FIRE PROOF SAFES.—RICHARDS' IMPROVED BALANCE SAFES.—The superiority of these Safes over all others now in use, consists in their being not only fire proof, but also protected from the serious objection to other balance safes, in the fact that papers, books, &c. are preserved perfectly dry, while abundance of proof exists that others do mould the books, and impart a dampness to the papers. The gentlemen whose names are subjoined, were a committee on the trial of the Safe in an air furnace at the foot of Wall street, and the following is their opinion of it:—

"Judging from the result of the experiment, we think Richards's Bank Safe equal to any yet invented for the preservation of books and papers from fire, and entitled to the confidence of the community.

FIRE PROOF IRON SAFES—There can be no stronger evidence of the high estimation by the public of Wilder's Patent Salamander Safe than the fact that since the invention of these Safes and by far the most reliable and tests, almost every thing made for the purpose of holding books and papers are called by the makers and vendors by the name of Salamander Safes.

The following gentlemen composed a Committee of Merchants at the trial of a safe in a blast furnace near the foot of Wall street, and called Wilder's Patent Salamander Safe, which was the only one that stood the test, viz:

Messrs. WADSWORTH & SMITH,
" BALDWIN & CO.
" MINTURN & CO.
CHAS. H. MARSHALL, Esq.

Wilder's Salamander Safes, which have never failed to preserve the contents in case of fire, are to be had only of
