Embalming the Dead

P. CASANAVE,
UNDERTAKER
No. 3: Marais street, between Customhouse and Bienville, (Second District)

HAVING purchased from Dr. Holzne, of New York, the right of EMBALMING THE DEAD by his celebrated process, not only in the city of New Orleans and its environs, but also on the other side of the lake, informs the public that orders will be attended to at all hours, by day or by night. He avails himself of this opportunity to assure the public that the bodies are not opened, nor in any manner whatever mutilated, but remain in their natural state.

He has had a large tomb erected in Cemetery No. Two, Bienville street, similar to those in Greenwood Cemetery, New York, and which is destined to preserve temporarily corpses from motive purposes by their being taken for interment in other countries. The bodies may be embalmed within eight or ten days after death. Relatives and friends of the deceased will be admitted to the inspection of the bodies at all times. mar26 1y
