A BEAUTIFUL HEAD OF HAIR is the grandezzomment belonging to the human frame. How strangely the loss of it changes the countenance and how prematurely brings on the appearance of old age, which cause many thousand at least to be uncovered, and sometimes even to shun society to avoid the taits and sneers of their acquaintances; the remainder of their lives are consequently spent in retirement. In short, not even the loss of property tills the nervous thinking youth with that heavy sinking gloom as does the loss of his hair. To avert all these unpleasant circumstances, OLDRIDGE'S BALM OF COLUMBIA stops the hair from falling off on the first application and a few bottles restores it again. It likewise produces eyebrows and whiskers; prevents the hair from turning grey, makes it curl beautifully, and frees it from scurf. Numerous certificates of the first respectability in support of the virtues of Oldridge's Balm, are shown by the proprietors.

☞ Read the following:

ROBERT WHARTON, Esq. late Mayor of Philadelphia, has certified, as may be seen below, to the high character of the following gentlemen.

The undersigned do hereby certify that we have used the Balm of Columbia discovered by J. Oldridge, and have found it highly serviceable notwithstanding the total falling off of hair, but also a certain astringative.

WM. THATCHER, senior,
Methodist Minister in St. George charge,
No. 30 North Fifth st.
John P. Inglis, 321 Arch street.
John G. Thomas, M. D. 163 Race st.
John R. Varey, 101 Spruce st.
Hugh McCurdy, 212 South 2d st.
John Gard, Jr. 123 Arch st.

Thought, and those who present in wearing wigs, may not always experience the restorative qualities, yet it will certainly raise its votaries in the estimation of the public, when it is known that three of the above signers are more than 50 years of age, and the others not less than 30.

From the Mayor.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, } City of Philadelphia. }

I, ROBERT WHARTON, mayor of said city of Philadelphia, do hereby certify that I am well acquainted with Messrs. R. P. Inglis, John R. Varey, & Hugh McCurdy, whose names are signed to the above certificate, that they are gentlemen of character and respectability; and as such full credit should be given to the said certificate.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the city to be affixed, this 18th day of December, dc.

ROBERT WHARTON, Mayor.
