Embalming the Dead.

P. CASANAVE,

UNDERTAKER,

No. 3, Marais street, between Customhouse and Bienville, (Second District.)

Having purchased from Dr. Holmes, of New York, the right of EMBALMING THE DEAD by his celebrated process not only in the city of New Orleans and its environs, but also on the other side of the lake, informs the public that orders will be attended to at all hours, by day or by night. He avails himself of this opportunity to assure the public that the bodies are not opened, nor in any manner whatever mutilated, but remain in their natural state.

He has had a large tomb erected in Cemetery No. Two Bienville street, similar to those in Greenwood Cemetery, New York, and which is destined to receive temporarily embalmed bodies previous to their being taken for interment in other countries. The bodies may be embalmed within eight or ten days after death. Relatives and friends of the deceased will be admitted to the inspection of the bodies at all time. mar25 1y

At the corner of Bayou and Claiborne streets.

THIS SEMINARY, whose existence dates some six years back, has met with a success that proves, beyond all cavil, the capacity of those who have charge of it.

Determined to merit the confidence of parents, Mad. Charpaux will spare no pains to make her seminary equal to the best institutions of the kind in New Orleans, and in order to do this, she has employed the ablest teachers.

Madam Charpaux has purchased a large and airy edifice on one of the highest pieces of ground in the city and the better to consult the health of her pupils she has had spacious and elevated apartments built on purpose for school and sleeping rooms, through which there will be a constant circulation of air from many windows.

Great attention will be paid to the improvement of scholars in the English language. For this purpose, American ladies of acknowledged capacity, as teachers, will constantly reside in the Seminary.

The English, French and Spanish languages, geography, arithmetic, and in short all the branches of a polite education, will be taught in the Seminary.

As religion should be the foundation of all sound education, it will be carefully attended to by Madam Charpaux, who will conduct to church and preliminary catechisms all her young ladies who may have their first communion to make.

Music having become a most desirable branch of the education of young ladies, Mr. Charpaux, from the best musical school in Paris, and ex artist of the Orleans Theatre, will devote all his time to teaching music. All the Scholars, besides their regular lessons, will practice daily under the eyes of the professor. The study of the notes will precede the performances, when Mr. Charpaux will put the pupils through the execution of the regular keys and notes, and this will be attended with no extra charge.

In order to kindle emulation among the pupils, and improve their singing, on the morning of the last Saturday in every month there will be a musical examination and a distribution of rewards.

Madam Charpaux, in order to complete the education of her scholars, has opened a class where will be taught all the useful and ornamental branches of needle work.

During the summer the classes will open at 8 o'clock, and close at 3. Re open at 4 and close at 6 o'clock, P. M. In winter, they will open at 8½, and close at 3. Re-open at 4½ and close at 5 o'clock, P. M.

JUDICIAL SALES.

Tufts Hobart et al. vs. Thos. J. Casey, for a forced surrender.

FOURTH DISTRICT COURT OF NEW ORLEANS—No. 12,893.—By virtue of and in obedience to an order of sale rendered July 28th, 1858, and to me directed by the Honorable the Fourth District Court of New Orleans, in the above entitled matter, I will proceed to sell at public auction, at the City Hotel, Common street, between Camp and Magazine streets, on MONDAY, October 4th, 1858, at 12 o'clock, M.

All the INTEREST of said insolvent T. J. Casey, in the unexpired term of the lease of a certain [illegible] ground situate in the parish of Orleans, on the right bank of the river, comprising seventy four feet of the batture in front of the plantation formerly known as the "Verret Plantation," said seventy four feet starting from the east side of Thayer street and running down to the property leased to the Brooklyn Company, and also the interest of said lessee in all improvements erected by him on the said property, known as the Zinc Warehouse. This lease will expire on the 30th of April, 1860, and was made in consideration of a yearly rent of $272, payable quarterly, on the 1st of April, July, October and January of each year, subject to the right of the lessee to remove the building and improvements erected by him, if the lessor shall not elect to pay the actual value thereof at the expiration of the lease, and to other conditions as set forth in the act of lease passed between F. Verret and T. J. Casey, on the 9th December, 1854, before A. Ducatel, notary public.

Terms—The being the account and last auction, the above described property will be definitively adjudicated to the highest and last bidder for what ever it will bring, at 12 months' credit. 1st. The purchaser to assume the payment of the current rent accruing from and after the day of adjudication, and also, a mortgage debt of $560, due on the 14th January 1859 and of $[illegible] due on the 14th January 1860 [illegible] the balance of the price of adjudication [illegible] good and solvent security and special mortgage on the property until final payment. Said purchaser shall have to deduct and pay in cash the sum of $100, for [illegible]
