CONFERENCE OF COMMISSIONERS ON UNIFORM STATE LAWS

The twenty-seventh annual meeting of the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws will be held at Saratoga from August 29th to September 3d, just preceding the meeting of the American Bar Association and will be particularly important and interesting. Among the uniform laws to be considered will be those on: "Conditional Sales," "Fraudulent Conveyances," Flag Law," "Motor Vehicles," "Business Corporations," "Non-resident Corporations," "Occupational Diseases," and act preparing forms for the "Land Registration Act."

The commissioners from Louisiana are W. O. Hart, R. S. Thornton and I. D. Wall. All expect to attend and take part in the proceedings. Mr. Hart is a member of the executive committee and Mr. Thornton and Mr. Wall are members of important other Committees.

CITY AND STATE NEWS IN BRIEF

Work upon the buildings necessary for the National Army soon to be assembled is proceeding rapidly at Camp Beauregard, near Alexandria, La., and Camp Shelby, near Hattiesburg, Miss. At Camp Beauregard over 2,000 men are employed.

Thibodaux has organized a company of the Home Guard between 45 and 60.

Strong contrasts are found in the exemption board news. In West Feliciana parish every man summoned on the first call was of perfect physique and only one claimed exemption. In the Second district of St. Landry 98 per cent of all who passed the physical examination claimed exemption.

Judge Prentiss Carter has summoned the Mayor and commissioners of Covington to appear before him Oct. 7 and show cause why they should not be punished for contempt in violating an order of court.

Dr. Dowling in Shreveport Friday started a state-wide campaign against patent medicines.

T. L. Huber of New Orleans is president, J. J. A. Fortier secretary and treasurer and J. Herman McMahon of DeRidder vice-president of the Huber Motor Co., incorporated in Calcasieu, which will maintain offices in Lake Charles and DeRidder.

Baton Rouge, besides entertaining 500 boys and girls for the agricultural short course last week, also had a state meeting of farm demonstration agents.

The Shreveport exemption board turned down 68 claims for exemption.

John M. Parker has been tendered by Herbert Hoover, national food director, and has accepted the post of director of food for Louisiana. He left last night for Washington to confer with the national authorities before assuming his duties.

Mayor Behrman has named Messrs W. R. Irby, T. P. Thompson, C. A. Favrot, Felix J. Puig and Robert Glenk a committee to care for, beautify and perpetuate the historic Place d'Armes (Jackson Square). This will include oversight of the restoration of the old St. Louis cathedral, for which funds have been privately subscribed.

Mikele Sulli, a shoemaker, met his death at his home 824 Lowerline street at 12:30 Sunday morning. Sulli returned home from the neighborhood saloon about midnight intoxicated and quarrelsome, according to his wife. The latter says that he drew a razor and attempted to kill her and in the struggle for its possession which followed, the blade severed the jugular vein, killing him almost instantly. Mrs Sulli is under arrest.

The Fall Buyers' convention opened today and will continue throughout the week. Monday was largely occupied with registration. The first entertainment event was a luncheon by the Association of Commerce for members and delegates Tuesday at noon. There was an address of welcome by Chairman Fred O'Donnell of the entertainment committee and by I. B. Rennyson on the value of the work of the National Farm and Live Stock Show in agricultural development and bringing the country and city closer together. Tuesday night will be buyers' night at Spanish Fort, special trains leaving Canal and Baronne streets at 7:30 o'clock.

Engineer John Maher and Fireman H. Crust, both of Meridian, Miss., were killed Sunday morning when the inbound Northeastern train from Cincinnati left the rails between Seabrooke and Little Woods. The engine and tender turned over and three cars left the rails. Two mail clerks were slightly hurt, but no passenger was injured. It is presumed that the rails spread or that one rail was defective.

C. M. G. Greer, a special agent of the U. S. Tariff commission, is in New Orleans to investigate New Orleans' claim for selection, as a free port city, if this proposed law is passed. A committee of local commercial organizations met Mr. Greer at the Association of Commerce rooms Tuesday and made a presentation of the city's claims.

W. A. Givens, Jr., a merchant of Simsboro, was shot and fatally wounded from ambush while passing an old house Monday noon. Tim Sumlin was arrested.

The trial of Mrs. Carrie Reems, accused of the murder of Arthur Behan the night of July 4, at her apartments, St. Charles avenue and Erato streets, was begun before Judge Baker in Criminal District court Tuesday morning. Her attorneys claim self-defense.

Joseph Mayes, 17 years old, a telegraph messenger boy was run down by an automobile on St. Charles avenue Monday night and seriously injured. As usual, the accident was "unavoidable."

The fund for the Child Welfare association has reached a total of $7,368.40.

For failing to register, Andrew Wilson was sentenced by Judge Foster Monday to thirty days in jail at Convent.

The annual police picnic and festival, postponed on account of the tragic death of Supt. Reynolds, will be held at the fair grounds Wednesday, Sept. 12.

Jules A. Font, stock keeper for the Interstate Electric Co., suicided at his place of employment, early Monday morning. No reason can be given for the act. He lived at 8535 Green street.

Albert Manazzi was sentenced to thirty days imprisonment Monday for selling liquor to soldiers.

Mrs. Jennie Clizac, aged 74, who lived with her son at 1740 North Rampart, died at the Charity hospital early Sunday. She was crossing Esplanade at Liberty and becoming confused when an auto sounded its horn, fell in front of it. The driver claims the vehicle was stopped before it touched her. It is believed that death resulted from shock.
