BOARDING SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES, IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

Reverend ALBERT SMEDES, Rector.

THE house occupied by the institution is spacious, and in a very pleasant situation. The Rector devotes his whole attention to his school, and spares no labor or pains to fulfil the reasonable wishes and expectations of parents who may entrust to him their children.

Terms—For board, including every incidental expense, with tuition in French and English, $400 per annum, payable quarterly in advance.

Extra charges for music; and the other accomplishments are regulated by the teachers in those branches.

As this advertisement is designed to circulate in a region where Mr. and Mrs. Smedes are personally unknown, the following testimonial and references are subjoined.

"From an intimate personal acquaintance with the Rev. Albert Smedes and his lady, I am satisfied, might give me great pleasure, to bear testimony to their acknowledged competency to the responsibilities and duties of the instruction of females.

Their institution is hereby commended to all who would secure to their daughters a superior education in that important department.

GENE. T. ONDERDONK,
Bishop of the Diocese of New York.

CARROLLTON ACADEMY.—The subscribers have the honor of announcing to the friends of families in Orleans and Jefferson, as well as the adjoining parishes, that on the second of November next, the winter institution will be opened, under their superintendence, for the reception of boys, both as boarding and day scholars. They pledge themselves that the most zealous attention shall be devoted to their moral and intellectual improvement.

The local advantages of Carrollton are well known.—They have secured the spacious house owned by Mr. Kohn—the garden and premises are extensive, and the establishment every respect admirably adapted for the object they have in view.

As the institution will be strictly preparatory, they promise limiting the age of pupils to fifteen years. The advantages of this arrangement, parents will at once appreciate.

Preparations will be made, as early as possible, for receiving girls, both as boarding and day scholars. The same attention in point of age will apply to both departments.

The scholastic year will be divided into two sessions, the winter term commencing on the 6th of January and ending on the 20th of June; and the summer term commencing on the 10th of July and ending on the 20th of December.

Terms:

Monthly scholars—English, French, Spanish and Latin, (including penmanship, arithmetic, geography &c.) each.....$5 00
Ancients of the above languages.....9 00

Boarding scholars, per annum, payable half yearly, in advance.....$300 00

FIRE INSURANCE

OF INSURANCE AGAINST FIRE.—The absence of any institution in this city for insuring live and the extraordinary rates of premium demanded by the northern and Eastern Insurance Companies for insuring life in policies issued on Louisiana, have determined the Board of Directors of the Company, to put into operation that clause in their charter which authorizes them to insure upon lives, on such premiums which will be satisfactory, and on receipt of a moderate annual income to secure for those who are dependent on them a comfortable provisi in case of their death.

The scale determined on as nearly as possible the average rate of mortality in Louisiana, is the same as for those which cannot failto suit purchasers.
