L. U. GAIENNIE, will be supported at the next election for the office of MAYOR, by the independent voters of the three Municipalities.

PUBLIC MEETING.

Agreeably to notice given in two of the city papers, the Southerner and Bee, a very large meeting of the citizens took place yesterday evening at the New Exchange, to express their sentiments in relation to the veto of Governor White.

The meeting was called to order, and Mr J. B. Plaiche appointed president, Messrs W. F. C. Duplessis, Birch Freyze, J. W. Breedlove, Vice Presidents, and Messrs Tis. J. Durant, C. Bayon and Jos. Genois, Secretaries.

The objects of the meeting being explained by the president, Mr J. C. Larue addressed the assembly, and was received. The speech explained the abuses of the banking system and the necessity of proper measures to remedy them. He then analyzed the Governor's Message, exposed the errors that distinguished it, and recalled some of the positions assumed by the executive.

Mr Larue was followed by Mr Ratliff, a member of the House of Representatives, who developed somewhat in detail, the weakness of the arguments employed by the governor, and defended with great warmth the provisions of the bills, which the executive had singled out for attack. Mr Ratliff was listened to with enthusiasm, and his observations were received as the true expression of the sentiments of the meeting.

On motion, a committee was appointed to draft resolutions indicative of the views of the assembly — The members composing the committee withdrew for a short time, and returned with the following resolutions which, in fine, UNANIMOUSLY adopted:

Whereas, in his Message of the 19th December, 1837, at the opening of the present session of the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, Governor Edward D. White, has thought fit to recommend to the Representatives of the people, a system of paper money, equally into the hands of the Banks of this state, "to search out and eradicate abuses, to remedy defects, and obviate, if possible, the recurrence of similar evils" to those which did then and do still afflict the community by suspending wholesome regulations to the charter of the public interest; and

Whereas, after a strict and impartial scrutiny, after mature deliberation and prolonged discussion, the Senate and House of Representatives of the state of Louisiana, did in conformity with these recommendations, pass a bill, which while it extended the most liberal favors to the banks, and in some small degree tend to secure for the public the benefits of the people, and hold out the prospect of an ultimate restoration of the credit of the state; and

Whereas, Edward D. White, Governor of the State of Louisiana, did, on the 1st day of March, in defiance of the known wishes of the representatives of the people of this state, impose his veto upon said bill, in a message, which, while it urged pretended constitutional objections to the bill, betrayed the most culpable and wicked ignorance of that instrument, and professed democratic principles, defended a system of monopolies, which lies prostrate the spirit of Democracy, than unknown to our constitution and unprecedented by our laws; therefore,

1. Resolved, That the conduct of Edward D. White, on this occasion, merits the decided disapprobation of the members of this meeting and of the whole people of Louisiana; and that the little confidence we once entertained in his ability and political integrity is now entirely lost.

2. Resolved, That in charging the members of the General Assembly with the spirit of Aristocracy, and a desire to plunder the banks, merely because they wished to extend to the remote parts of Louisiana such advantages as may be derived from banking corporations, and to place the Planter on an equal footing, in regard to loans and discounts, with the inhabitants of the cities, he has uttered an insult to the people, which they will know how to resent.

3. Resolved, That we have undiminished confidence in the integrity and patriotic zeal of the majority of the members of the General Assembly, and return our sincere thanks to the distinguished Senator who, at the last session, so ably defended it in every stage of its passage.

4. Resolved, That we concur in the expression of those principles which Gov. White announced in his message of the 19th Dec. last, but which he has now deserted—that the jurisdiction of the legislature over the banks resides in the control inherent in the supreme power of a state, over institutions deriving their existence and their powers from the sovereign state will, and that we denounce as anti-republican and hostile to the march of human improvement, the doctrine contained in the Veto message, that bank charters are contracts between the people and the stockholders, which no subsequent legislation can rightfully change.

5. Resolved, That we further concur with the sentiments of the message of 1837 Dec. last that "institutions created by law and enjoying exclusive privileges under the act of their creation, can only exist by complying with the conditions on which their privileges were extended" and that Gov. White, in vetoing the bill which abridged the banks from the consequences of their compliance with those conditions, has left them unprotected in the action of existing laws.

