciences.

Encouraged by the kindness and patronage of several families of standing, I have determined to open a College, securing to parents for their children the same advantages as those offered by Colleges in New Orleans, where a thorough education is founded. For the purpose of observing the object for which this College is founded, I have secured the co-operation of the most competent Professors, who will superintend the course of instruction; and the Professors are all natives of France and acquainted with both languages. A good education should comprise the training of the heart as well as that of the mind; the Professors will, therefore, take a proper regard for both in their teachings, and care will be the constant object of their labors.

Religion, the most essential part of education, will receive from them and myself, special attention.

The College, fronting the Public Square, (old "Congo" Square) possesses all the advantages of a healthy location and large yards for recreation.

With a view to foster the emulation of the students, the first day of each month will be devoted to a Literary Soiree, at which recitations in the presence of the parents will take place, and the distribution of crosses and merit for the class, so much as possible children of the same age, a Primary School is attached to the College, in a separate portion of the establishment.

G. BOYER'S INSTITUTION.
No. 148 Conde Street, between Dauphine and Burgundy.

MR. G. BOYER, founder of this establishment, the oldest in New Orleans, avails himself of this opportunity to make a new appeal to the confidence of parents. This institution is conducted in a large mansion, occupying a fine central position, being well ventilated, and in other respects perfectly salubrious. The range of studies which engage the attention of the pupils, extend over all the branches of learning, which are necessary to a useful, polite and finished education; from primary instruction, to the most abstruse subjects which are especially the province of a collegiate course. The elementary studies are attended to with more than ordinary care, considering the decisive influence which they exercise over the other branches of instruction. Discipline, which must not be separated from assiduous study, nor from a good education, is conducted with solicitude. It is calculated according to the age and character of the students, and intended to give them an accurate idea of duty and good behavior.

ST. LOUIS INSTITUTE.
CONDUCTED BY
Madame Deron.
Day and Boarding School for Young Ladies.
No. 313 Dauphin and 155 Hospital Street.

THE constantly increasing number of the pupils of the St. Louis Institute, has induced the conductress to purchase more spacious premises.

Mrs. Deron, in removing from St. Louis street to the fine and large buildings in Dauphin street, occupied lately by the Louisiana College, has selected a MORE SUITABLE site for a young ladies' Academy.

The play ground is planted with trees, and will be devoted exclusively to the pupils, the entrance being in Hospital street.

Mrs. Deron tenders her heartfelt thanks to the families who have honored her with their patronage and feels happy in being able to increase the comforts of their children.

The general educational departments, (the French and English languages) are, as heretofore, under the direction of most competent Professors, who feel the deepest interest in the success of the St. Louis Institute.

With respect to the moral and religious part of education, good deportment and pleasing manners, nothing shall be wanting on the part of Mrs. Deron and the ladies who assist her.

The Musical Department, (the Piano, Harp, Solfeggio and Singing,) is, as heretofore, under the direction of Mrs. Lavillebeuvre and Mr. Brocard, assisted by Professors well known for their ability in that branch of the education of young ladies.

Monthly musical examinations will take place in order to increase the emulation of the pupils and ascertain their progress.

For further particulars, see prospectus, which can be had at the institute and principal book-stores.

N. B.—An omnibus is attached to the Institute for the special purpose of conveying and taking back the pupils who reside in the First District. nov1
