A BEAUTIFUL HEAD OF HAIR is the grand ornament belonging to the human frame. How strangely the loss of this gives the countenance an opposite to bring on the premature age of age, which causes many to recall at the beginning of life, and some even to shun society to avoid the taunts and shrewd remarks of their acquaintance, the reminder of their lives are consequently spent in retirement. In also, to meet even the loss of property bills the renewed thinking youth with that heavy sinking gloom as does the head of his hair. To all those who are in these circumstances, OLDRIDGE'S BALM OF COLUMBIA stopping the hair from falling off the first application, and a few bottles restoring it again. It likewise produces eyebrows and whiskers, prevents the hair from turning grey, makes it curl beautifully, and frees it from scurf. The testimonial certificates of the first respectability in support of the virtues of Oldridge's Balm, are shown by the proprietors.

Mr. Ryan, of the following

The undersigned do hereby certify that we have used the Balm of Columbia discovered by J. O. Oridge, and have found it highly serviceable, not only as a preventive against the falling off of the hair, but as a certain restorative.

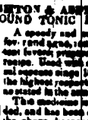
RUSHTON & ASHBALLY'S COMPOUND TONIC MIXTURE.



A speedy and permanent cure for the following complaints, namely, Constant and intermittent fevers, proceeding from the original cause. Bad with enlarged and indurated spleen, dropsy, &c. &c. The medicine is highly recommended, and has been extensively used in the above disease, with such decided success that the proprietor of the medicine has been induced to offer it to the public as no pleasant form in the hope that it may be the means of relieving many of those who are suffering under the scourge of the country. It is a medicine possessing great virtue, and when used according to the directions has never failed of effecting a cure, even in the most obstinate stage of the disorder. It is not at all disagreeable, and perhaps of the weakest stomach, and seldom may take it with impunity. It strengthens the digestive organs, creates an appetite and seldom requires more than one, or in obstinate cases, two bottles to effect a cure. There is a peculiar warranty any remedy in the medicine, nor any other imposed to be the medicinal ones.—The proprietors are so well convinced of its efficacy, that they agree to refund the price of every bottle which has been taken in accordance with the directions and has not effected a perfect cure of the fever.
