These ships were all built in the city of New York, expressly for packets, are of light draught of water; have recently been newly coppered and put in splendid order, with accommodations to passengers unequalled for comfort. They are commanded by experienced masters who will make every exertion to give general satisfaction.—They will at all times be towed up and down the Mississippi river by steamboats.

Neither the owners or captains of these ships will be responsible for jewelry, bullion, precious stones, silver or plated ware, or for any letters, parcels or package sent by them, unless a receipt be taken for the same, and the value thereon expressed. For freight or passage, apply to JAMES K WOODRUFF.
