BOARDING AND DAY SCHOOL

FOR YOUNG LADIES,

Under the Supervision of Madame Ed. LOCQUET,

No. 202 Camp Street,

BETWEEN JULIA AND ST. JOSEPH STREETS.

THIS establishment, founded by Dr. and Mrs. Mesnard, whose high reputation has never been questioned, will commence its sixteenth session on the 15th of September.

Mme. ED. LOCQUET, assisted by her sister, Mme. FRANCOIS LOCQUET, with whom she has associated herself, will use her best endeavors to continue to merit the confidence reposed, for so many years, in her predecessors.

Professors of the highest talent are employed in all the branches, both useful and ornamental. Piano, Music, and the study of the Solfege, will be taught exclusively by the Mmes. Locquet, whose reputation as professors of music has been so well appreciated by the numerous families who have favored them with their confidence.

The French language, the native tongue of these ladies, and the complement of which is now indispensable to a good education, is taught with the utmost care, and is spoken in the Institution. Young ladies will therefore find in their constant intercourse with these teachers every facility possible for perfecting themselves in this language.

This establishment is commodious and well ventilated, and has recently been entirely renovated, with the utmost regard to the comfort and health of the pupils.

Mme. LOCQUET respectfully invites parents and families to call and visit her school, where prospectuses, with all other information which may be desired, can be obtained.

Letters of inquiry will be promptly attended to by the Principal. my19 6m

DAY AND BOARDING SCHOOL

FOR YOUNG LADIES

Under the direction of

MRS. CHARPAUX,

At the corner of BAYOU and CLAIBORNE streets.

THIS Seminary, whose existence dates some twelve years back, has met with a success that proves, beyond all cavil, the capacity of those who have charge of it.

Determined to merit the confidence of parents, Mrs. Charpaux will spare no pains to make her Seminary equal to the best institutions of the kind in New Orleans, and in order to do this, she has employed the ablest teachers.

Madame Charpaux has purchased a large and airy edifice on one of the highest places of ground in the city; and the better to consult the health of her pupils, she has had spacious and elevated apartments built on purpose for school and sleeping rooms, through which there will be a constant circulation of air from many windows.

Great attention will be paid to the improvement of pupils in the French language. For this purpose, Madame Charpaux herself will give her undivided attention to this department of instruction.

The English and French languages, Geography, Arithmetic, and in short all the branches of a polite education, will be taught in the Seminary.

Music having become a most desirable branch of the education of young ladies, Mr. Charpaux, from the best musical school in Paris, and ex-artist of the Orleans Theatre, will devote all his time to teaching music.

Madame Charpaux, in order to complete the education of her scholars, has opened a class in which will be taught all the useful and ornamental branches of needlework.

Between Chartres and Royal streets,

HAS just received an assortment of Harmoniums and Mechanical Pianos, directly from the manufactory of A. Debain, Paris, supplier to all the European Courts, and sole inventor of the celebrated Mechanical Pianos, on which the most difficult pieces can be performed without a knowledge of music. These instruments are manufactured and improved expressly for exportation, and are acknowledged in Europe to be superior to all others.

Amateurs are invited to call and judge for themselves of the excellence of the above Pianos. Mr. F. attends personally to repairs and tuning, and the terms are therefore low.
