SCHOOLS.

MARION COLLEGE—The Faculty of this institution to whom the instruction and government of the College and Classes are assigned, are as follows, viz:

Rev. Wm. S. Potts, President, and Professor of Moral and Mental Philosophy, and Belles Lettres.

Rev. Hiram P. Goodrich, Vice President and Professor of Ancient Languages and Literature.

John Thompson, A. M., Professor of Mathematics and Natural Philosophy, and Lecturer on Chemistry.

James F. Heaslitt, Tutor.

As Civil Engineering has become a separate and distinct profession, and as the increasing improvements of the country require an increased number of Civil Engineers, a separate Professorship of that branch of education will be established in the College, as soon as circumstances will permit. For the present, instruction in Civil Engineering will be committed to Professor Thompson, who has been engaged for a number of years in the active duties of that profession.

The Preparatory School is under the direction of Rev. Hervey H. Hays, Principal, William T. Dickson, Assistant.

The expenses are, for tuition $20; room rent $5 per annum; board in the refectory $1 50 per week.—These bills are to be paid semi-annually in advance.—Fuel is two dollars per cord.

No students are received into any of the above classes under fourteen years of age. A certificate of good moral character is required; and those who come from other colleges must bring a certificate of dismission in good standing. A good common school education, qualifies for admission into the Preparatory School; and an examination on the studies pursued in the Preparatory School qualifies for admission to the Freshman Class in College.

Students who prefer defraying a part of their expenses by manual labor, are allowed to cultivate ten acres of College land each, nine of which may be Timothy meadow, by giving one-third of the crop to the Institution.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL.

From the experience of the want of good schools to prepare students for College, the Trustees have made arrangements for opening in the College buildings, a Grammar School, to be under the government and instruction of the Faculty, in which they propose offering superior advantages to young men fitting for College. This school was opened on the 23d August last, and is free from the manual labor regulations, and unrestricted as to age or profit.

The terms of the Grammar School are for entrance $5, tuition $10 per session of 21 weeks, board and room rent the same as in the college. Students under fourteen years of age must board and lodge with some family. Any number will be received into the family of the Steward, Mr. H. B. Dunn, and board, lodging, washing, fuel and light, with the use of a common room, for study out of school hours, furnished at $2 50 per week.
