TEETH! TEETH! TEETH!—Deserving attention.—Professor Stillman's celebrated Magnetic Solution for cleaning the teeth. Ache and preserving Teeth and tender gums. Sold by the proprietor, 106 Chartres street. Price 50 cents. But the peculiar virtue on which its celebrity is based, is the facility and certainty with which it restores the teeth, even in cases, when they have been destroyed by disease, time, the tooth pick, or any of the numerous causes which terminate in the prostration of these instructions.

In connexion with the generality of really good specimens, this cordial commands notice, as a remedy for delicious nature, among the many ingredients which it composes it; but is, at the same time, so simple, yet so efficacious, that while it can renovate the prostrated energies of the invalid, it can at any one it, not only with impunity, but with advantage.

The tongue of society are unfortunately such, that, notwithstanding the benefits which would be sure to result, it would be cannot enter into an analysis of this inestimable cordial here, or publish certificates of the means which have been received as vouchers of the truthfulness. It has conferred on numbers of demanding individuals, the blessings of health, and it is from that it has been demonstrated that there is scarcely ever, if any such thing at all, as natural barrenness, or as natural inferiority of the procreant functions, in the sexes, and therefore, that those evils are the effects of artificial causes, and may be speedily subdued and removed by the use of "Le Cordial de Lucrèce."

The Lucrèce cordial is also an indubitable cure for the gleet, and for the four abuses, obstructed, difficult, or painful secretion; also for the incontinence of urine, or the involuntary discharge thereof. It is also, when an invaluable and unrivalled medicine in cases of chronic eruptions of the skin, and in the dropsical affections of the aged.

COUNTERFEIT.—The public is respectfully informed that one of the basest and most dangerous counterfeits ever attempted has lately been brought to light in the city of New York, we mean an imitation of that most deservedly popular medicine known "Brandreth's Vegetable Pills," for fever and ague.

We find but just down an imitation called "Brandreth's Vegetable Mixture," by L. S. Comstock & Co., when another still more dangerous, makes its appearance from the store of "Seaman & Brothers," No 6 Water street, N. Y., in universally the fac simile of the genuine. Never has been counterfeited—his copy rights infringed upon—the wrapper, certificate copied—and, in fact, imitated in such a manner, that from its extreme perfectness, it can scarcely be detected. We would also caution the public against purchasing of any other than regular agents, or in the United States—or, for the "Mixture," upon our rights, and expect dealers to be very careful of whom they purchase the article, unless its source can be clearly traced to the proprietor, or some one of his regular agents, whom he has authorized to act, and enjoying the utmost respect and confidence of the parties in which they reside, and who we feel, would think to offer any other than the genuine Brandreth's Vegetable Mixture, or for public good a few dollars, thereby endangering the lives of the fellow citizens.