6. Resolved, That in calling in question the liability of the state for the payment of its bonds issued in favor of the banks, and in the faith of which foreign capital has been advanced, Gov. White has struck a blow at the character and credit of Louisiana, from which we fear it will require years to her to recover.

7. Resolved, That Gov. White in stating that the bank bill makes a legal tender among the banks, exposed notice, for whose issue it provides, and thereby vacates the constitution of the United States, is not borne out in his assertion by the bill—since, according to the clear intent of the bill, those banks alone are to be liable to be receiving its provisions, are bound to receive the post notes.

8. Resolved, That in justifying the suspension of specie payments on the ground of expediency, Gov. White has advanced principles which if carried out would destroy the well being of society, banish honesty from the world, and establish individual rapidity as the guardian of the common weal.

9. Resolved, That this meeting recognize no measures to be expedient, which subvert the fixed principles of morality, and outrage the natural sense of justice in the human mind.

The chairman of the meeting were returned to the president and officers, and the resolutions were ordered to be published in the Democratic papers, after which the meeting adjourned.

☞ The following comments on an article in the Louisiana Advertiser, were written for publication on Saturday, but were necessarily omitted on account of the press of matter.

We are surprised, when we perused the article on abolition and a National Bank, the unmitigated wrath of those journals, who being pledged to the advancement of their party, must needs support a cause whatever extremes or unpleasant dilemmas their advocacy may lead them. Is doubtless suits the views of the Louisiana Advertiser utterly to deny the all-god union between the whigs of the North and the supporters of Abolition. Faithful to his vocation, he is the strenuous apologist of his party, and will persist in discrediting the existence of the factor united to, though the evidence be as strong as any by which truth is demonstrated. There is wilful contumacy in the intellect of that individual who is blind to testimony of so damning a character as that adduced in our article of Wednesday last. The effort to arrest the progress of information and unprejudiced by our laws, therefore,

1. Resolved, That the conduct of Edward D. White, on this occasion, merits the decided disapprobation of the members of this meeting and of the whole people of Louisiana; and that the little confidence we once entertained in his ability and political integrity is now entirely lost.

2. Resolved, That in charging the members of the General Assembly with the spirit of Aristocracy, and a desire to plunder the banks, merely because they wished to extend to the remote parts of Louisiana such advantages as may be derived from banking corporations, and to place the Planter on an equal footing, in regard to loans and discounts, with the inhabitants of the cities, he has uttered an insult to the people, which they will know how to resent.

3. Resolved, That we have undiminished confidence in the integrity and patriotic zeal of the majority of the members of the General Assembly, and return our sincere thanks to the distinguished Senator who, at the last session, so ably defended it in every stage of its passage.

4. Resolved, That we concur in the expression of those principles which Gov. White announced in his message of the 19th Dec. last, but which he has now deserted—that the jurisdiction of the legislature over the banks resides in the control inherent in the supreme power of a state, over institutions deriving their existence and their powers from the sovereign state will, and that we denounce as anti-republican and hostile to the march of human improvement, the doctrine contained in the Veto message, that bank charters are contracts between the people and the stockholders, which no subsequent legislation can rightfully change.

5. Resolved, That we further concur with the sentiments of the message of 1837 Dec. last that "institutions created by law and enjoying exclusive privileges under the act of their creation, can only exist by complying with the conditions on which their privileges were extended" and that Gov. White, in vetoing the bill which abridged the banks from the consequences of their compliance with those conditions, has left them unprotected in the action of existing laws.

6. Resolved, That in calling in question the liability of the state for the payment of its bonds issued in favor of the banks, and in the faith of which foreign capital has been advanced, Gov. White has struck a blow at the character and credit of Louisiana, from which we fear it will require years to her to recover.

7. Resolved, That Gov. White in stating that the bank bill makes a legal tender among the banks, exposed notice, for whose issue it provides, and thereby vacates the constitution of the United States, is not borne out in his assertion by the facts—since, according to the clear intent of the bill, those banks alone are to be liable to receiving its provisions, are bound to receive the post notes.

8. Resolved, That in justifying the suspension of specie payments on the ground of expediency, Gov. White has advanced principles which if carried out would destroy the well being of society, banish honesty from the world, and establish individual rapidity as the guardian of the common weal.

9. Resolved, That this meeting recognize no measures to be expedient, which subvert the fixed principles of morality, and outrage the natural sense of justice in the human mind.
