CODE OF PRACTICE OF LOUISIANA.

E JOHNS & CO. have now in press a new edition of the Louisiana Code of Practice, with references by Wheatcroft. Upon, Esq. of the New Orleans Bar.

The amendments which have been made from time to time by the legislature of the state, will be published in full under each article that has been acted upon.

References will be made to the French Code de Procédure, when that code may be supposed to throw light upon the text of the state code, and also to the provisions of the Louisiana Civil Code which the Code of Practice has annulled, and wherever the construction of the supreme court of our state has been given, reference will be made thereto under the article affected to.

The work will be printed upon similar paper and type as that used for the new edition of the Civil Code, both of which can acknowledged to be of superior quality, something to the occasion showed, and in all respects throughout neat and care will be given to the one book to the other.

The publishers will deal in their power to make their new edition equal in the improvement of the work, and to render it finished in all respects worthy of the patronage of the bar of the state.

It will be ready for delivery in all the month of January next, and subscription (at ten dollars per copy bound, three dollars payable in advance) will be received gratuitously at the store of the publishers.
