GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE.

Fellow-Citizens of the Senate and of the House of Representatives:

In taking a retrospective view of the year past, we find the most gratifying to the numerous evidences of our peculiar favor. Among other notable achievements, the most notable has been the successful completion of the great project of the Louisiana Canal.

Of the benefits of the canal, it is not necessary to say much. It will be a great boon to the State, and will be a great boon to the Nation. It will be a great boon to the commerce of the Gulf, and will be a great boon to the commerce of the world.

The canal will be a great boon to the commerce of the Gulf, and will be a great boon to the commerce of the world. It will be a great boon to the State, and will be a great boon to the Nation.

The canal will be a great boon to the commerce of the Gulf, and will be a great boon to the commerce of the world. It will be a great boon to the State, and will be a great boon to the Nation.

The canal will be a great boon to the commerce of the Gulf, and will be a great boon to the commerce of the world. It will be a great boon to the State, and will be a great boon to the Nation.

Orleans Navigation Company was organized. The people residing in the country on the Northern shore of the Lake, all complain loudly of the exorbitant toll exacted by the navigation company.

The United States Congress has designated a route for the proposed canal, and has authorized the necessary appropriations. It is now the duty of the State to carry out the plan.

The canal will be a great boon to the commerce of the Gulf, and will be a great boon to the commerce of the world. It will be a great boon to the State, and will be a great boon to the Nation.
