DELIGHTFUL SUMMER QUARTERS.

Great Pontchartrain House.

THE undersigned has pleasure in announcing that he has taken the above celebrated favorite and hospitable resort, which will be opened for the accommodation of the public on 15th of May.

This spacious establishment, elegantly situated on Pancagoula bay, is peculiarly adapted for a fashionable summer resort, combining every requisite for health and amusement, has been judiciously fitted in a style calculated to give every sort of enjoyment to the coming summer. Fishing nets, tackle and skiffs have been procured for visitors to recreate themselves with upon the bay, and billiard tables, bowling alleys and other amusements provided with care. The hotel room, with its internal arrangements, will always be in readiness; and regular bales given throughout the season.

Mr. Chas. W. Edwards, well known to the citizens of New Orleans and Mobile, is engaged to superintend, and the lake steamboats will daily leave and touch at the wharf in their passages between these cities. Professed cooks of acknowledged superiority are attached to the hotel, and an unlimited supply of fish and oysters, 4-4 other like delicacies will be always on hand. The ice house now erecting will be kept constantly filled with this delightful luxury. The tables will be unsurpassed in excellence or variety, by that of any Hotel in city or watering-place, and the wines and liquors will be selected with great care by competent judges. For the healthy and luxurious enjoyment of bathing, no place on the lake can equal East Pearlington, as the water is softer and purer than at any other spot—and being determined to conduct the establishment in first rate style, the proprietor confidently looks forward to a liberal encouragement.

LAKE HOTEL.

(Situate at lake end of the new Shell road.)

This splendid establishment, having been completed and thoroughly furnished with every comfort and convenience, will be opened this day for the accommodation of customers.

The situation of the "Lake Hotel" is too well known to the public of New Orleans, as a pleasant and delightful retreat, to require any comment or description. The ride along the banks of the new canal is known to be the most agreeable that can be found in the vicinity of the city, either in carriages or on horseback.

Attached to the hotel are several fine stables, with good and faithful ostlers, for the accommodation of horses, &c.

The bar is well supplied with choice liquors, and there will always be on hand a full stock of the most superior wines, of all varieties. Gentlemen, therefore, wanting accommodations either in the eating or drinking line, can have every wish supplied at the shortest notice, as the proprietor intends keeping his establishment furnished with every variety of fish, and the best the market will afford.

Gentlemen wishing private dinners and suppers, are informed that they will at all times be attended to with the greatest punctuality.

Arrangements are being made to have the bathing houses soon completed, both for ladies and gentlemen. And it is the intention of the proprietor to spare no trouble to make his house the most desirable resort for the summer afternoons and evenings that can be found any where about New Orleans.

TO DR. MAGNIN, inventor of the "Lucina cordial, or Elixir of Love":

"Respected and honored sir:—We have all, in a variety of cases, tested the remarkable effect of your great discovery, and have assembled for the purpose of bearing evidence to the facts, and "tendering our hearts" honor which is your due. The "Lucina cordial" is, in our opinion, an infallible remedy for the prostration of the procreant functions, and artificial barrenness; and therefore most prove a blessing to the human race. We can also bear evidence that it is useful, being in it of a mercurial or deleterious nature; and, in short, 'that it is one of the noblest medical discoveries of any age.

"With feelings of admiration and respect, we remain, dear sir, your obedient servants,

JOSSELIN DOSSIT,
SIGISMOND DE LA MARTINE,
ADRIEN DECRAND,
OCTAVE NICOLS,
JEAN BLANC,
ROBERT STEVENSON
LOUIS OUISEAU,
PIERRE BUFFON."

"LE CORDIAL DE LUCINE," or, in English, "the Lucina cordial," is a general invigorator of the human frame; it will aid the various cases of languor, laziness, and debilitation, it is an unfailing remedy; as it is equally its province to impart cheerfulness and decision to the mind, as health and vigor to the body. But the peculiar virtue on which its celebrity is based, is the fertility and certainty with which it restores the virile powers, which may be lost, from injudicious indulgences, time, recklessness, or any of the numerous causes which terminate in the prostration of those functions.

In common with the generality of really good medicines, this cordial contains nothing of a mineral or deleterious nature; among the many ingredients which compose it, but is, at the same time, so simple, yet so efficacious, that while it can renovate the prostrated energies of a giant, an infant may use it, not only with impunity, but with advantage.

The secrecy of society are fortunately such, that, notwithstanding the benefits which would be sure to result from it, we cannot enter into an analysis of this inestimable cordial here, or publish many of the documents which have been received as vouchers of the benefits it has conferred on numbers of deserving individuals. But this we cannot forbear remarking—that it has been demonstrated that there is scarcely ever, if any such thing at all, as natural barrenness, or as natural imbecility of the procreant functions, in either sex; and, therefore, that those evils are the effects of long continued abuse, and should be satisfactorily subdued and removed by the use of "Le Cordial de Lucine."

The Lucina cordial is also an indubitable cure for the gleet, and for the floor albus, obstructed, difficult, or painful menstruation, for the whites, incontinence of urine, or the involuntary discharge thereof. It is likewise an invaluable and unrivalled medicine in cases of chronic eruptions of the skin, and in the dropsical affections of the aged.

HUMAN HAIR.—"It is certainly true, although it not generally understood, that the roots of the hair always remain in the skin, and that there not only exist roots more in the skin of every individual than hairs growing from them, but in the worst cases of baldness, that they neither perish nor are destroyed; and unless by accident or disease there should be complete derangement, or destruction of the parts, the roots of the hair will, if properly treated, they (the roots) continue vigorous, and are not destroyed, or even injured, when the hair has fallen, from fevers, or from constitutional causes, either in the old or young."—(Extract from S. I. Beale & co's pamphlet on preserving Hair from decay.)

MESSRS. S. I. BEALS & Co. invite those who are bald (in any degree) or who are losing their hair, to come to their store, 161 Broadway, up stairs, and have their Hair Preservative applied without charge and their hair restored.

They further offer to enter into a contract with any party to restore the hair under the penalty of a forfeit of from five to five hundred dollars, said party being bound in a like sum, who paid when the hair shall have been restored.

The original certificates of gentlemen of the highest standing in the city, may be seen at the office 161 Broadway, showing (not fashionably that Beals' Hair Restorative has restored and will restore the human hair; and if there are not sufficient to satisfy this incredulous world, it is not for want of a great many, on account of the numerous humbugs that have been impudently palmed upon the community) occular demonstration will be given to those who may call there.

The ladies are respectfully recommended to the use of Beals' Hair Restorative, as it is certainly infallible in producing an abundance of new hair when it has become thin, and in preserving and beautifying that which remains.

Beals' Hair Restorative will keep skin in excellent condition, and preserve youth head of hair in health and beauty to the latest period of life. Price $3 per jar. A liberal discount to those who buy to sell.
