DAY AND BOARDING SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES,

UNDER THE DIRECTION OF

MADAM CHARPAUX,

At the corner of Bayou and Claiborne streets.

THIS SEMINARY, whose existence dates some six years back, has met with a success that proves, beyond all cavil, the capacity of those who have charge of it.

Determined to merit the confidence of parents, Mad; Charpaux will spare no pains to make her seminary equal to the best institutions of the kind in New Orleans, and in order to do this, she has employed the ablest teachers.

Madam Charpaux has purchased a large and airy edifice on one of the highest pieces of ground in the city and the better to consult the health of her pupils she has had spacious and elevated apartments built on purpose for school and sleeping rooms, through which there will be a constant circulation of air from many windows.

Great attention will be paid to the improvement of scholars in the English language. For this purpose, American ladies of acknowledged capacity, as teachers, will constantly reside in the Seminary.

The English, French and Spanish languages, geography, arithmetic, and in short all the branches of a polite education, will be taught in the Seminary.

As religion should be the foundation of all sound education, it will be carefully attended to by Madam Charpaux, who will conduct to church and preliminary catechisms all her young ladies who may have their first communion to make.

Music having become a most desirable branch of the education of young ladies, Mr. Charpaux, from the best musical school in Paris, and ex-artist of the Orleans Theatre, will devote all his time to teaching music. All the Scholars, besides their regular lessons, will practice daily under the eyes of the professor. The study of the notes will precede the performances, when Mr. Charpaux will put the pupils through the execution of the regular keys and notes, and this will be attended with no extra charge.

In order to kindle emulation among the pupils, and improve their singing, on the morning of the last Saturday in every month there will be a musical examination and a distribution of rewards.

Madam Charpaux, in order to complete the education of her scholars, has opened a class where will be taught all the useful and ornamental branches of needle-work.

During the summer the classes will open at 8 o'clock, and close at 3. Re-open at 4 and close at 6 o'clock, P. M. In winter, they will open at 8½, and close at 3. Re-open at 4½ and close at 5 o'clock, P. M.

MME. PARENT'S INSTITUTION,

Corner Royal and Hospital streets.

DAY AND BOARDING SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES.

THIS establishment has been removed to corner Royal and Hospital streets. The building is vast, well ventilated and well distributed for class rooms, dormitories, &c. Madame Parent avails herself of this opportunity to thank the numerous families who have so largely patronized her institution, and would assure them that their daughters will receive the same attention as heretofore. The long known reputation of her institution is the best guarantee to that effect. The course of study embraces the same branches, and the same Professors are still employed as are in the first class institutions in the North and in Europe. Music, instrumental and vocal, including Solfege, is taught by the most eminent Professors, also Drawing and Painting; Dancing by Professor Vegas.

MADAME PARENT will remove her institution across the Lake during the summer months, but will keep the school open in the city throughout the year. Finally, there will be nothing wanting to complete a literary as well as refined education; also to unite in the boarders of this institution, those pure morality which must be the fundamental basis of all future combinations that easy elegance of manner so necessary for young persons. For further information address Madame Parent, Mandeville, until 15th OCTOBER; afterwards in the city at her institution, where prospectuses can be obtained. oct4
