COGGESHWELL'S—Pectoral Paste of Sagapenum, Drug cure of coughs, none had ever obtained so much celebrity as the Pectoral Paste, of Test fever. The happy results of its use have gained for it the affections of the lungs and consumption, have rendered it invaluable.

This paste has the power of calming irritations of the lungs immediately, facilitates the expectoration, and stops the cough. It is one of the best remedies, as colds, catarrh, &c., which yield immediately to its effects. Physicians of the best standing in Paris have tested its efficacy in many cases, and have recommended its use in the illing effections, and in cases of consumption is the best remedy now known.

The above remedy can be obtained at M. Martin's, Druggist, No. 171, Chartres st.

IMPROVEMENT AND BARGAIN COMPANY,
New Orleans, 9th July, 1841.

THE splendid Hotel St. Louis, being nearly finished in an elegant style, proposals for its lease from the 1st November last, will be received at this office.

Persons desirous of making applications may obtain at all times, from the Cashier all the information they may require, and the proposals under seal must be addressed to the President and Directors on or before the 20th August next.

By order of the Board

L. BERNARD, jy10 Cashier.

For the information of persons in other parts of the United States who might feel inclined to take advantage of this opportunity of securing the use of this splendid establishment, it is thought proper to give the following description.

The Hotel forms part of the handsome block of buildings known as the City Exchange and St. Louis Hotel. Previous to its destruction by fire in February, 1840, this edifice was styled the Paris of the South, and by its establishment it has rather been improved in style and convenience.

There is an entrance in St. Louis street, near the vestibule of the Exchange and Rotunda, and the main entrance is in Royal street through a handsome vestibule with a large winding stair way leading to the upper part of the building.

The second floor is comprised of one large dining room or ordinary 65 feet in length, 32 feet wide and 16 feet high 42 feet by 31 connected by large sliding doors, with two small rooms in the rear designed for a passage, leading from the latter rooms there are described to the stair way in St. Louis street, also the second hall passage over the exchange, but which does not form part of the premises to be leased.

The third floor comprises 4 rooms fronting on Royal street, 21 by 21 feet each; 4 suites of rooms, each 10 feet by 16 and 16 by 12, connect 4 by doors; 4 suites date each 6 by 16, and 16 by 12; and two rooms 20 by 12, all intended for families.

The fourth floor besides a front of 100 feet and upwards, in Royal street, extends on St. Louis from Royal to Chartres street, 300 feet, and comprises 64 rooms, 16 of 16 by 16 feet, and over them on the half floor 1 servants rooms 12 by 10 feet each, with a back stairs leading to all the floors.

Besides other conveniences, such as supply of water and reservoirs in the 4th floor containing one 4 and the other 6 thousand gallons of water.

L. B., Cashier.

The Philadelphia National Gazette, New York Courier and Enquirer, and Boston Courier, will please insert the above for 3 weeks, and forward their accounts to this office for collection.

NOTICE.—W. M. LAMBETH & W. E. THOMPSON have this day taken into co-partnership EDMUND HARDING, JOHN HASKINS and JAMES CUNAN. The business will be conducted under the firm of Lambeth, Thompson & Co.

The signature of W. M. Lambeth & Thompson will be used in liquidation.

GALT HOUSE,
Cincinnati, corner Main and Sixth streets.

THE location of this house, being Central, built on a lot between the river and canal, and fronting on the highest street upon Main street, and convenient to all kinds of business, and the most desirable hotel in the city, not excepting any in the city—both stock and furniture new, and of the most superior quality, and the entire establishment under the direct management of the proprietor, will be found, on a trial, to be in every respect, worthy the patronage of the public, and the proprietor hopes, from the unexampled success of last year, to merit a continuance of the same.
